Rediscovering America Peter Duus, Kenji Hasegawa, 2011-09-01. In this extraordinary collection of writings covering the period from 1878 to 1989, a wide range of Japanese visitors to the United States offer their vivid and sometimes surprising perspectives on Americans and American society. Peter Duus and Kenji Hasegawa have selected essays and articles by Japanese from many walks of life: writers and academics, bureaucrats and priests, politicians and journalists, businessmen, philanthropists, artists. Their views often reflect power relations between America and Japan, particularly during the wartime and postwar periods, but all of them dealt with common themes: America's origins, its ethnic diversity, its social conformity, its peculiar gender relations, its vast wealth and its cultural arrogance, making clear that while Japanese observers often regarded the U.S. as a mentor, they rarely saw it as a role model.

Truth and Reconciliation Thomas E. Malewitz, 2024-02-15. Framed within the lens of Robert Greenleaf's Servant Leadership model, Truth and Reconciliation examines and explores trends through global historical accounts and examples of diplomatic leadership surrounding the Truth and Reconciliation Commissions of South Africa and Canada as a guide to approach America's divided identity and racial tensions. Through the wisdom and diplomacy illustrated during the transition of a South African nation defined by legal racial segregation of apartheid to democracy, as well as a Canadian national identity deeply scarred through the cultural genocide of generations of First Nations children and families through the abusive Residential School system and the Sixties Scoop, it is the hope that this manuscript will offer insights as well as a theological lens for reflection to approach a nonviolent narrative-based option of seeking truth and the first steps toward reconciliation beyond cyclic ideologies. By highlighting the historical parallels between South Africa, Canada, and America, this manuscript serves as a conversation starter, offering reflective stories and activities to help establish an initial dialogue in a nation whose consciousness remains deeply rooted in unresolved cultural conflict from Indigenous genocide, as well as the residual deep cultural challenges and stereotypes of American slavery ideology and practices.
