Squire, 2016-01-12 This critique of the securitization and criminalization of asylum seeking challenges the claim that asylum seekers threaten receiving states It analyzes recent policy developments in relation to their wider historical political and European contexts and argues that the UK response effectively renders asylum seekers as scapegoats Asylum for Sale Siobhán McGuirk, Adrienne Pine, 2020-11-01 This explosive new volume brings together a lively cast of academics activists journalists artists and people directly impacted by asylum regimes to explain how current practices of asylum align with the neoliberal moment and to present their transformative visions for alternative systems and processes Through essays artworks photographs infographics and illustrations Asylum for Sale Profit and Protest in the Migration Industry regards the global asylum regime as an industry characterized by profit making activity brokers who facilitate border crossings for a fee contractors and firms that erect walls fences and watchtowers while lobbying governments for bigger security budgets corporations running private detention centers and managing deportations private lawyers charging exorbitant fees expert witnesses and NGO staff establishing careers while placing asylum seekers into new regimes of monitored vulnerability Asylum for Sale challenges readers to move beyond questions of legal moral and humanitarian obligations that dominate popular debates regarding asylum seekers Digging deeper the authors focus on processes and actors often overlooked in mainstream analyses and on the trends increasingly rendering asylum available only to people with financial and cultural capital Probing every aspect of the asylum process from crossings to aftermaths the book provides an in depth exploration of complex international networks policies and norms that impact people seeking asylum around the world In highlighting protest as well as profit Asylum for Sale presents both critical analyses and proposed solutions for resisting and reshaping current and emerging immigration norms

Migration and Cities Anna Triandafyllidou, Amin Moghadam, Melissa Kelly, Zeynep Şahin-Mencütek, 2024-05-02 This open access book brings together different perspectives on migration and the city that are usually discussed separately to show the special character of the urban context as a territorial and political space where people coexist whether by choice or necessity Drawing on heterogeneous situations in cities in different world regions including Europe North America the Middle East South Southeast and East Asia and the Asia Pacific contributions to this volume examine how migration and the urban context interact in the twenty first century The book is structured in four parts The first looks at cities as hubs of cultural creativity exploring the many dimensions of cultural diversity and identity as they are negotiated in the urban context The second focuses on what lies outside the large urban centres of today notably suburbs while the third part engages with migration and diversity in small and mid sized cities many of which have adopted strategies to welcome growing numbers of migrants Last but not least the fourth part looks at the challenges and opportunities that asylum seeking and irregular migration flows bring to cities By providing a variety of empirical cases based on various world regions this book is a valuable resource for researchers students and policy makers The Oxford Handbook of Refugee and Forced Migration Studies Elena Fiddian-Qasmiyeh, Gil Loescher, Katy Long, Nando Sigona, 2014-06-12 Refugee and Forced Migration Studies has grown from being a concern of a relatively small number of scholars and policy researchers in the 1980s to a global field of interest with thousands of students worldwide studying displacement either from traditional disciplinary perspectives or as a core component of newer programmes across the Humanities and Social and Political Sciences Today the field encompasses both rigorous academic research which may or may not ultimately inform policy and practice as well as action research focused on advocating in favour of refugees needs and rights This authoritative Handbook critically evaluates the birth and development of Refugee and Forced Migration Studies and analyses the key contemporary and future challenges faced by academics and practitioners working with and for forcibly displaced populations around the world The 52 state of the art chapters written by leading academics practitioners and policymakers working in universities research centres think tanks NGOs and international organizations provide a comprehensive and cutting edge overview of the key intellectual political social and institutional challenges arising from mass displacement in the world today The chapters vividly illustrate the vibrant and engaging debates that characterize this rapidly expanding field of research and practice

Anthropology and Expertise in the Asylum Courts Anthony Good, 2007-03-12 Offering an analysis of asylum processes in UK courts this study of asylum as an aspect of globalization focuses on the role of anthropologists as expert witnesses and compares the use of social scientific and medical evidence in decision making Linking Integration and Residential Segregation Gideon Bolt, A. Sule Özüekren, Deborah Phillips, 2013-09-13 Policy makers tend to view the residential segregation of minority ethnic groups in a negative light as it is seen as an obstacle to their integration In the literature on neighbourhood effects the residential concentration of minorities is seen as a major impediment to their social mobility and acculturation while the literature on residential segregation emphasises the opposite causal direction by focusing on the effect of integration on levels of de segregation This volume however indicates that the link between integration and segregation is much less straightforward than is often depicted in academic literature and policy discourses Based on research in a wide variety of western countries it can be concluded that the process of assimilation into the housing market is highly complex and differs between and within ethnic groups The integration pathway not only depends on the characteristics of migrants themselves but also on the reactions of the institutions and the population of the receiving society Linking Integration and Residential Segregation exposes the link between integration and segregation as a two way relationship involving the minority ethnic groups and the host society highlighting the importance of historical and geographical context for social and spatial outcomes This book was originally published as a special issue of the Journal of Ethnic and Migration Studies

Refugees, Security and the European Union Sarah Léonard, Christian Kaunert, 2019-06-07 This book analyses the extent and the modalities of the securitization of asylum seekers and refugees in the EU It argues that the development of the EU asylum policy far from securitizing asylum seekers and refugees has led to the strengthening and codification of several rights for these two categories of persons However the securitization of terrorism and the links that have been constructed between asylum irregular migration and terrorism in the wake of the various terrorist attacks that have taken place in Europe in the last few years have had a significant impact on the ability of asylum seekers to gain access to asylum systems in the EU From a theoretical point of view the book develops an original analytical framework that draws upon and further develops security studies more precisely securitization theory by connecting it to the literature on policy venues and venue shopping It therefore makes a significant contribution to the debates on both securitization and migration Empirically examining the entire development of the EU's policy towards asylum seekers and refugees from its origins in 1993 this book will be of great interest to students of European and EU politics refugees migration security terrorism and counter terrorism security studies and International Relations
