Teaching And Learning English As A Foreign Language:

Teaching English as a Foreign Language Carola Surkamp, Britta Viebrock, 2018-03-24 Diese Einführung in englischer Sprache präsentiert in 14 Kapiteln die grundlegenden Themen und Gegenstandsbereiche der Englischdidaktik. Gleichermassen praxisnah wie theoretisch fundiert behandelt der Band zentrale Prinzipien und Kompetenzbereiche eines modernen Fremdsprachenunterrichts. Ausgehend von den zentralen Akteuren Lehrende und Lernende und mit Blick auf die Teilbereiche der Sprachliteratur und Kulturdidaktik werden zudem Vorschläge für den Einsatz unterschiedlicher Materialien und Medien diskutiert. Weitere Kapitel widmen sich den institutionellen Organisationsstrukturen und dem Bereich Assessment/Diagnose. Der Band erscheint in zweifarbiger Gestaltung mit Definitionen und Beispielen sowie mit zahlreichen Abbildungen. This comprehensive introduction presents the fundamental topics and issues of TEFL Teaching English as a Foreign Language in 14 chapters. Integrating both profound theoretical and creative practical considerations, the central principles and competence domains of modern foreign language teaching are discussed. Starting with the main classroom agents teachers and learners, the chapters outline a variety of content areas: language literature, cultural issues, and thoroughly review materials, media, and methods. Additional chapters are concerned with the historical development of English language teaching, its current institutional organisation, as well as assessment and evaluation.

English as a foreign language teacher education Juan de Dios Martínez Agudo, 2014-02-01 The field of Second Language Teacher Education (SLTE) is mainly concerned with the professional preparation of L2 teachers. In order to improve teaching in the multilingual and multicultural classroom of the 21st century, both pre- and in-service L2 teachers as well as L2 teacher educators must be prepared to meet the new challenges of education under the current circumstances, expanding their roles and responsibilities so as to face the new complex realities of language instruction. This volume explores a number of key dimensions of EFL teacher education. The sixteen chapters discuss a wide variety of issues related to second language pedagogy and SLTE. Topics discussed include the importance of SLA research, competency-based teacher education, approach, classroom-based action research, SLTE models, the value and role of practicum, experience abroad, the models of pronunciation teaching, multicultural awareness and competence, the influence of teachers' cognitions, emotions, and attitudes on their emerging and changing professional identities, the potential of classroom materials and technology, and CLIL and ESP teacher education. English as a foreign language teacher education: Current perspectives and challenges will be of interest to teachers in training, teachers, teacher educators, and to those educational researchers interested in how L2 teaching is actually learned in professional preparation programmes.

Juan de Dios Martínez Agudo is Associate Professor of EFL Teacher Education at the University of Extremadura, Spain. His current research interests include Second Language Acquisition and English Teaching Methodology. His most recent books are Oral Communication in the EFL Classroom (2008), Errors in the Second Language Classroom: Corrective Feedback (2010), and Teaching and Learning English through Bilingual

Perspectives on Teaching and Learning English Literacy in China Jiening Ruan, Cynthia Leung, 2012-11-29

This is one of two volumes by the same editors that explore historical philosophical and cultural perspectives on literacy in China. This volume focuses on English literacy in China while the other volume is on Chinese literacy. In modern day China English has enjoyed an increasingly important status in education but not without challenges. The essays in this volume provide a comprehensive cross disciplinary look at changes in English literacy practices and literacy instruction in China from the first English school in the 19th century to recent curriculum reform efforts to modernize English instruction from basic education through higher education. Together the essays address a wide array of topics including early childhood English education uses of information technology to teach English and teaching English to Chinese minority students This work is essential reading for those who want to expand their understanding of English literacy education in China Teaching English as a Foreign Language Dr Geoffrey Broughton, Geoffrey Broughton, Christopher Brumfit, Anita Pincas, Roger D. Learning English and Chinese as Foreign Languages Wen-Chuan Lin, 2019-09-19 Learning English and Chinese is becoming increasingly important to the prospects of young people This book compares English as a Foreign Language teaching in Taiwan with Chinese as a Foreign Language education in England in order to highlight how classroom activities are embedded within multiple settings including ethnic or other social group cultures family and community resources and school visions or goals The book illustrates how in Taiwan different ethnic groups recognise access and value English language learning to varying extents Its findings illuminate why some ethnic groups are highly motivated to learn English and are able to gain privileged economic positions in the job market In England access to Chinese is marked by social class and the book argues that this could augment an educational apartheid that already exists in language teaching in secondary schools thereby exacerbating existing inequality

Debating in Teaching and Learning English Ben Wilson, 2024-04-18 This book offers the first full length treatment of the topic of debating as a method of developing English Foreign Language EFL speaking inviting scholars and practitioners to reflect on the demands of the current age for moving forward educational practice While debating is a well known method of dialogic speaking and is widely practiced the extent to which it is integrated in adult TEFL has not been established and an understanding of its affordances for developing foreign language speaking is also limited This book fills the gap in the field of TESOL and applied linguistics on the affordances of debating as a form of dialogic speaking that can promote a holistic understanding and improvement of experience of education and indeed academic outcomes The two main themes that situate the work are those of dialogic speaking and affect at times referred to as humanistic positive psychology and social and emotional learning The book details the experiences of an adult EFL debate group in a private language school in the North of Italy It reports how the participants experience the pedagogy so as to offer insights into it as a form of teaching speaking in adult EFL as well as providing a practical framework with lesson plans and curriculum The affordances of debating emerge as being social cognitive educational and communicative and are discussed alongside the work of language teaching scholars Curran and Freire and more broadly within a Social Constructivist approach to education As such debating is discussed as being a holistic and dialogic form of pedagogy Particular attention to experience often affective is also found to be fundamental in planning and assessing educational outcomes for both teachers and learners

Extramural English in Teaching and Learning Pia Sundqvist, Liss Kerstin Sylvén, 2016-11-09 This book is unique in bringing together theory research and practice about English encountered outside the classroom extramural English and how it affects teaching and learning The book investigates ways in which learners successfully develop their language skills through extramural English and provides tools for teachers to make use of free time activities in primary and secondary education The authors demonstrate that learning from involvement in extramural English activities tends to be incidental and is currently underutilized in classroom work A distinctive strength is that this volume is grounded in theory builds on results from empirical studies and manages to link theory and research with practice in a reader friendly way Teacher educators teachers and researchers of English as a foreign language and teachers of English as a second language across the globe will find this book useful in developing their use of extramural English activities as tools for language learning
