The Open Space of Democracy Terry Tempest Williams, Mary Frank, 2009 Open Space New Media Documentary Patricia R. Zimmermann, Helen De Michiel, 2017-11-22 Open Space New Media Documentary examines an emerging and significant area of documentary practice in the twenty first century community based new media documentary projects that move across platforms and utilize participatory modalities The book offers an innovative theorization of these collaborative and collective new media practices which the authors term open space gesturing towards a more contextual critical nexus of technology form histories community convenings collaborations and mobilities It looks at a variety of low cost sustainable and scalable documentary projects from across the globe where new technologies meet places and people in Argentina Canada India Indonesia Peru South Africa Ukraine and the USA Inviting Understanding Sonja K. Foss, Cindy L. Griffin, 2020-08-20 Inviting Understanding A Portrait of Invitational Rhetoric is an authoritative reference work designed to provide a comprehensive overview of the theory of invitational rhetoric developed twenty five years ago by Sonja K Foss and Cindy L Griffin This theory challenges the conventional conception of rhetoric as persuasion and defines rhetoric as an invitation to understanding as a means to create a relationship rooted in equality immanent value and self determination Rather than celebrating argumentation division and winning invitational rhetoric encourages rhetors to listen across differences to engage in dialogue and to try to understand positions different from their own Organized into the three categories of foundations extensions and applications Inviting Understanding is a compilation of published articles and new essays that explore and expand the theory The book provides readers with access to a wide range of resources about this revolutionary theory in areas such as community organizing social justice activism social media film graffiti institutional and team decision making communication and composition pedagogy and interview protocols MetroGreen Donna Erickson, 2012-09-26 In metropolitan areas across the country you can hear the laments over the loss of green space to new subdivisions and strip malls But some city residents have taken unprecedented measures to protect their open land and a growing movement seeks not only to preserve these lands but to link them in green corridors Many land use and urban planning professionals along with landscape architects and environmental advocates have joined in efforts to preserve natural areas MetroGreen answers their call for a deeper exploration of the latest thinking and newest practices in this growing conservation field In ten case studies of U S and Canadian cities paired for comparative analysis Toronto and Chicago Calgary and Denver and Vancouver and Portland among them Erickson looks closely at the motivations and objectives for connecting open spaces across metropolitan areas She documents how open space networks have been successfully created and protected while also highlighting the critical human and ecological benefits of connectivity MetroGreen's unique focus on several cities rather than a single urban area offers a perspective on the political economic cultural and environmental conditions that affect open space planning and the outcomes of its implementation

Justice Through Diversity? Michael J. Sweeney, 2016-08-30 Arguably the most transformative force in contemporary society is the commitment to justice through diversity A prime example is the change justice through diversity has wrought on who enters teaches and administers the university It has changed the content of what is taught and the mission statements that define the purpose of higher education What is rarely defined however is justice and how it is related to diversity If justice is equality are all differences equal Are all differences in race gender sexual orientation national origin ethnicity religion and culture equal Should such differences be weighted differently and thus hierarchically On what basis are those differences to be weighted and ranked to ensure equality Justice Through Diversity brings together a Who's Who of contemporary scholars to explore these questions and others in an attempt to understand one of the central commitments in the modern world

Overcoming America / America Overcoming Stephen C. Rowe, 2013-03-13 In Overcoming America America Overcoming Stephen Rowe shows how the moral disease and political paralysis that plague America are symptomatic of the fact that America herself has been overtaken by the modern values which she exported to the rest of the world He points to a way out of this current and potentially fatal malaise join other societies which are also struggling to move beyond the modern and consciously reappropriate those elements of tradition which have to do with cultivation of the mature human being To avoid fundamentalism Rowe discusses how this reappropriation must be undertaken in dialogue with those who also have come to recognize the unsustainable quality of the modern life and who have been able to live beyond the nihilistic wish to tear it down This book supports the call for an emerging global ethic and spirituality providing resources of articulation and interpretation that allow for an ongoing dialogue between traditional and modern values both worthy and problematic in their own ways through which reliable policy and healthy living become possible Routledge Handbook of Global

