

TEACHING STYLES

Teaching styles refer to the various methods and approaches that educators use to impart knowledge, skills, and values to their students.

TYPES

The simplest way to differentiate between teaching styles is to compare student-centered to teacher-centered:

- Student-centered teaching focuses on the student and their needs.
- Teacher-centered teaching puts the teacher center stage.

EXAMPLES

- Facilitator: a student-centered teacher who observes and supports students as they learn through the use of prompting questions or strategic interventions.
- Delegator: a student-centered teacher who delegates task roles to students, who often work in groups to achieve their goals.

apartheid South Africa the Eurocentric model of the archive museum and heritage sector has largely remained intact Despite the euphoria around the transformation of heritage in the beginnings of post apartheid South Africa it can be argued that the transformation of heritage institutions has been superficial and cosmetic with the ideological foundation of the colonial archive and museum as well as Eurocentric modalities of heritage education remaining solid largely unmoved and under continuing challenge This is the thrust of this book which reflects on the transformation of archives and museum and heritage education in South Africa and argues for meaningful transformation of the sector through a decolonisation from its Eurocentric mooring

Why the Catholic Church Must Change Margaret Nutting Ralph, 2014-09-04 Why do a third of the people raised Catholic in the United States no longer worship as Catholics Why has the Catholic Church lost a credible teaching voice for many young people Does the fault lie entirely with those individuals and with the secular culture In Why the Catholic Church Must Change Margaret Nutting Ralph first affirms that Catholics are called to seek the truth and to follow their well formed consciences not simply to submit mind and will to the teachings of the Magisterium She then argues that the Catholic Church which has been open to change in the twentieth century must continue to be open to change in the twenty first century change in some of its teachings and in some of its practices The Catholic Church has changed in the past and is being called to change in the present Before that change can occur the Church must enter into respectful dialogue about pertinent issues such as contraception women's ordination and homosexuality and present practices Ralph contends that Catholic culture not just secular culture needs a critical examination Why the Catholic Church Must Change engages the reader to enter into a necessary yet reasoned conversation about pertinent issues such as contraception women's ordination and homosexuality and present practices surrounding the Catholic Church Margaret Nutting Ralph critically examines pertinent topics of not just the secular culture but the Catholic culture that affects both families and culture as a whole and presents a model for how to discuss difficult issues in a respectful and thoughtful manner Ralph successfully discusses the issues surrounding the Catholic Church with awareness that the church is not the whole body of Christ Joint Documents of the State of Michigan for the Year ...
