Best Ideas for Teaching with Technology Justin Reich, Tom Daccord, 2015-02-18. This practical how-to guide makes it easy for teachers to incorporate the latest technology in their classes. Employing an informal workshop approach, the book avoids technical jargon and pays special attention to the needs of teachers who are expanding the use of computers in their classrooms. The authors focus on what teachers do and how they can do it better and provide a wide variety of proven tools, tips, and methods for enhancing these activities with technology. Best Ideas for Teaching with Technology provides extensively illustrated tutorials for a wide variety of software, online tools, and teaching techniques. It covers everything from lesson plans to time management, how to show animation, blogging, podcasts, laptop strategies, and much, much more. In addition, periodic updates to the text will be available on the authors' website.

Generating Tact and Flow for Effective Teaching and Learning Susanna M. Steeg Thornhill, Ken Badley, 2020-11-26. This book draws from and analyzes teachers and students' stories of great classes in order to promote teachers' development of pedagogical tact and to encourage flow states for students. Taken together, these theoretical lenses, pedagogical tact and flow, provide a valuable framework for understanding and motivating classroom engagement. As the authors suggest, tactful teachers are more likely to see their students in flow than teachers who struggle with basic classroom routines and practices. Grounded in narrative research and written for pre-service teachers, the book offers strategies for replicating these first-hand accounts of peak classroom teaching and learning.

Teaching, Learning And Assessment Blanchard, John, 2009-03-01. The focus of this book is on teaching pupils to direct their own learning. It deals with formative assessment that is assessment designed to inform and enhance pupils' learning. It questions how pupils learn, why they have the curriculum they have, and how they are helped or hindered by their provision. This is a profound and extensive challenge consistent with an agenda of inclusive education. It indicates that pupils' learning about learning provides a model for professionals and schools' development.
