The Book of Ruth Mario Diamant, 2003 The Book of Ruth An old woman searches her attic for something she can no longer recall In the process encounters figures from her past including herself at various stages of her life Smithereens Three friends get together twenty years after Argentina's Dirty War in the 1970s and 80s to confront their actions their responsibilities and their guilt About The Book of Ruth Diamant's emotionally touching new play based loosely on his mother's life wraps history with symbolism and a small amount of nostalgic reverie Jack Zink Sun Sentinel Smithereens Diamant's personal attempt at understanding the events of Argentina's Dirty War in the 1970s and 80s could be taken as an odyssey of a nation The events the play's three main characters are reliving took place 20 years ago but what makes this play relevant is the idea that people and nations must accept responsibility for the past before stepping successfully into the future Jane Bussey The Miami Herald