Populism Carlos de la Torre, 2018-10-10 This volume illustrates the diversity of populism globally When seeking power populists politicize issues and point to problems that need to be addressed such as inequalities the loss of national sovereignty to globalization or the rule of unresponsive political elites Yet their solutions tend to be problematic simplistic and in most instances instead of leading to better forms of democracy their outcomes are authoritarian Populists use a playbook of concentrating power in the hands of the president using the legal system instrumentally to punish critics and attacking the media and civil society Despite promising to empower the people populists lead to processes of democratic erosion and even transform malfunctioning democracies into hybrid regimes The Routledge Handbook of Global Populism provides instructors students and researchers with a thorough and systematic overview of the history and development of populism and analyzes the main debates It is divided into sections on the theories of populism on political and social theory and populism on how populists politicize inequalities and differences on the media and populism on its ambiguous relationships with democratization and authoritarianism and on the distinct regional manifestations of populism Leading international academics from history political science media studies and sociology map innovative ideas and areas of theoretical and empirical research to understand the phenomenon of global populism The Underground Church Robin Meyers, 2012-02-13 A new way to follow Jesus that draws on old ways of following Him The Underground Church proposes that the faithful recapture the spirit of the early church with its emphasis on what Christians do rather than what they believe Prominent progressive writer speaker and minister Robin Meyers proposes that the best way to recapture the spirit of the early Christian church is to recognize that Jesus following was and must be again subversive in the best sense of the word because the gospel taken seriously turns the world upside down No matter how the church may organize itself or worship the defining characteristic of church of the future will be its Jesus inspired countercultural witness Debunks commonly held beliefs about the early church and offers a vision for the future rooted in the past Proposes that the church of the future must leave doctrinal tribalism behind and seek a unity of mission instead Archbishop Emeritus Desmond Tutu said Robin Meyers has spoken truth to power and the church he loves will never be the same Stop the Next War Now Medea Benjamin, Jodie Evans, 2010-11-12 Violence begets violence so believes the majority of people around the world who have stood up in protest against war Stop the Next War Now is a reflective look and call to action to end violence by acclaimed peace activists experts and visionaries including Eve Ensler Barbara Lee Arianna Huffington Janeane Garafalo Nancy Pelosi Maxine Hong Kingston and many more The book shares expert insight on the issues and powers that be that encourage war including the media politicians global militarization and the pending scarcity of natural resources A powerful smart and passionate work this book aims to educate and reflect on the effectiveness of peace movement activities and offer hope through shared ideas action steps and checklists to transform a culture of violence to a culture of peace How can people humanize each other ask the authors and act as responsible global citizens With vitality joy and a dash of CODEPINK style humor Stop the Next War Now insists that the time is ripe for the first ever global movement to put an end to war and tells readers what they can do about it Global Extremes Barbara A. Barnes, 2006 Moonrise Nina Simons, 2010-08-13 Explores the flourishing passionate forms of leadership emerging from women on behalf of the earth and community Contains more than 30 essays from successful women leaders including writers Alice Walker and Eve Ensler psychiatrist Jean Shinoda Bolen holistic doctor Rachel Naomi Remen hip hop performer Rha Goddess and famous tree sitter Julia Butterfly Hill From Bioneers president and cofounder Nina Simons Many today find themselves being called toward greater leadership on behalf of the Earth toward leadership sourced from their inner authority and inspired by what they love and are dedicated to protect transform and strengthen Those successfully heeding this call have embraced the qualities previously relegated to the feminine inner awareness collaboration relational intelligence respect for the sacred and generosity and married them to the best of their masculine attributes to create a new form of leadership more inspiring inviting and effective for transforming how we live on Earth and with each other This anthology presents more than 30 essays from eminent women trailblazers such as author Alice Walker psychiatrist Jean Shinoda Bolen playwright Eve Ensler holistic doctor Rachel Naomi Remen biologist Janine Benyus hip hop performer Rha Goddess and famous tree sitter Julia Butterfly Hill as well as lesser known but equally influential leaders such as social entrepreneur Judy Wicks philanthropic activist Kathy LeMay food justice advocate LaDonna Redmond and media educator Sofia Quintero Their narratives explore how they cultivated their leadership impulses and their feminine strengths reinventing leadership to prioritize community collaboration the environment and the common good Illuminating a path to progressive environmental and social change their passionate stories of joyful creative collaborative and sacred leadership ignite within each reader the power to help cocreate a healthy peaceful just and sustainable world Everyday Writing Center Anne Ellen Geller, Michele Eodice, Frankie Condon, Meg Carroll, Elizabeth H. Boquet, 2007-04-01 The Everyday Writing Center challenges some of the most comfortable traditions in its field and it does so with a commitment and persuasiveness that one seldom sees in scholarly discussion The book at its core is an argument for a new writing center consciousness one that makes the most of the writing center's unique and uniquely fluid identity Writing center specialists live with a liminality that has been acknowledged but not fully explored in the literature Their disciplinary identity is with the English department but their mission is cross disciplinary their research is pedagogical but they often report to central administration Their education is in humanities but their administrative role demands constant number crunching This fluid identity explains why Trickster an icon of spontaneity shape shifting and the creative potential of chaos has come to be a favorite cultural figure for the authors of this book Adapting Lewis Hyde and others these authors use Trickster to develop a theme of ordinary disruptions the everyday as a source of provocative learning moments that can liberate both student writers and writing center staff At the same time the authors parlay Etienne Wenger's concept of community of practice into an ethos for a dynamic learner centered pedagogy that is especially well suited to the peculiar teaching situation of the writing center Through Trickster they question not only accepted approaches to writing center pedagogy but conventional approaches to race time leadership and collaboration as well They encourage their field to exploit the creative potential in ordinary events that are normally seen as disruptive or defeating and they challenge traditions in the field that tend to isolate a writing center director from the department and campus Yet all is not random for the authors anchor this high risk high yield approach in their commitment to a version of Wenger's community of practice Conceiving of themselves their colleagues student writers and student tutors as co learners engaged together in a dynamic life of learning the authors find a way to ground the excess and randomness of the everyday while advancing an ethic of mutual respect and self challenge Committed to testing a region beyond the edge of convention the authors of The Everyday Writing Center constantly push themselves and their field toward deeper more significant research and more reflective dynamic teaching
