Tears Of Eros:

The Tears of Eros Georges Bataille, 1989-06 The Tears of Eros is the culmination of Georges Bataille's inquiries into the relationship between violence and the sacred Taking up such figures as Gilles de Rais Erzebet Bathory the Marquis de Sade El Greco Gustave Moreau Andre Breton Voodoo practitioners and Chinese torture victims Bataille reveals their common obsession death This essay illustrated with artwork from every era was developed out of ideas explored in Erotism Death and Sexuality and Prehistoric Painting Lascaux or the Birth of Art In it Bataille examines death the little death that follows sexual climax the proximate death in sadomasochistic practices and death as part of religious ritual and sacrifice Georges Bataille was born in Billom France in 1897 He was a librarian by profession Also a philosopher novelist and critic he was founder of the College of Sociology In 1959 Bataille began The Tears of Eros and it was completed in 1961 his final work Bataille died in 1962

Body Horror John Taylor, 1998-09 What compels us to look at shocking photographs or alternatively to look away Should the media use disturbing images to inform at the risk of offending How is our sense of politics morality and culture affected when we are exposed to gruesome images of accidents and disasters murder and execution grief and death In Body Horror John Taylor addresses these questions by examining how the media presents unsettling pictures especially those of dead and injured foreigners Drawing on recent experiences in the Gulf Bosnia and Rwanda Taylor argues that documentary photography for all the horror it reproduces ultimately defines a democracy Fully aware of the voyeuristic aspects of photojournalism Taylor probes the difficulty of applying moral imperatives when separating the utility of showing images of suffering and violence from the risk of either insulting or gratifying public sensibilities A compelling documentary of photography's cultural and political power Body Horror analyzes the moral responsibility attached to publishing and bearing witness to photographs of violence and the historical amnesia that arises when such imagery remains unseen

Architecture and Violence Bechir Kenzari, 2011 In today's turbulent times few subjects deserve a closer scrutiny than the interactions between violence and constructed environment Modernity's contradictory histories laid bare the fact that it is impossible to consider architecture simply a benign passive victim of humanity's violent vices Built space is as capable of incarnating violent acts as enacting them disciplining and silencing the subject in the process In this compelling volume some of the most incisive thinkers of contemporary architectural theory make manifest the intricacies of interrelations between architecture and violent events Employing a wide variety of perspectives and methodical approaches the authors examine some of the most dramatic and unexpected instances of these vexing relations Back cover

Life-Destroying Diagrams Eugenie Brinkema, 2022-01-14 In Life Destroying Diagrams

