The Other Hong Kong Report 1994 Donald McMillen, Si-wai Man, 1994 The Other Hong Kong Report 1998 Larry Chuen-ho Chow, Yiu-Kwan Fan, 1998-12-31 Published annually since 1989 The Other Hong Kong Report is a review of the various aspects of development in Hong Kong in the past year by scholars and experts who are not government officials and is intended to offer an alternative view to that portrayed in government publications Hong Kong's Reunion with China: The Global Dimensions Gerard A. Postiglione, James Tuck-Hong Tang, 2016-07-01 The issues surrounding Hong Kong's global position and international links grow increasingly complex by the day as the process of Hong Kong's transformation from a British colony to a Chinese Special Administration Region unfolds This volume addresses a number of questions relating to this process How international is Hong Kong What are its global and international dimensions How important are these dimensions to its continued success How will these dimensions change especially beyond the sphere of economics Is Hong Kong's internationalization defined in terms of its willingness to embrace international values and its capacity to maintain its international presence at risk These questions are presented as they pertain to the changing situation relations between mainland China Taiwan and Hong Kong the positions of Australia Canada and the United States on Hong Kong internalization of international legal values Americanization vs Asianization linkages to the world through Guangdong strategies to emigrate overseas cultural internationalization media internationalization and universities within the global economy Theologies of Power and Crisis Stephen Pavey, 2011-07-01 Theologies of Power and Crisis provides a case study for Eric Wolf's research directive to better comprehend the interplay of cultural webs of meaning and material webs of power forms of social life More specifically the book demonstrates how theological discourse and practice engage with historical and material relations of power It has been normative to speak of power in terms of political and economic processes and theology in terms of interpretive and symbolic experiences This work breaks new ground by linking theological ideas with political economic processes in terms of the structural relations of power Ethnographically this research investigates the theological processes of Hong Kong Chinese Christians during a period of significant social change and crisis precipitated by the return of Hong Kong to China in 1997 It shows how local Christians and Christian institutions mediated the significant regional national and transnational forces of political economic change by connecting theological practice to the structural relations of power The Christian response was a contested process closely intertwined with the broader contested processes of social organization This study develops an understanding of Christianity that goes beyond ecclesiastical hegemony to encompass struggles over human practice meaning and representation in relation to the changing political economic context These findings implicate religious ideas and practice as significant to an understanding of social inequalities and powerlessness by connecting ideologies to material conditions Christian ideas may be used to legitimize an oppressive social order or they may be used to liberate those who are oppressed Issues related to the policies and practice of development should take seriously the role of religious beliefs and practices

Hong Kong's Reunion with China ,1997-01-01 As Hong Kong transforms from a colonial dependent territory to a Chinese special administrative region its international status will be increasingly connected to China's position in the world the nature of Hong Kong global linkages are shifting as the

Agricultural Reform in China Yiping Huang,1998-01-13 Chinese agriculture has experienced some radical changes over the past twenty years Following the successful introduction of the household production system in the early 1980s difficulties were encountered in establishing a unified domestic agricultural market in the later 1980s and 1990s Through a comprehensive analysis of the changes in the Chinese agricultural institutions between the late 1970s and the mid 1990s this study attempts to provide some answers to the main questions presently facing the agricultural sector It focuses on the key elements of the pre reform agricultural institutions reviews the ways these institutions were refashioned and assesses the resulting changes in agricultural development The implications of different policy choices are carefully considered with the assistance of a computable general equilibrium model The author argues that China should push forward with its market oriented reform measures and introduce the rigours of international competition into the agricultural sector

Capitalist Development and Economism in East Asia Kui-Wai Li,2003-08-29 Taking a conceptual approach this book studies the economic development of the four East Asian economies since 1950 The author summarizes and reconsiders many of the arguments and findings that supported and explained the economic miracles of Hong Kong Singapore Taiwan and South Korea analysing the relationship between economic development growth and political economy This pioneering book will stimulate further analysis of East Asian development It will be of essential interest to scholars in East Asian economics and all those interested in modern economic development

The Scheme of Control on Electricity Companies Pun-Lee Lam,1996

Hong Kong Michael B. Yahuda,1996 The return of Hong Kong to China in July 1997 has the potential to benefit China's rapidly expanding economy China's handling of the transition will have enormous implications for her international standing This is the first study to analyse the serious problems and real opportunities that the return of the colony poses to China's international status Examining the relationships between Greater China Hong Kong and the West Hong Kong China's Challenge explores the challenges that Chinese policy makers face up to 1997 and beyond the clash of political cultures handling problematic negotiations dealing with conflicting economic interests The book concludes by suggesting that a laissez faire approach to the lucrative Hong Kong markets will ensure that China harnesses the full political and economic benefits of sovereignty over the colony

