The Palgrave Handbook of State-Sponsored History After 1945 Berber Bevernage, Nico Wouters, 2018-02-03 This handbook provides the first systematic integrated analysis of the role that states or state actors play in the construction of history and public memory after 1945 The book focuses on many different forms of state sponsored history including memory laws monuments and memorials state archives science policies history in schools truth commissions historical expert commissions the use of history in courts and tribunals etc The handbook contributes to the study of history and public memory by combining elements of state focused research in separate fields of study By looking at the state's memorialising capacities the book introduces an analytical perspective that is not often found in classical studies of the state The handbook has a broad geographical focus and analyses cases from different regions around the world The volume mainly tackles democratic contexts although dictatorial regimes are not excluded

The New European Frontiers Milan Bufon, Julian Minghi, Anssi Paasi, 2014-04-11 This book offers a substantial and up dated discussion and presentation of the new European frontiers related to complex and controversial social and spatial re integration issues in multicultural and border regions It represents an inter disciplinary endeavour from human geographers social and political scientists and linguists to understand and interpret the current developments of the European unity in diversity paradigm based on simultaneous and continuous processes of social and spatial convergence and divergence changing territorialities and identities particularly in the wider EU s inner and outer border regions These studies convincingly display the prominence of context in understanding the regional and local geo histories and in making sense of the meanings of borders for social communities and wider societies They also show how re integration potentials of border and multicultural regions are strongly dependent on the creation of a viable multi level social and spatial planning and cooperation system within which both conflict to harmony processes and common cause behaviours and practices may become effective and thus give a new role to local communities in the numerous borderlands across Europe The book offers both a synthesis of current theoretical methodological approaches and an analysis of selected case studies provided by internationally acknowledged scholars It represents a valuable instrument for researchers and students of social and spatial integration human and political geographers social anthropologists and social and political scientists as well as language planners
