Teaching Ministry Of The Pulpit:

The Teaching Ministry of the Pulpit Craig Skinner, 1973 A Practical Guide to Pulpit Ministry William F. Coley, Jr., 2003-07 Transformational Preaching David M. Brown, 2003-02 Transformational Preaching Theory and practice is a comprehensive textbook for the beginning student of preaching the graduate student in pulpit discourse or the seasoned preacher Seeking to reclaim the pulpit for biblical preaching the book counteracts the popular teaching approach that is common today and argues that preaching must be persuasive rather than informative that the preacher is central to the act of preaching and that through the preaching event both preacher and listener together fashion the message and its meaning Both theoretical and highly practical the book offers a challenging look at all aspects of the preaching ministry It contextualizes preaching in pastoral ministry and congregational worship but most significantly argues that the practice of preaching must be informed and driven by theory As such the book draws from a wide perspective of disciplines including biblical theology classical rhetoric contemporary human communication public discourse persuasion linguistics performance and orality The book s wealth of practical guidelines for every step of sermon development encourages students to apply general principles within their own contexts of ministry From the Study to the Pulpit Allan Moseley, 2018-08-28 Many pastors struggle with preaching the Old Testament As a professor and pastor Allan Moseley s vast experience and knowledge go a long way in helping expositors enrich their pulpit ministry The purpose of his book is to offer both exegetical and preaching help by means of a workable 8 step method The author s preaching model starts with the initial step of determining the genre and meaning of the text to doing word studies and discovering the main ideas of the text to applying the sermon in a life changing and Christ honoring manner Some books on preaching from the Old Testament are written by authors who do not actually preach or preach only occasionally Pastors and budding preachers need a book written by someone who has knows what it is like to be a pastor and has prepared sermons every week for years His book reflects his classroom teaching on the subjects of exposition and hermeneutics and it provides helpful illustrations of expositional principles that rise from his own preaching ministry 12 Essential Skills for Great Preaching Wayne McDill, 2006 In this newly expanded second edition of 12 Essential Skills for Great Preaching Dr Wayne McDill draws on decades of experience as a preacher and homiletics professor to inspire other preachers to live up to their God given potential Here are twelve proven ways to pack more content and effectiveness into every sermon covering all of the bases from general preparation to the end result of increasing each listener s faith Recent seminary graduates and seasoned pastors alike will identify skills that need personal improvement and McDill encourages them to strengthen such areas at their own pace and in whatever order they feel is best Every chapter in this new edition has been revised and updated Also included are additional worksheet helps and sermon examples Metropolitan Pulpit and Homiletic Monthly ,1909 The Teaching Pastor William Coleman Bitting, 1923 The Congregationalist ,1928 Equipped for Good Work Cothen, Th.D., Joe H., 2002 Equipped