Education, Democracy and Development Raymond

Ryba,2012-12-06 This book contains a selected number of papers which were first presented at the VIIIth World Congress of Comparative Education in Prague July 8 14 1992 The Executive Committee of the World Council of Comparative and Education Societies had gladly accepted the bid made by the at that time still united Czech and Slovak Comparative Education Society to organise this congress in their beautiful and historic capital The choice of Prague underlined by President Vaclav Havel's patronage as well as the Congress theme were intended as a demonstration of the re opened communication among educationists all over the world as a result of the peaceful upheavals velvet revolutions which were awakening the countries of Central South East and East Europe in those days It is true that a good part of the enthusiasm has faded since then and given way to manifestations of disenchantment Education can be regarded as a striking example of the recent developments between euphoria and normalcy Traditional Organized Crime in the Modern World Dina Siegel, Henk van de Bunt, 2012-03-23 Despite strenuous efforts from local national and international law enforcement organized crime continues to thrive and prosper even centuries old crime outfits are surviving the global forces of mass migration and multinational business and finance From traditional gangland enterprises such as narcotics gambling and prostitution the world's mafias have moved into new sources of illegal income including high tech arms smuggling money laundering and identity fraud Traditional Crime in the Modern World tracks these organizations the Italian and Mexican mafias Columbian drug cartels Chinese triads and others across five continents as they adapt to change and assesses their prospects in the short and long term World events such as the collapse of the Soviet Union and the 9 11 terror attacks are discussed in the context of contributing to emerging markets for illicit goods and services and to evolving partnerships among criminal entities This timely volume Provides a comprehensive overview of how mafia like structures function today Analyzes in depth national crime situations with global implications Examines the migration of organized crime groups and their operations in their new countries Gauges the influence of digital and other technologies on organized crime Where applicable notes the links between organized crime and national political institutions Describes the impact of the global financial crisis on crime organizations Concise compelling and deeply documented Traditional Crime in the Modern World is an eye opening resource for researchers in Criminology and Criminal Justice particularly with an interest in organized crime and trafficking as well as related topics of Demography Political Science and International Relations Annual Review of Gerontology and Geriatrics, Volume 13, 1993 , 1993-10-22 During the past few decades the dramatic social changes with regard to our aging population and changes in the family unit have made both demographic and socioeconomic consequences as well as an effect on matters of social policy The prestigious editors George L Maddox and M Powell Lawton have assembled an impressive group of expert contributors whose chapters address topics from the latest theory and research findings to the changing balance of work and families as well as patterns of kinship China Briefing William A. Joseph, 1996-12-31 This newest China Briefing provides a retrospective analysis of important events in China Taiwan and

Hong Kong in the mid 1990s and a prospective look at some of the issues that will shape these areas as they each move toward decisive turning points in their distinct yet intertwined histories The volume includes chapters on politics economics U S China relations Taiwan Hong Kong gender and popular culture and concludes with a detailed chronology covering the period from mid 1994 through mid 1996 The Restructuring of Hong Kong Industries and the Urbanization of

Zhujiang Delta, 1979-1989 François Souldard,1997 Political Communication in Asia Lars Willnat,Annette Aw,2009-03-23 This edited volume provides a critical review of political communication research conducted in Asia over the past twenty years Each chapter focuses on studies published in a specific Asian country selected according to the level of contribution made to the field of political communication in Asia Covering China Hong Kong Taiwan South Korea Japan Singapore Malaysia Indonesia and India the book s primary objective is to review the unique theoretical accomplishments made by Asian communication scholars thus contributing to a better awareness and understanding of political communication research in Asia The contributors are well respected Asian media scholars writing on political communication in their countries of origin Each author reviews studies conducted and published in his her native country and language s This book provides a first review of these studies most of which have never been published in English and makes them available to international scholars The contributors discuss each country s political background and address the findings and conclusions of the political communication studies conducted in their respective countries during the past two decades The chapters focus on insights that have been made by adapting Western media theories to the unique social cultural or political contexts that exist in each country The authors also point out possible gaps in the current research within their respective countries and to make recommendations for future studies Elections and Democracy in Greater China Larry

Diamond,Ramon H. Myers,2001-05-10 The authoritarian Chinese regimes governing Taiwan Mainland China and Hong Kong allowed limited electoral competition during the last half century In Taiwan that process evolved over more than three decades before leading to the formation of an opposition party under martial law in late September 1986 and the blossoming of full democracy in March 2000 when that opposition party replaced the ruling party In Mainland China and Hong Kong limited electoral competition has only evolved over the last fifteen years or so This volume examines why and how limited electoral competition developed in Greater China The editors use a typology and different concepts to analyse how the political centre in these three Chinese societies historically interacted with society and how different regime change took place Their analysis attributes Taiwan s robust electoral competition under martial law to political breakthroughs in the political ideological economic and organizational marketplaces Without similar political breakthroughs in Mainland China and Hong Kong their limited electoral processes are not likely to lead to the election of one or more opposition parties in Mainland China and the direct election of a Hong Kong governor and parliament These two authoritarian regimes have adopted different institutions or rules to limit electoral competition Moreover different changes have been taking place in their political ideological economic and organizational marketplaces than occurred in Taiwan Therefore whether these two Chinese societies can mimic the Taiwan democratization path remains problematic Only the passage of time will reveal whether their limited electoral competitive processes can transform into full democracy
