Teaching And Learning With Early Elementary Children:

EBOOK: Rethinking Learning in Early Childhood Education Nicola Yelland, Libby Lee, Maureen O'Rourke, Cathie Harrison, 2008-08-16 I think a real strength of the book is the use of the case studies to ground the points made and to offer in depth insights into practice Jackie Marsh University of Sheffield UK This exciting book considers the nature of young children's lives and how this can and should inform early childhood education in practical ways It examines What is it like for young children to learn in the 21st century How can we link this to new and innovative ways of providing relevant and engaging learning contexts for young children What it means to be multiliterate in the 21st century The book explores how learning and engagement with ideas can be extended through the use of new technologies describing how information and communications technologies enable young people to extend the boundaries of their learning and social interactions These experiences have important implications for formal learning environments and the nature of the curriculum including bold new approaches to teaching and learning which offer opportunities for children to investigate in new ways This book provides examples of the ways in which early childhood teachers have extended opportunities for new types of learning for children by creating contexts in which they are able to explore and represent their ideas and thinking in multimodal formats using new technologies This book represents a research based discussion for rethinking learning in the 21st century and includes various case studies and scenarios to enable students and practising teachers to try out new ideas Finally it considers new ways of thinking about children's learning by creating a multiliteracies portrait pedagogies and pathways profile that enables teachers to build on their strengths to plan for effective learning outcomes Rethinking Learning in Early Childhood Education is key reading for students on Early Years courses or Primary Education pre service teacher education programmes

Teaching Language and Literacy

James F. Christie, Carol Vukelich, Billie Enz, 2007 This text does an exemplary job of presenting current early literacy research and methods in a manner that can be understood and respected Also its emphasis upon workshop based instruction is very appealing to me as a long time advocate for this approach to literacy Scott A. L. Beck Georgia Southern University The third edition of Teaching Language and Literacy Preschool Through the Elementary Grades integrates a constructivist emergent literacy perspective with science based instructional practices This unique focus on theories and techniques that have proven to be successful helps pre service and in service teachers translate principles into classroom practice Perfect for any course with a focus on language the book covers the development and teaching of both oral and written language in preschool through elementary grades Its emphasis on diversity includes special features that describe how teachers can adjust instruction to meet the needs of second language and bilingual learners In addition the third edition focuses on scientifically based reading research SBRR throughout blending these findings with other perspectives in a value added approach to language and literacy teaching and learning New features include Emphasis on a blended approach to language and literacy instruction including both authentic learning linked to activities and developmentally appropriate teaching Activities such as Linking Knowledge to Practice help students connect theory to practices they observe in preschool and kindergarten classrooms In depth coverage of new federal and state literacy initiatives standardized literacy assessments and latest practices in ongoing literacy assessment Early Childhood Curriculum for All Learners Ann M. Selmi, Raymond J. Gallagher, Eugenia R. Mora-Flores, 2014-08-12 Early Childhood Curriculum for All Learners Integrating Play and Literacy Activities is designed to teach early childhood professionals about the latest research on play and early literacy and then to show them practical methods for adapting this research to everyday classroom practices that will encourage the development of learning skills The authors link solid play based research to specific developmentally appropriate practices By combining these two areas the text demonstrates that academic learning and play activities are highly compatible and that children can and do develop academic skills through play In addition the text focuses on socio dramatic play a recently acknowledged essential aspect of child initiated play interactions It provides specific strategies that link these interactive behaviors with the early academic skills needed for the initial primary grades Implementation of the information presented in this book will enable children to experience a richer transition into primary education classrooms Let's Be Friends Kristen Mary Kemple, 2003 This book describes methods of support and intervention teachers can use to create social inclusion in preschool and the primary grades Combining general early childhood education with special education this unique volume explains a wide variety of strategies ranging from environmental arrangement on the spot teaching and cooperative learning to more intensive individually targeted interventions for children experiencing particular challenges and disabilities This is a book richly populated with young children their words their concerns and a host of collaborative strategies for promoting peer affirmation How I wish that all young children would have had the benefit of teachers who read understood and implemented the ideas in this book From the Foreword by Mary Renck Jalongo Editor in Chief Early Childhood Education Journal Let s Be Friends addresses critical questions about how early childhood programs can help all young children including those at risk to develop competent social interaction skills an invaluable contribution in its translation of research results to practical interventions Karen E Diamond Director Child Development Laboratory School Purdue University
