Signature Pedagogies for the Playwriting Classroom Andrew Black, 2025-06-12 Drawing on qualitative research exploring the techniques of playwriting instructors this book outlines signature pedagogies within playwriting instruction for novice writers and how they may be reimagined and reinvigorated Through research gathered in interviews with 11 instructors and surveying their methods syllabi and handouts Andrew Black interrogates key challenges within dramatic writing pedagogy the myth that it along with creativity cannot be taught the lack of clarity about the instructional value of playwriting education for diverse contemporary audiences the tendency to allow the writing product to drive instruction rather than process and the tension between traditional and experimental models of play construction and how this can confound instructional techniques Identifying 3 indispensable and signature pedagogies that are consistently used in the classroom the writing exercise the use of mentor texts and the workshopping of student material this book describes key strategies and practices used by seasoned instructors which bring these pedagogical strategies to life strategies and practices which can support instructors in reimagining their playwriting classrooms An intervention for lorebased pedagogical models that are often out of date and reflect the biases of previous generations Black offers a starting point for instructors developing their inclusive lesson plans offering a comprehensive understanding of pedagogical options available to the instructors

The Creative Turn Anne M. Harris, 2014-04-16 The conundrum of understanding practising and teaching contemporary creativity is that it wants to be all things to all people Almost all modern lists of creativity creative thinking and how to becoming creative books begin with one premise the creative individual artist is not special rather each of us is creative in a special way and these skills can and must be nurtured Increasingly industry and education leaders are claiming that creativity is the core skill to take us into a prosperous future signalling the democratisation of creativity as industry Yet centuries of association between aesthetics mastery and creativity are hard to dismantle These days it is increasingly difficult to discuss creativity without reference to business industry and innovation Why do we love to think of creativity in this way and no longer as that rare visitation of the muse or the elite gift of the few This book looks at the possibility that creativity is taking a turn what that turn might be and how it relates to industry education and ultimately cultural role of creativity and aesthetics for the 21st century In proliferating discourses of the commodification of creativity there is one thing all the experts agree on creativity is undefinable possibly unteachable largely unassessable and becoming the most valuable commodity in 21st century markets Conferring with Young Writers Kristin Ackerman, Jennifer McDonough, 2023-10-10 If you've ever sat down to confer with a child and felt at a loss for what to say or how to help move him or her forward as a writer this book is for you If you are a strong teacher of writing but are not seeing results from your students this book is for you Authors Kristin Ackerman and Jennifer McDonough have been teaching writing for several years and know that conferring can be a murky and messy process perhaps the hardest component of all Written from the lessons they've learned through hard won classroom experience their mistakes and challenges Conferring with Young Writers is based on what Kristin and Jen call the three Fs frequency focus and follow up They've created a classroom management system that offers routine and structure for giving the most effective feedback in a writing conference This book will help writing teachers and students learn to break down and utilize the qualities that enable good writing elaboration voice structure conventions and focus The authors also provide the knowledge and skills it takes to confer well which will help you improve as a writing teacher and give your students the confidence to think of themselves as writers Understanding and Supporting Young Writers from Birth to 8 Noella M. Mackenzie, Janet Scull, 2024-08-27 Understanding and Supporting Young Writers from Birth to 8 provides practitioners with the knowledge and skills they need to support young children as they learn to write This fully updated second edition offers new guidance on all aspects of writing from building children's vocabulary and creating multimodal texts to providing support for children who find writing particularly challenging All chapters have been revised and updated with increased emphasis on engaging with families and catering for children from diverse communities A new chapter focuses on the Draw Talk Write Share DTWS pedagogical approach to teaching writing The book discusses the role of oral language in early mark making and writing in detail and explores the key relationships between drawing and talking drawing and writing and drawing talking and writing Each chapter also features practical strategies and samples of writing and or drawing to illustrate key points as well as reflective questions to help the reader apply the ideas to their own setting Further topics covered include progressions in children's writing writing in the pre school years developing authorial skills developing phonological awareness phonics and spelling handwriting and keyboarding skills teaching writing to plurilingual learners assessing writing Understanding and Supporting Young Writers from Birth to 8 is a contemporary and unique resource that will help early childhood educators early years schoolteachers specialist practitioners working with very young children and students enrolled in Early Childhood or Primary Studies courses to boost their confidence in teaching young learners as they become writers
