Young Children's Community Building in Action Louise Gwenneth Phillips, Jenny Ritchie, Lavina Dynevor, Jared Lambert, Kerry Moroney, 2019-07-04 Rethinking the concepts of citizenship and community in relation to young children this groundbreaking text examines the ways in which indigenous understandings and practices applied in early childhood settings in Australia and New Zealand encourage young children to demonstrate their care and concern for others and so in turn perceive themselves as part of a larger community Young Children's Community Building in Action acknowledges global variations in the meanings of early childhood education of citizenship and community building and challenges widespread invisibility and disregard of Indigenous communities Through close observation and examination of early years settings in Australia and New Zealand chapters demonstrate how practices guided by Aboriginal and Māori values support and nurture children's personal and social development as individuals and as citizens in a wider community. Exploring what young children's citizenship learning and action looks like in practice and how this may vary within and across communities, the book provides a powerful account of effective pedagogical approaches which have been long excluded from mainstream dialogues. Written for researchers and students of early childhood education and care, this book provides insight into what citizenship can be for young children and how Indigenous cultural values shape ways of knowing, being, doing, and relating.

The Cambridge Handbook of Material Culture Studies Lu Ann De Cunzio, Catharine Dann Roeber, 2022-06-09 Material culture studies is an interdisciplinary field that examines the relationships between people and their things, the production, history, preservation, and interpretation of objects. It draws on theory and practice from disciplines in the social sciences and humanities such as anthropology, archaeology, history, and museum studies. Written by leading international scholars, this Handbook provides a comprehensive view of developments, methodologies, and theories. It is divided into five broad themes embracing both classic and emerging areas of research in the field. Chapters outline transformative moments in material culture scholarship and present research from around the world focusing on multiple material and digital media that show the scope and breadth of this exciting field. Written in an easy-to-read style, it is essential reading for students, researchers, and professionals with an interest in material culture.

Fostering Creativity Ella Karia Ed.D., 2015-10-14 Dr. Karia's development of the EYE Early Years Education Model serves to highlight essential elements for quality Full Day Kindergarten learning, and through her research and teaching experience, she is able to take a closer look at how to build more creativity into the lives of children. By encouraging children to develop individual ideas, they are learning to master whole brain thinking by questioning, exploring, and experimenting; they are engaging in critical, deeper, and higher order thinking. Fostering Creativity reaches out to educators, scholars, and policy makers who are interested in schooling and child development. This well-researched book sparks curiosities and evokes vitality, vigor, and value of the early years of education.
