Tudor, 2020 A gripping thriller about a man's quest for the daughter no one else believes is still alive from the acclaimed author of The Chalk Man and The Hiding Place Some writers have it and C. J. Tudor has it big time Lee Child Q Why are you called the Other People A We are people just like you People to whom terrible things have happened We've found solace not in forgiveness or forgetting But in helping each other find justice Driving home one night Gabe is stuck behind a rusty old car He sees a little girl's face appear in its rear window She mouths one word Daddy It's his five year old daughter Izzy He never sees her again Three years later Gabe spends his days and nights traveling up and down the highway searching for the car that took his daughter refusing to give up hope even though most people believe she's dead When the car that he saw escape with his little girl is found abandoned with a body inside Gabe must confront not just the day Izzy disappeared but the painful events from his past now dredged to the surface Q What sort of justice A That depends on the individual But our ethos is a punishment that fits the crime Fran and her daughter Alice also put in a lot of miles on the road Not searching Running Trying to keep one step ahead of the people who want to hurt them because Fran knows the truth She knows what really happened to Gabe's daughter She knows who is responsible And she knows what they will do if they ever catch up to her and Alice Q Can I request to have someone killed A If your Request is acceptable and unless there are exceptional circumstances we fulfill all Requests
