

JESUS taught through PARABLES

- One of Jesus' favorite teaching methods was through the use of parables. Parables are not unique to Jesus, but Jesus had a real talent for utilizing this method of storytelling to get people to think about themselves and their relationship to each other and God. His ability to do this clearly left a strong impression on the first Christians that they preserved them through the oral tradition and included so many of them in the written Gospels.

The Puzzle of the Gospels Peter Vardy, Mary E. Mills, 2015-02-24 First Published in 2015 The gospels tell a story There are many types of story ranging from fiction through biographies to attempts at historical accounts Even so called true stories will be affected by the perception of the writer It is impossible to present any book without taking the viewpoint of the author into account which is one reason why this book will be devoting considerable time to understanding the purpose and intention of the individual gospel writers Matthew Mark Luke and John present different accounts of the life and death of Jesus of Nazareth as one might expect from four people who although they use some common material nevertheless present this material in distinctive ways This book will be concerned with helping you the reader to understand the gospel stories and how they came to be written to bring to light the implicit references that were being made of which modern readers may be unaware and also to consider the issue of the truth of the stories

The Parables Brad H. Young, 2008-03-01 Fully one third of Jesus words in the Synoptic Gospels occur in parables It could be said that knowing the parables is essential for understanding the person of Christ In this work Brad Young displays his unique perspective as a scholar steeped in both Jewish and Christian studies While parables have timeless messages reinterpretations in new contexts throughout the centuries have distorted the original meanings and undermined the essence of what Jesus intended for his initial listeners Young examines the parables that best illustrate the parallels between the rabbinic and Gospel parables He challenges readers to remember that first century Judaism was not merely the backdrop for Jesus teachings but the very stage from which Jesus delivered the message of the kingdom Jesus ethics and theology can be properly understood only in the light of first century Jewish teachings Young focuses on the historical development and theological significance of parables in both traditions and examines five theological subjects that are dealt with in parables prayer grace reconciliation calling and sovereignty

Inspirations of Life in Faith Nomusa Buleni, 2015-06-05 Knowledge of the truth that is solely found in Gods Word gives and yields faith Faith is however believing something based on promptings by the Spirit of God thus requiring something to believe The New Age movement believes that we can believe things into existence which is not the same kind of faith that we believers should have or dwell on Our faith is based upon the truth in Gods Word Thus knowing what Gods Word has to say about something gives us the ability to believe it Putting Christ as the basis of our faith that will eventually yield results Our faith should be based upon Gods Word Inspirations of Life in Faith is a compilation of models that build a strong base for a Christian life As that will be happening there is evidence of fruits and personal growth in Christs hope of glory For example how can you have faith to pray for healing believing that God will heal you if you didnt know it was Gods will for you to heal Isaiah 53 5 But he was wounded for our transgressions he was bruised for our iniquities the chastisement of our peace was upon him and with his stripes we are healed This is why Satan works so hard to tell the church today that it may not be Gods will for them to be healed Why Because it casts doubt the opposite of faith upon the hearts of Gods children Where there is no doubt it is hard for the devil to function Furthermore how can we receive the promises of God if we dont know what they are We must first know the truth God operates in truth always and then believe it That is biblical faith Mark 9 23 Jesus said unto him if thou canst believe all things are possible to him that believeth We have to believe and trust the Word of God Jesus told his disciples that all things referring to the promises of God are possible for them who trust God You cannot have a successful Christian life without fully trusting in Jesus How can you believe something that nobody told you You cannot It is important to know what the Word of God has to say has said and is saying so that we can believe it Faith comes by hearing Gods Word Romans 10 17 So then faith cometh by hearing and hearing by the word of God I do pray that this publication will not only minister to you but also inspire you to new heights in your walk with the Lord Amen With love Nomusa Buleni

Twenty Parables of Jesus in the Gospel of Luke John J. Kilgallen, 2008 This book hopes to bring out the teachings of Jesus parables with particular attention paid to the immediate contexts in which Luke puts his parables These contexts sometimes only just a sentence and sometimes originating from Jesus as well as from Luke give the reader an essential guide to the sense of the parables The nature of a parable or comparison is by general agreement of exegetes very often open to more than one interpretation It is in this sizing up the inner possibilities of the parables to have them speak winningly to their audiences together with the freedom belonging to an author and his desire to remain faithful to the mind of Jesus that the author strives to interpret Luke s presentation of a large number of Jesus parables

Jesus, the Temple and the Coming Son of Man Robert H. Stein, 2014-09-05 Mark 13 the so called Little Apocalypse has puzzled readers for generations Was Jesus speaking of the end time return of the Son of Man or

Bleyler,Dennis C. Haugh,2009-07-16 The Gospels And Christian Life reads the four canonical Gospels as handbooks for religious formation through communal practices The book focuses on the communities that produced each gospel the dynamic energy each gospel displays for creating and sustaining community life the different interpretations of the person of Jesus and the different systems of organization and leadership each gospel promulgated The authors carefully describe the social context of each Gospel and delineate the practices the texts prescribe Each gospel has an imaginative portal an introductory chapter introducing the necessary background for understanding the social intellectual and religious setting for each gospel Their reading of each Gospel builds on these foundations to illustrate the nature and scope of the community s practices Their work starts from the assumption that the communities did not look to the Gospels for biographical data on the life of Jesus to offer the reader a powerful reading of each Gospel community its unique practices and the way people were trained to become members of it This book is aimed at undergraduate and graduate teachers and students pastors and the general audience eager for new ways to understand the New Testament

Engaging the Doctrine of Jesus (and Mary) Matthew Levering,2025-03-10 The six chapters of this book focus upon

Jesus conception and birth from a virgin his authoritative teaching his miracles his cross his resurrection and his ascension The purpose of the book is to articulate and defend the truth of these salvific mysteries as presented to us in Scripture In addition to conversing extensively with historical critical biblical scholarship the chapters make recourse to the theological tradition from the church fathers onward with Thomas Aquinas as a touchstone Levering seeks to make a case for believing in Jesus At the same time he shows how each of these mysteries is intimately linked with a truth about Mary the Mother of Jesus thus arguing for the integral relationship of Christology and Mariology Mary enacts the reception of the Lord by God s faithful people the New Adam never chooses to be without the New Eve in God s new covenant family The Christology offered in this book is therefore both attuned to historical studies of Jesus and Second Temple Judaism and at the same time deeply traditional in a contemporary Catholic and ecumenical way
