Learning, Leading, and the Best-Loved Self in Teaching and Teacher Education Cheryl J. Craig, Denise M. McDonald, Gayle A. Curtis, 2022-12-10 This book explores the concept of the best loved self in teaching and teacher education asserting that the best loved self is foundational to the development of teacher identity growth in context and learning in community Drawing on the work of Joseph Schwab who was the first to name the best loved self the editors and their contributors extend this knowledge further through the collaboration of their group of teacher educators known as the Faculty Academy who have been involved in examining teacher education for over two decades The Bloomsbury Handbook of Popular Music Education Zack Moir, Bryan Powell, Gareth Dylan Smith, 2019-04-04 The Bloomsbury Handbook of Popular Music Education draws together current thinking and practice on popular music education from empirical ethnographic sociological and philosophical perspectives Through a series of unique chapters from authors working at the forefront of music education this book explores the ways in which an international group of music educators each approach popular music education Chapters discuss pedagogies from across the spectrum of formal to informal learning including outside and other perspectives that provide insight into the myriad ways in which popular music education is developed and implemented The book is organized into the following sections Conceptualizing Popular Music Education Musical Creative and Professional Development Originating Popular Music Popular Music Education in Schools Identity Meaning and Value in Popular Music Education Formal Education Creativities and Assessment Contributions from academics teachers and practitioners make this an innovative and exciting volume for students teachers researchers and professors in popular music studies and music education Teachers at Their Best Rich Waters, 2018-04-03 The purpose of this book is to change the conversation about teacher induction preparation and development and how we create effective teachers Our national discussion about how to create effective teachers needs to move away from how higher education can do a better job preparing our teachers and move toward how our local schools can do a better job inducting preparing and developing our teachers over a full career There are two interconnected and irrefutable reasons for this First school culture supersedes all rational strategies for teacher development and second teachers learn to teach in the schools where they work not in higher education or any of the alternative routes which the ineffectiveness of higher education teacher preparation have caused to emerge With the affirmation of these postulates this book clarifies that teachers are at their best when they are working together in collaborative cultures where teacher thinking and decision making lead schools in continuous improvement and change Elaborating on the importance of these best conditions for optimal teacher development this book will insist that it is the entirety of a school culture that produces effective teachers and schools with authentic learning communities produce the cultures that produce effective teachers

Johnson,2015-01-23 Passion A ruling passion motivates pushes stretches encourages inspires and in some instances a ruling passion might even challenge you to reach your full potential Make no mistake about it a ruling passion is much different from a goal In general a goal is a set deadline or time frame establish by the goal setter to complete and accomplish a particular task Normally goal setters classify goals into categories short term and long term For a tantamount of consumers and shoppers once a goal is set it stays at the center of attention until the goal is accomplished Totally different from a goal__putatively a passion so to speak is something that you love to do more than anything else that you do daily Straight forwardly speaking when you have a passion it consumes your every thought it pretty much paints the picture of how you view see and live life A strong feeling longing or desire each of us as consumers and shoppers have different passions__ostensibly even with the various passions available as choices some consumers and shoppers have not found their ruling passion understandably it could take years before a consumer or shopper stumbles upon their ruling passion At any rate that you find your passion a passion or a ruling passion could be just about anything that you love and enjoy to do at home away from the job on vacation and during holidays From shopping to blogging to cooking to singing to acting to dancing it s what you love to do the most it s what motivates pushes stretches encourages inspires and challenges you it s your ruling passion In previous years I have had a passion to try and do many things While in college I rediscovered my passion for the English language and writing Within the past seven years I developed a passion for shopping and blogging 2009 I developed a passion for pink Along with my passion for pink I believe my ruling passion is to be an award winning editor and writer Veritably all passions begin with you_if you have found your ruling passion stick with it share it and create a niche for your passion And for the percentage of you consumers and shoppers who you havent found your ruling passion start_right now and start doing what you love and enjoy it s not too late
