Teaching Of Contempt:

The Teaching of Contempt Jules Isaac, 1964      The Teaching of Contempt James Isaac, 1966      The Teaching of Contempt Jules Isaac, 1962      The Teaching of Contempt; Christian Roots of Anti-Semitism. Translated by Helen Weaver. Biographical Introd. by Claire Huchet Bishop Jules Isaac,      The Teaching of Contempt, 1978      Spiritual Companions Padraic O'Hare, 2006 This book is written on the premise that knowledge of and appreciation for the religious beliefs and practices of other faiths can enrich our own lives The author is a professor of religion and theology at Merrimack College MA and the director of the Center for the Study of Jewish Christian Relations at the college      The Teachings of Jesus Henry George Spaulding, 1889      The Death of Tradition Steven Jones, 2019-10-08 An analysis of the events surrounding the discovery of the Dead Sea Scrolls and their influence on Church theology particularly the influence on Vatican II The book asks whether there was a covert agenda by examining actual historical accounts and quotes by those involved      The Enduring Covenant Padraic O'Hare, 1997-01-01 The idea for this book arose out of the author's fifteen years of sustained engagement in Jewish Christian relations His purpose here is to speak about the practice of religious education in the church in which anti Judaism is eliminated O Hare focuses on the holiness of the religious community which he notes can develop along triumphal absolute and exclusive lines He suggests instead that every time we unearth a defensive and xenophobic practice or pattern of speech in our religion and set it aside we are doing something that adds to the health of our religious community to its capacity to assist people to become holy Chapter 1 surveys what philosopher Jules Isaac calls the history of the teaching of contempt chapter 2 deals with genuine religious pluralism and dialogue chapter 3 is a short Christology devoid of triumphalism and exclusivism chapter 4 focuses on religious education and its purpose to form holy people chapter 5 is an appreciation of the genius of Judaism its world view and life chapter 6 focuses on practice including elements of a paradigm shift in religious education principles for such practice and select examples of programs of religious education for interreligious reverence especially between Jews and Christians Padraic O Hare teaches in the Religious Studies Department of Merrimack College North Andover MA and is the author of The Way of Faithfulness Contemplation and Formation in the Church also published by Trinity Press      Divine Economy D. Stephen Long, 2002-09-11 What has theology to do with economics This first book to address the question directly will be welcomed by all those with an interest in exploring how theology can inform economic debate      That We May Be Mutually Encouraged Kathy Ehrensperger, 2004-04-15 There has been a revolutionary shift of thinking in Pauline Studies fundamentally changing the image of Paul Postmodern literary criticism of Paul's epistles and sociorhetorical criticism of his letters has created a New Perspective approach to Pauline studies At the same time feminist criticism of the Pauline corpus has been growing Unfortunately there has been hardly any interaction and exchange of research results between these different strands of scholarship The result of this is that in Pauline studies scholars are hardly aware of feminist perspectives Similarly feminist interpretations of Paul not fully conversant with the most recent strands of Pauline research are often based on traditional images of Paul Ehrensperger's analysis of feminist commentaries on Paul thus contains a rather negative depiction of theological thinking However both strands of research feminist and those of the New Perspective provide fresh and illuminating insights that emphasize similar aspects from different perspectives Ehrensperger advocates a closer interaction between these two schools of Pauline studies She analyzes Romans 14-15 exploring the results of recent research in both Pauline schools Pauline studies from the New Perspective emphasize the Jewish context and texture of Paul's thinking She sets these in dialogue with feminist theology which focuses on issues of identity diversity and relationality Her study results in a perspective on Paul which views him as a significant dialogue partner in the search for a theology beyond anti-Semitism and misogyny beyond force and domination Kathy Ehrensperger studied theology at the Universities of Basel and Berne and was a pastor for sixteen years in Switzerland She is currently a Lecturer in New Testament Studies at the University of Wales Lampeter

Making Monsters David Livingstone Smith, 2021-10-28 It is tempting to believe that dehumanization is an excess of rhetoric that no one thinks his foe is truly monstrous David Livingstone Smith argues otherwise showing that when we dehumanize our enemies we consider them both human and not Dehumanization is a genuine psychological response to political manipulation with harrowing consequences

Prophecy, Piety, and the Problem of Historicity Jan Stievernann, 2016-03-11 Jan Stievernann's pioneering study of Cotton Mather's Biblia Americana examines this Puritan scholar's engagement with the Hebrew Bible as Old Testament The author focuses specifically on Mather's struggle to uphold or modify traditional typological and allegorical readings in the face of a growing awareness of the historicity of Scriptures Other key issues include Mather's interventions in the contemporary debates over the legitimacy of Christian interpretations of the prophets as well as over the authorship provenance genre and spiritual import of texts such as Ecclesiastes and Canticles Stievernann's book yields fascinating insights into an underappreciated phase of exegesis that was at once traditionalist and innovative apologetically oriented pious and open to new modes of historical textual criticism Moreover it shows how Mather's biblical exegesis fits into the broader development of Puritan theology and identity