Eugenie Brinkema brings the insights of her radical formalism to bear on supremely risky terrain the ethical extremes of horror and love Through close readings of works of film literature and philosophy she explores how diagrams grids charts lists abecedaria toroids tempos patterns colors negative space lengths increments and thresholds attest to formal logics of torture and cruelty violence and finitude friendship and eros debt and care Beginning with a wholesale rethinking of the affect of horror orienting it away from entrenched models of feeling toward impersonal schemes and structures Brinkema moves outward to consider the relation between objects and affects humiliation and metaphysics genre and the general bodily destruction and aesthetic generation geometry and scenography hatred and value love and measurement and ultimately the tensions hazards and speculative promise of formalism itself Replete with etymological meditations performative typography and lyrical digressions Life Destroying Diagrams is at once a model of reading without guarantee and a series of generative experiments in the writing of aesthetic theory     Ecce Homo Kent L. Brintnall, 2024-05-31 Images of suffering male bodies permeate Western culture from Francis Bacon's paintings and Robert Mapplethorpe's photographs to the battered heroes of action movies Drawing on perspectives from a range of disciplines including religious studies gender and queer studies psychoanalysis art history and film theory Ecce Homo explores the complex ambiguous meanings of the enduring figure of the male body in pain Acknowledging that representations of men confronting violence and pain can reinforce ideas of manly tenacity Kent L. Brintnall also argues that they reveal the vulnerability of men's bodies and open them up to eroticization Locating the roots of our cultural fascination with male pain in the crucifixion he analyzes the way narratives of Christ's death and resurrection both support and subvert cultural fantasies of masculine power and privilege Through stimulating readings of works by Georges Bataille Kaja Silverman and more Brintnall delineates the redemptive power of representations of male suffering and violence     Ecce Homo Kent Brintnall, 2011 Drawing on perspectives from a range of disciplines including religious studies gender and queer studies psychoanalysis art history and film theory Ecce Homo explores the complex ambiguous meanings of the enduring figure of the male body in pain     Spirit Possession in French, Haitian, and Vodou Thought Alessandra Benedicty-Kokken, 2014-11-12 This book recuperates the important history that Haitian thought around Vodou possession has had in French critical theory The author takes the period of the 1930s and 40s as the centerfold of a more complex network of relations that places Haiti as one of the pivots of a more expanded intellectual conversation around possession which links anthropology literature psychoanalysis human rights and visual arts in France Haiti and the United States Benedicty argues that Haiti as the anthropological other serves as a kick starter to an entire French based theoretical apparatus Breton Leiris Bataille de Certeau Foucault and Butler but once up and running its role as catalyst is forgotten and the multiple iterations of the anthropological other are cast back into the net of Michel Rolph Trouillot's Savage slot The book offers the reader unfamiliar with Haiti a comprehensive interdisciplinary study of twentieth and early twenty first century Haitian thought including a detailed timeline of important moments in the intellectual history that connects Haiti to France and the United States The first part of the book is about global dispossessions in the first decades of the twentieth century the second part points to how the narratives of Haiti are intimately linked to a Franco U S American discursive space constructed over the course of the twentieth century a discursive order that has conflated the representation of Haiti with an understanding of Vodou primarily as an occult religion and not as a philosophical system The third and fourth parts of the book examine how the novels of Ren Depestre Jean Claude Fignol and Kettly Mars have revisited the notion of possession since the fall of the Duvalier dictatorships Bataille's Eye & ICI Field Notes 4 Deborah Cullen, Institute of Cultural Inquiry, 1997 Exploring Sexuality and Spirituality, 2020-10-20 The wide spectrum of links and interrelations found amongst the diversity of human sexual expressions and spiritual practices around the world constitutes one of the most fruitful grounds of scholarly research today Exploring Sexuality and Spirituality introduces an emerging academic field of studies focused on the multiplicity of problematizations intersecting spirituality and sexuality from eroticism and ecstasy embodiments to inner spiritual cultivation intimate relationships sex education and gender empowerment This collection of essays addresses subjects such as prehistoric art Queer Theology BDSM Tantra the Song of Songs la petite mort asceticism feminist performative protests and sexually charged landscapes among others Through varied methodologies and state of the art interdisciplinary approaches this volume becomes highly useful for readers engaged in the integration of scholarly and practical knowledge The Intoxication of Destruction in Theory, Culture and Media Erin K. Stapleton, 2025-10-01 This book examines the desire for and intoxication with destruction as it appears in cultural objects and representation arguing that all cultural and aesthetic value is fundamentally predicated on its own fragility as well as the living transience of those who make and encounter it Beginning with a philosophy of expenditure after Georges Bataille each chapter maps different operations of destruction in media and culture These operations are expressed and located in representations of human extinction and explosive architecture in execution and in eroticism and in media and digital archives which constitute a further destabilization of the notion of destruction in the dynamic between aspirational immortality and material volatility embedded in the archival systems of digital cultures Memories of the Future Siri Hustvedt, 2020-03-31 A provocative exuberant novel about time memory desire and the imagination from the internationally bestselling and prizewinning author of The Blazing World A young woman S H moves to New York City in 1978 to look for adventure and write her first novel but finds herself distracted by her mysterious neighbor Lucy Brite As S H listens to Lucy through the thin walls of her dilapidated building she carefully transcribes the woman's bizarre monologues about her daughter's violent death and her need to punish the killer Forty years later S H stumbles upon the journal she kept that year and writes a memoir Memories of the Future in which she juxtaposes the notebook's texts drafts from her unfinished comic novel and her commentaries on them to create a dialogue among selves over the decades She remembers She misremembers She forgets Events of the past take on new meanings She works to reframe her traumatic memory of a sexual assault She celebrates the legacy of the wild and rebellious Dada artist poet the Baroness Elsa von Freytag Loringhoven As the book unfolds you witness S H write her way through vengeance and into freedom Smart funny angry and poignant Hustvedt s seventh novel brings together the themes that have made her one of the most celebrated novelists working today the strangeness of time the brutality of patriarchy and the power of the imagination to remake the past Surrealism and the Gothic Neil Matheson,2017-08-07 Surrealism and the Gothic is the first book length analysis of the role played by the gothic in both the initial emergence of surrealism and at key moments in its subsequent development as an art and literary movement The book argues the strong and sustained influence not only of the classic gothic novel itself Ann Radcliffe Charles Maturin Matthew Lewis etc but also the determinative impact of closely related phenomena as with the influence of mediumism alchemy and magic The book also traces the later development of the gothic novel as with Bram Stoker s Dracula and its mutation into such works of popular fiction as the Fant mas series of Marcel Allain and Pierre Souvestre enthusiastically taken up by writers such as Apollinaire and subsequently feeding into the development of surrealism More broadly the book considers a range of motifs strongly associated with gothic writing as with insanity incarceration and the accursed outsider explored in relation to the personal experience and electroshock treatment of Antonin Artaud A recurring motif of the analysis is that of the gothic castle developed in the writings of Andr Breton Artaud Sade Julien Gracq and other writers as well as in the work of visual artists such as Magritte The ^AHypothetical Mandarin Eric Hayot,2009-04-24 Through readings of novels medical case studies travelers reports photographs and paintings The Hypothetical Mandarin shows that in the West the connection between sympathy and humanity and indeed between sympathy and reality has tended to refract with a remarkable frequency through the lens called China Eric Hayot through keen interpretations of myriad art forms and nonfictional writings reveals how Western responses to Chinese pain go to the heart of the relationship between language and the body the social and philosophical experience of modernity and the definition of a universal human subject In short this analysis reveals how four terms sympathy suffering economic exchange and representational exchange establish the network that frames the historical discourse on China sympathy and modernity It is a book that opens new possibilities for thinking about the West s relationship to China past and present and that establishes a new philosophical vantage from which to consider the question of empathy Georges Bataille Stuart Kendall,2007-08-30 Georges Bataille was arguably the greatest influence on the poststructuralist revolution in twentieth century thought and literature yet few truly understand his work and legacy Stuart Kendall now translates the work and life of this renowned French writer anthropologist and philosopher into a concise yet informative biography that reveals fascinating facets of this intellectual giant Until his death in 1962 Bataille was an instrumental force in philosophical debate acting as a foil for both Surrealism and Existentialism and advocating radical views that spanned the entire spectrum of political thought Georges Bataille chronicles these aspects of his intellectual development as well as tracing out his pivotal role in the creation of the College of Sociology and how his writings in aesthetics and art history laid the groundwork for visual culture studies Kendall positions Bataille at the heart of a prodigious community of thinkers including Andr Breton Jean Paul Sartre and Jacques Lacan A compelling account Georges Bataille will be invaluable for all thinkers who have benefited from Bataille s lasting contributions      Sensible Ecstasy Amy Hollywood,2010-01-15 Sensible Ecstasy investigates the attraction to excessive forms of mysticism among twentieth century French intellectuals and demonstrates the work that the figure of the mystic does for these thinkers With special attention to Georges Bataille Simone de Beauvoir Jacques Lacan and Luce Irigaray Amy Hollywood asks why resolutely secular even anti Christian intellectuals are drawn to affective bodily and widely denigrated forms of mysticism What is particular to these thinkers Hollywood reveals is their attention to forms of mysticism associated with women They regard mystics such as Angela of Foligno Hadewijch and Teresa of Avila not as emotionally excessive or escapist but as unique in their ability to think outside of the restrictive oppositions that continue to afflict our understanding of subjectivity the body and sexual difference Mystics such as these like their twentieth century descendants bridge the gaps between action and contemplation emotion and reason and body and soul offering new ways of thinking about language and the limits of representation

