Tears In The Holy Land Voices From Israel:

Tears in the Holy Land Deanna Armbruster, 2001-09-01 Tears in the Holy Land Deanna Armbruster, Michael Emery, 2003 Tears in the Holy Land begins where the nightly news leaves off putting a human face on one of suffering and determination on what was once just a headline In this collection of oral histories based on interviews with Palestinians and Israelis we hear the voices of those directly affected by the conflict in Israel Palestine They speak with a commendable sincerity that reaches out from the pages and demands critical consideration The question of which side is right and which side is wrong fades into the background as another truth emerges the cycle of violence must cease for the sake of the personal and economic security of all people in the holy land and the world at large Peace-building in Israel and Palestine J. Chaitin, 2011-08-14 This book presents an overview of psycho social research on the Israeli Palestinian conflict presents and analyzes people to people activities in the region and offers new conceptualizations for Israeli Palestinian co creation of a grassroots peace and social justice processes Peace on Earth Thomas Matyók, Maureen Flaherty, Hamdesa Tusso, Jessica Senehi, Sean Byrne, 2013-12-16 Peace on Earth The Role of Religion in Peace and Conflict Studies provides a critical analysis of faith and religious institutions in peacebuilding practice and pedagogy The work captures the synergistic relationships among faith traditions and how multiple approaches to conflict transformation and peacebuilding result in a creative process that has the potential to achieve a more detailed view of peace on earth containing breadth as well as depth Library and bookstore shelves are filled with critiques of the negative impacts of religion in conflict scenarios Peace on Earth The Role of Religion in Peace and Conflict Studies offers an alternate view that suggests religious organizations play a more complex role in conflict than a simply negative one Faith based organizations and their workers are often found on the frontlines of conflict throughout the world conducting conflict management and resolution activities as well as advancing peacebuilding initiatives The Handbook of Conflict and Peace Communication Sudeshna Roy, 2025-09-03 An incisive collection of essays highlighting conflict and peace issues in the Global South with coverage of theory method mediated case oriented and innovative approaches In Handbook of Conflict and Peace Communication renowned communication and media scholar Dr Sudeshna Roy delivers an authoritative exploration of a variety of critical conflicts in the world and a spectrum of approaches to peace communication This book offers an in depth view of how intricate and intractable conflicts can be and how the communicative aspects of conflict are equally challenging The author reviews and guides readers through classic and contemporary analysis in the field providing a truly interdisciplinary work Handbook of Conflict and Peace Communication is divided into five navigable sections Theory Development Method Development Traditional Digital Media and Peace and Conflict Case Studies and Innovative Approaches that help illuminate workable and innovative peace communication strategies relevant to today's conflicts Readers will also find Informative contributions from a collection of outstanding scholars practitioners and activists Comprehensive explorations of past conflict communication theory in the context of contemporary theory Practical tools to navigate complex local and global conflicts In depth examinations of strategies of peace communication from the margins that acknowledge and elevate solutions for and from the most vulnerable Perfect for undergraduate and graduate students scholars and practitioners of peace and conflict studies media studies intercultural communication human rights and social justice Handbook of Conflict and Peace Communication will also earn a place in the libraries of interdisciplinary studies involving philosophy anthropology political science history geography economics psychology and others

Peacebuilding, Memory and Reconciliation Bruno Charbonneau, Genevieve Parent, 2013-06-17 This book aims to bridge the gap between what are generally referred to as top down and bottom up approaches to peacebuilding After the experience of a physical and psychological trauma the period of individual healing and recovery is intertwined with political and social reconciliation The prospects for social and political reconciliation are undermined when a top down approach is favoured over the bottom up strategy the prioritization of structural stability over societal well being Peacebuilding Memory and Reconciliation explores the inextricable link between psychological recovery and socio political reconciliation and the political issues that dominate this relationship Through an examination of the construction of social narratives about or for peace the text offers a new perspective on peacebuilding which challenges and questions the very nature of the dichotomy between top down and bottom up approaches This book will be of much interest to students of peacebuilding peace and conflict studies social psychology political science and IR in general

The Voice of Israel, 1845 The Voice of Israel, ed. by R.H. Herschell Ridley Haim Herschell, 1845 Aljadid, 2003 Holy Tears Kimberley Christine Patton, John Stratton Hawley, 2018-06-26 What religion does not serve as a theater of tears Holy Tears addresses this all but universal phenomenon with passion and precision ranging from Mycenaean Greece up through the tragedy of 9 11 Sixteen authors including many leading voices in the study of religion offer essays on specific topics in religious weeping while also considering broader issues such as gender memory physiology and spontaneity A comprehensive elegantly written introduction offers a key to these topics Given the pervasiveness of its theme it is remarkable that this book is the first of its kind and it is long overdue The essays ask such questions as Is religious weeping primal or culturally constructed Is it universal Is it spontaneous Does God ever cry Is religious weeping altered by sexual or social roles Is it perhaps at once scripted and spontaneous private and communal Is it indeed divine The grief occasioned by 9 11 and violence in Afghanistan Iraq Israel and elsewhere offers a poignant context for this fascinating and richly detailed book Holy Tears concludes with a compelling meditation on the theology of weeping that emerged from pastoral responses to 9 11 as described in the editors interview with Reverend Betsee Parker who became head chaplain for the Office of the Chief Medical Examiner of New York City and leader of the multifaith chaplaincy team at Ground Zero The contributors are Diane Apostolos Cappadona Amy Bard Herbert Bassor Santha Bhattacharji William Chittick Gary Ebersole M David Eckel John Hawley Gay Lynch Jacob Ol pqn with Sol Aj b d Betsee Parker Kimberley Patton Nehemia Polen Kay Read and Kallistos Ware
