Personal Transferable Skills in Accounting Education RPD Kim Watty, Beverley Jackling, Richard M.S. Wilson, 2014-07-16 The development of generic skills often referred to as soft skills in accounting education has been a focus of discussion and debate for several decades During this time employers and professional bodies have urged accounting educators to consider and develop curricula which provide for the development and assessment of these skills In addition there has been criticism of the quality of accounting graduates and their ability to operate effectively in a global economy Embedding generic skills in the accounting curriculum has been acknowledged as an appropriate means of addressing the need to provide knowledge professionals to meet the needs of a global business environment Personal Transferable Skills in Accounting Education illustrates how generic skills are being embedded and evaluated in the accounting curriculum by academics from a range of perspectives Each chapter provides an account of how the challenge of incorporating generic skills in the accounting curriculum within particular educational environments has been addressed The challenges involved in generic skills development in higher education have not been limited to the accounting discipline This book provides examples which potentially inform a wide range of discipline areas Academics will benefit from reading the experiences of incorporating generic skills in the accounting curriculum from across the globe This book was originally published as a themed issue of Accounting Education an international journal Enhancing Teaching and Learning through Assessment Steve Frankland, 2007-10-16 Assessment is the daily life of a teacher designing plans setting questions giving feedback and grading are all activities that teachers undertake on a regular basis This book provides a practical guide on the effective use of assessment It includes the use of assessment tools and pedagogical design that help students deepen their learning Major issues on assessment and some excellent examples are presented as a useful resource to university teachers in enhancing teaching and students learning A Handbook for Teaching and Learning in Higher Education Heather Fry, Steve Ketteridge, Stephanie Marshall, 2008-12-19 First published in 2008 Routledge is an imprint of Taylor Francis an informa company Advanced Technology in Teaching - Proceedings of the 2009 3rd International Conference on Teaching and Computational Science (WTCS 2009) Yanwen Wu, 2012-02-01 The volume includes a set of selected papers extended and revised from the International Conference on Teaching and Computational Science WTCS 2009 held on December 19 20 2009 Shenzhen China WTCS 2009 best papers Volume 1 is to provide a forum for researchers educators engineers and government officials involved in the general areas of Intelligent Ubiquitous Computing and Education to disseminate their latest research results and exchange views on the future research directions of these fields 128 high quality papers are included in the volume Each paper has been peer reviewed by at least 2 program committee members and selected by the volume editor Prof Wu On behalf of the WTCS 2009 we would like to express our sincere appreciation to all of authors and referees for their efforts reviewing the papers Hoping you can find lots of profound research ideas and results on the related fields of Intelligent Ubiquitous Computing and Education

Digital Teaching, Learning and Assessment Upasana Gitanjali Singh, Chenicheri Sid Nair, Susana Goncalves, 2023-06-15 Digital Teaching Learning and Assessment The Way Forward is the result of the continuous discussion taking place in the teaching and learning space of what the future holds for academics and their stakeholders post pandemic students The editors of this book work in the teaching and learning domain and consider such discussion critical to ensure that students of the future are well serviced by all concerned The book brings such discussions to one platform where academics administrators and other stakeholders like researchers and regulatory bodies ponder ideas and practices and how the digital world will dominate and change the teaching learning space Provides the new post pandemic audience a futuristic look at the new digital world Covers how practitioners perceive this new era Enables administrators to have a glance at the possibilities of teaching and learning of the future Gives regulatory bodies a glimpse of the future as they try to find how QA would be for such teaching and learning that deviates significantly from didactic approaches

Teaching and Assessment in the Era of Education 5.0 Chems, Ghizlane, Elimadi, Imane, Sadiq, Mounir, Radid, Mohamed, 2024-07-17 In the rapidly evolving landscape of Education 5.0 educators and institutions grapple with unprecedented challenges in leveraging digital technologies to enhance teaching learning and assessment The profound shift towards a more humanized educational experience focusing on social and emotional growth alongside skill development demands a paradigmatic transformation However a palpable gap exists in understanding and navigating the complexities of this digital transition Educators students and administrators are left facing dilemmas related to pedagogical innovation technology integration and effective learning assessment in the digital age Enter Teaching and Assessment in the Era of Education 5.0 a definitive guide poised to bridge the gap between the challenges posed by Education 5.0 and actionable solutions The current educational milieu faces a conundrum as it attempts to adapt to the tenets of Education 5.0 The digital transition poses challenges from incorporating immersive technologies to understanding the attitudes of educators and students towards digitization Furthermore the design and implementation of training and distance learning systems require a nuanced approach calling for engineering expertise in training pedagogy and tutoring The assessment landscape crucial for gauging the effectiveness of learning in the digital era grapples with contemporary trends ethical considerations and the ever present specter of plagiarism This multifaceted challenge necessitates a comprehensive resource that not only delineates the issues but offers actionable solutions to navigate this transformative journey A Disciplinary Blueprint for the Assessment of Information Literacy Dorothy Anne Warner, 2008-06-30 Have you ever worried that literature on library instruction deals more with methods of assessing student attitude than student learning If so you ll be glad to know someone is doing something about it Eight unique disciplinary modules are presented each identifying a series of information literacy objectives developed in accordance with Bloom s Taxonomy of Cognitive Objectives A substantive curriculum map embedded within each module lists the sequence of courses required for the disciplinary major and the level at which the course is taught sophomore junior etc notes whether information literacy instruction is currently taught by the library for that particular course and delineates the specific information literacy learning objectives the students must master in order to fulfill the course assignments Collaborative responsibility for teaching the information literacy skills is also outlined with specific recommendations for ways the library can strengthen its support for the specific discipline In addition assessment methodologies are identified including scoring rubrics designed specifically for the disciplinary information literacy objectives An indispensable resource for academic librarians ready to take the leap from episodic reactive response to programmatic sequenced integration into the curriculum
