Teaching And Learning In Changing Times:

Changing Teachers, Changing Times Andy Hargreaves, 2001-01-01 The rules of the world are changing It is time for the rules of teaching and teachers work to change with them This is the challenge which Andy Hargreaves sets out in his new book on teachers work and culture in the postmodern world Drawing on his current research with teachers at all levels Hargreaves shows through their own vivid words what teaching is really like how it is already changing and why He argues that the structures and cultures of teaching need to change even more if teachers are not to be trapped by guilt pressed by time and overburdened by decisions imposed upon them Provocative yet practical this book is written for teachers and those who work with teachers and for researchers who want to understand teaching better in the postmodern age Changing Schools for Changing Times Kerry J. Kennedy, 2005 This book a statement of genuine concern on the state of the school curriculum in Hong Kong by a veteran educator forms a comprehensive account of current curriculum development implementation and interpretation Kennedy invites the reader to critically examine how local and global issues influence the way the Hong Kong curriculum has been constructed Against this theoretical background he maintains a clear practical focus on present policies of the educational authority and suggests a new curriculum in various fields This book sheds light on recent pressure for curriculum change and reform in Hong Kong offering fresh insights to those concerned with the state of education in both Hong Kong and cities around the world TEACHING IN CHANGING TIMES: THE COURAGE TO LEAD Linda Wallinger, Donald H. Reutershan, 2002-04-17 Secondary and college teachers of foreign language and education in the US are the contributors to this group of essays first presented at the 2002 Conference on the Teaching of Foreign Languages Strongly inspired by the events of 9 11 the essays discuss qualities of courage and leadership and apply them to the teaching of foreign languages English Language Teacher Education in Changing Times Liz England, Lía D. Kamhi-Stein, Georgios Kormpas, 2023-03-28 This volume addresses challenges that the field of English language teacher education has faced in the past several years The global pandemic has caused extreme stress and has also served as a catalyst for new ways of teaching learning and leading Educators have relied on their creativity and resiliency to identify new and innovative teaching practices and insights that inform the profession going forward Contributors describe how teacher educators have responded to the specific needs and difficulties of educating teachers and teaching second language learners in challenging circumstances around the world and how these innovations can transform education going forward into the future Paving the way for a revitalized profession this book is essential reading for the current and future generations of TESOL scholars graduate students and professors Changing Times In Teacher Education Marvin F. Wideen, Peter P. Grimmett, 2013-05-13 Pressures for reform in teacher education have begun to take on the same sense of urgency as school reform Those faculties of education who have been strong advocates for change in the schools now find themselves the subject of similar pressures from governmental policy makers Attempts at change have taken place in many different countries and jurisdictions around the world This book details through a series of international vignettes how teachers are responding to the changing times and social contexts in which they do their work The authors hold the view that changes are inevitable in teacher education but what is not clear is who will control the changes and whether the end result will actually improve the preparation of teachers The theme of the book is that the reform of teacher education should be informed by intelligent debate and that any attempt to restructure teacher preparation should result from a careful reconceptualisation of its purposes and processes
