Marsh, 2005-08-04 School subjects and how they are viewed and positioned within education is the focus of this text. It argues that as part of rethinking the whole school curriculum there has been a failure to look at the historical and social background of school subjects      Teaching Elementary School Subjects Kenneth Lawrence Husbands, 1961      Subject Knowledge Christopher J. Anstead, Ivor F. Goodson, J. Marshall Mangan, 2002-11 This text attempts to account for the growth of increased interest by sociologists and others in school subjects since the 1960s. Goodson's analysis of his own work examines the range of insights afforded of the nature of schooling and teaching through the study of school subjects      School Subjects and Curriculum Change Ivor F. Goodson, 2013-04-03 The process of curriculum development is highly practical as Goodson shows in this enlarged anniversary third edition of his seminal work. The position of subjects and their development within the curriculum is illustrated by looking at how school subjects in particular geography and biology gained academic and intellectual respectability within the whole curriculum during the late 1960s and early 1970s. He highlights how subjects owe their formation and accreditation to competing status and their power to compete in the provision of worthwhile knowledge and considers subjects as continually changing sub groups of information. Such subjects from the framework of the society in which individuals live and over which they have influence. This volume questions the basis on which subject disciplines are developed and formulates new possibilities for curriculum development and reform in a post modernist age      Teaching Elementary School Subjects Louis Win Rapeer, 1917      School Subject Teaching Ashley Kent, 2013-12-19 Covering each of the core curriculum areas in turn this is a reference on school subject teaching.
