Springs And Autumns:

Spring and Autumn Annals Confucius,2021-09-10 The Spring and Autumn Annals or Chunqiu is an ancient Chinese chronicle that has been one of the core Chinese classics since ancient times The Annals is the official chronicle of the State of Lu and covers a 241 year period from 722 to 481 BC It is the earliest surviving Chinese historical text to be arranged in annals form Luxuriant Gems of the Spring and Autumn Zhongshu Dong,2015-12-15 The Spring and Autumn Chunqiu is a chronicle kept by the dukes of the state of Lu from 722 to 481 B C E Luxuriant Gems of the Spring and Autumn Chunqiu fanlu follows the interpretations of the Gongyang Commentary whose transmitters sought to explicate the special language of the Spring and Autumn The work is often ascribed to the Han scholar and court official Dong Zhongshu but as this study reveals the text is in fact a compendium of writings by a variety of authors spanning several generations It depicts a utopian vision of a flourishing humanity that they believed to be Confucius s legacy to the world The Gongyang masters thought that Confucius had written the Spring and Autumn employing subtle phrasing to indicate approval or disapproval of important events and personages Luxuriant Gems therefore augments Confucian ethical and philosophical teachings with chapters on cosmology statecraft and other topics drawn from contemporary non Confucian traditions A major resource this book features the first complete English language translation of Luxuriant Gems divided into eight thematic sections with introductions that address dating authorship authenticity and the relationship between the Spring and Autumn and the Gongyang approach Critically illuminating early Chinese philosophy religion literature and politics this book conveys the brilliance of intellectual life in the Han dynasty during the formative decades of the Chinese imperial state How Literatures Begin Joel B. Lande,Denis Feeney,2021-07-20 A comparative history of the practices technologies institutions and people that created distinct literary traditions around the world from ancient to modern times Literature is such a familiar and widespread form of imaginative expression today that its existence can seem inevitable But in fact very few languages ever developed the full fledged literary cultures we take for granted Challenging basic assumptions about literatures by uncovering both the distinct and common factors that led to their improbable invention How Literatures Begin is a global comparative history of literary origins that spans the ancient and modern world and stretches from Asia and Europe to Africa and the Americas The book brings together a group of leading literary historians to examine the practices technologies institutions and individuals that created seventeen literary traditions Chinese Japanese Korean Indian Greek Latin Hebrew Syriac Arabic English Romance languages German Russian Latin American African African American and world literature In these accessible accounts which are framed by general and section introductions and a conclusion by the editors literatures emerge as complex weaves of phenomena unique and deeply rooted in particular times and places but also displaying surprising similarities Again and again new literatures arise out of old come into being through interactions across national and linguistic borders take inspiration from translation and cultural cross fertilization and provide new ways for groups to imagine themselves in relation to their moment in history Renewing our sense of wonder for the unlikely and strange thing we call literature How Literatures Begin offers fresh opportunities for comparison between the individual traditions that make up the rich mosaic of the world's literatures The book is organized in four sections with seventeen literatures covered by individual contributors Part I East and South Asia Chinese Martin Kern Japanese Wiebke Denecke Korean Ksenia Chizhova and Indian Sheldon Pollock Part II The Mediterranean Greek Deborah Steiner Latin Joseph Farrell Hebrew Jacqueline Vayntrub Syriac Alberto Rigolio and Arabic Gregor Schoeler Part III European Vernaculars English Ingrid Nelson Romance languages Simon Gaunt German Joel Lande and Russian Michael Wachtel Part IV Modern Geographies Latin American Rolena Adorno African Simon Gikandi African American Douglas Jones and world literature Jane O Newman

Spring and Autumn Historiography Newell Ann Van Auken, 2023-03-14 The Spring and Autumn is an annals text composed of brief records covering the period 722-479 BCE and written from the perspective of the ancient Chinese state of Lu A long neglected part of the Chinese canon it is traditionally ascribed to Confucius who is said to have embedded his evaluations of events within the text However the formulaic and impersonal records do not resemble the repository of moral judgments that they are alleged to be Driven by her discovery that the Spring and Autumn is governed by a system of rules Newell Ann Van Auken argues that Lu record keepers not a later editor produced the formally regular core of the text She demonstrates that the Spring and Autumn employs formulaic phrasing and selective omission to encode the priorities of Lu and to communicate the relative importance of individuals states and events and that many of its records are derived from diplomatic announcements received in Lu from regional states and the Zhou court The Spring and Autumn is fundamentally a document designed to enhance the prestige of Lu and its records reveal a profound concern with relative rank displaying an idealized hierarchy that positions the state of Lu and its rulers at the apex By establishing the Spring and Autumn as a genuine Bronze Age record this book transforms our understanding of its significance and purpose and also offers new approaches to the study of ancient annals in early China and elsewhere

The Commentarial Transformation of the Spring and Autumn Newell Ann Van Auken, 2016-10-24 The Spring and Autumn is among the earliest surviving Chinese historical records covering the period 722-479 BCE It is a curious text the canonical interpretation claims that it was composed by Confucius and embodies his moral judgments but this view appears to be contradicted by the brief and dispassionate records themselves Newell Ann Van Auken addresses this puzzling discrepancy through an examination of early interpretations of the Spring and Autumn and uncovers a crucial missing link in two sets of commentarial remarks embedded in the Zu Tradition These embedded commentaries do not seek moral judgments in the Spring and Autumn but instead interpret its records as produced by a historiographical tradition that was governed by rules related to hierarchy and ritual practice Van Auken's exploration of the Zu Tradition and other early commentaries sheds light on the transformation of the Spring and Autumn from a simple non narrative historical record into a Confucian classic

The Spring and Autumn Annals of Master Yan

Olivia Milburn, 2015-12-22 The Spring and Autumn Annals of Master Yan is the biography of the most important statesmen and political thinkers of the Eastern Zhou dynasty China Yan Ying d 500 BCE Living through an exceptionally troubled period he served three rulers and two dictators of the state of Qi in Shandong Province His experiences informed his revolutionary theories concerning the relationship between the individual and the state Long considered to be a forgery recent archaeological discoveries have proved the Spring and Autumn Annals of Master Yan to be a genuinely ancient text This book provides not only the first complete translation of the text into any Western language but a detailed analysis of the context in which it was produced
