The China Clipper, Pan American Airways and Popular Culture Larry Weirather, 2006-11-13 The Pan American clipper ships of the 1930s and 1940s were technological marvels of their time The years before World War II found the United States faced with international challenges of an economic as well as a military nature Aided by government regulations and contracts the Pan Am clippers were for a time the only international craft to carry the U S flag Commercially they rivaled the comfort and popularity of passenger trains and luxurious cruise ships Militarily they were unmatched by anything the Germans Russians Italians or French could produce The only long range aircraft capable of carrying transoceanic payloads clippers became instantly valuable with the onset of the war Marketed as the ultimate in commercial