Women in Martial Ilaria Marchesi,2024-06-24 Women in Martial is the first monograph to treat the portrayals of women in Martial s Epigrams in a systematic way In this volume Marchesi proposes a new method of exploring the cultural construction of femininity in the Flavian age presenting an interplay between close readings of Martial s poems and their contextualization through legal historiographic rhetorical and grammatical discussions This book discusses the social roles assigned to women in Roman society where they were at once called to represent their fathers and reproduce their husbands together with the question of to what extent they are depicted as semiotic signifiers in Martial s corpus Noting socially aberrant behavior by pointedly using the discourse of grammar and its categories to detect and address the social issues of his time Martial a poet who distinctively adopts the role of a surrogate censor for Domitian constructs the women he depicts in both negative and positive ways as signs of their time Using a wide range of examples from ancient Roman culture Women in Martial models a way of using literary sources to address the intersection of social and cultural issues in the study of women in the ancient world ultimately demonstrating the extent to which the social roles and identities of women were constructed and policed through semiotic categories      Mind Factory Louis Armand,2005 Mind Factory explores a mosaic of ideas and practices currently surrounding the question of cognition mind literacy autopoiesis and tele technologies and how these define a contemporary human condition Essays included in this volume address a range of subjects from the Abu Ghraib torture photographs brain implants and behavioural control to the possibility of quantum minds and machine intelligence to the technicity of faith sintonic desire ideoplastic materialisation and psychic geographies      Electric Animal Akira Mizuta Lippit,2000 Differentiation from animals helped to establish the notion of a human being but the disappearance of animals now threatens that identity This is the argument underlying Electric Animal a probing exploration of the figure of the animal in modern culture Akira Mizuta Lippit shows us the animal as a crucial figure in the definition of modernity essential to developments in the natural sciences and technology radical transformations in modern philosophy and literature and the advent of psychoanalysis and the cinema Moving beyond the dialectical framework that has traditionally bound animal and human being Electric Animal raises a series of questions regarding the idea of animality in Western thought Can animals communicate Do they have consciousness Are they aware of death By tracing questions such as these through a wide range of texts by writers ranging from Friedrich Nietzsche to Jacques Derrida Sigmund Freud to Vicki Heame Lewis Carroll to Franz Kafka and Sergei Eisenstein to Gilles Deleuze Lippit arrives at a remarkable thesis revealing an extraordinary logical consensus in Western thought animals do not have language and hence cannot die The animal has accordingly haunted thought as a form of spectral and undead being Lippit demonstrates how in the late nineteenth century this phantasmic concept of animal being reached the proportions of an epistemological crisis engendering the disciplines and media of psychoanalysis modern literature and cinema among others Against the prohibitive logic of Western philosophy these fields opened a space for rethinking animality Technology usually thought of in opposition to nature came to serve as therepository for an unmournable animality a kind of vast wildlife museum A highly original work that charts new territory in current debates over language and mortality subjectivity and technology Electric Animal brings to light fundamental questions about the status of representation of the animal and of ourselves in the age of biomechanical reproduction
