The Teaching of History Ernest Hartwell, 2012-10-23 This historic volume was originally offered one full century ago as a guide to history teachers of the high school and the upper grammar grades It is directly concerned with the teaching methods to be employed in the history period The author assumes the limiting conditions that surround classroom instruction of the present day he also takes for granted the teacher's sympathy with modern aims in history instruction All discussions of purpose and content are therefore subordinated to a clear presentation of the details of effective teaching technique The reader into whose hands this volume falls will be deeply interested in the ideals of teaching implied in the concrete suggestions given in the following pages for after all the value of any system of special methods rests not merely on its apparent and immediate psychological effectiveness but also on the social purposes which it is devised to serve It must be recognized at the outset that history has a social purpose However much university teaching may be interested in truth for its own sake an interest necessarily basic to the service of all other ends the teaching of the lower public schools must take into account the relevancy of historical fact to current and future problems which concern men and women engaged in the common social life

Catechisms, Teaching Religion Lee Palmer Wandel, 2015-10-14 Reading Catechisms Teaching Religion makes two broad arguments First the sixteenth century witnessed a fundamental transformation in Christians Catholic and Evangelical conceptualization of the nature of knowledge of Christianity and the media through which that knowledge was articulated and communicated Christians had shared a sense that knowledge might come through visions images liturgy catechisms taught that knowledge of Christianity began with texts printed on a page Second codicil catechisms sought not simply to dissolve the material distinction between codex and person but to teach catechumens to see specific words together as texts The pages of catechisms were visual they confound precisely that constructed modern bipolarity word image or conversely that modern bipolarity obscures what sixteenth century catechisms sought to do Reading and Writing Skills:
