Technicolor Race Technology And Everyday Life:

Technicolor Alondra Nelson, Thuy Linh Nguyen Tu, Alicia Headlam Hines, 2001-03 The cultural impact of new information and communication technologies has been a constant topic of debate but questions of race and ethnicity remain a critical absence Technicolor fills this gap by exploring the relationship between race and technology From Indian H 1B Workers and Detroit techno music to karaoke and the Chicano interneta Technicolor s specific case studies document the ways in which people of color actually use technology The results rupture such racial stereotypes as Asian whiz kids and Black and Latino techno phobes while fundamentally challenging many widely held theoretical and political assumptions Incorporating a broader definition of technology and technological practices to include not only those technologies thought to create revolutions computer hardware and software but also cars cellular phones and other everyday technologies Technicolor reflects the larger history of technology use by people of color Contributors Vivek Bald Ben Chappell Beth Coleman McLean Greaves Logan Hill Alicia Headlam Hines Karen Hossfeld Amitava Kumar Casey Man Kong Lum Alondra Nelson Mimi Nguyen Guillermo Gomez Pea Tricia Rose Andrew Ross Thuy Linh Nguyen Tu and Ben Williams Learning Race and Ethnicity Anna Everett, 2008 An exploration of how issues of race and ethnicity play out in a digital media landscape that includes MySpace post 9 11 politics MMOGs Internet music distribution and the digital divide It may have been true once that as the famous cartoon of the 1990s put it Nobody knows you re a dog on the Internet and that as an MCI commercial of that era declared on the Internet there is no race gender or infirmity but today with the development of web cams digital photography cell phone cameras streaming video and social networking sites this notion seems quaintly idealistic This volume takes up issues of race and ethnicity in the new digital media landscape The contributors address this topic still difficult to engage honestly clearly empathetically and with informed understanding in twenty first century America with the goal of pushing consideration of a vexing but important subject from margin to center Learning Race and Ethnicity explores the intersection of race and ethnicity with post 9 11 politics online hate speech practices and digital youth and media cultures It examines universal access and the racial and ethnic digital divide from the perspective of digital media learning and youth The chapters treat such subjects as racial identity in the computer mediated public sphere minority technology innovators new methods of music distribution digital artist Judy Baca s work with youth Native American digital media literacy and minority youth technology access and the pervasiveness of online health information Contributors Ambar Basu Graham D Bodie Dara N Byrne Jessie Daniels Mohan J Dutta Raiford Guins Guisela Latorre Antonio Lopez Chela Sandoval Tyrone D Taborn Douglas Thomas Encoding Race, Encoding Class Sareeta Amrute, 2016-08-04 In Encoding Race Encoding Class Sareeta Amrute explores the lives of Indian IT coders temporarily working in Berlin showing how their cognitive labor reimagines race and class and how their acceptance and resistance to their work offers new potentials for alternative visions of living and working in neoliberal economies Handbook of New Media Leah A Lievrouw, Sonia M.

Livingstone, 2006-01-17 Praise for the First Edition A landmark volume that provides a foundation stone for a new subject the study of new media It is stunningly well edited offering a very high standard of original contributions in a skilfully orchestrated and organised textbook James Curran Goldsmiths University of London The first major review of interactive technologies and their cultural and social context This is more than a welcome addition to one's library it is the authoritative overview of international research perspectives on interactive media technologies by leading scholars around the world Ellen Wartella University of Texas Austin A landmark for the study of information and communication technologies within the field of communication Its international team of editors and authors has brought together insights gained from over two decades of scholarly research This indispensable reference demonstrates an increased maturity and stature for new media research within the field William H Dutton University of Southern California A truly comprehensive and authoritative volume This Handbook will be an absolutely essential text for anyone concerned with social aspects of the new media Kevin Robins Goldsmiths University of London Thoroughly revised and updated this Student Edition of the successful Handbook of New Media has been abridged to showcase the best of the hardback edition It stakes out the boundaries of new media research and scholarship and provides a definitive statement of the current state of the field Features new to the student edition include Improved organization of material to make it more accessible for students and easier to incorporate into course design An introduction by the editors which clearly lays out the main themes in new media studies as well as providing instructors with a guide to how to get the most out of the handbook in the classroom All chapters are updated to combine classic studies and background material with latest developments in the field The first edition of the Handbook immediately established itself as the central reference work in the field This new revised edition offers students the most comprehensive and up to date introduction to the area

Race and Utopian Desire in American Literature and Society Patricia Ventura, Edward K. Chan, 2019-10-12 Bringing together a variety of scholarly voices this book argues for the necessity of understanding the important role literature plays in crystallizing the ideologies of the oppressed while exploring the necessarily racialized character of utopian thought in American culture and society Utopia in everyday usage designates an idealized fantasy place but within the interdisciplinary field of utopian studies the term often describes the worldviews of non dominant groups when they challenge the ruling order In a time when white supremacy is reasserting itself in the US and around the world there is a growing need to understand the vital relationship between race and utopia as a resource for resistance Utopian literature opens up that relationship by envisioning and negotiating the prospect of a better future while acknowledging the brutal past The collection fills a critical gap in both literary studies which has largely ignored the issue of race and utopia and utopian studies which has said too little about race

Virtual Ethnicity Linda Leung, 2017-09-08 Where is the ethnic minority presence in cyberspace In this book Linda Leung makes a pioneering exploration of ethnic minority presence in cyberspace She finds that despite the apparent white Western male middle class profile of cyberspace

there is significant ethnic minority activity The work draws on the author's empirical research amongst ethnic minority women and incorporates discussion of media and web texts from the US Canada Britain and Australia This is a fascinating interdisciplinary examination of the web participation of ethnic communities which sheds light on how ethnic identities are articulated in cyberspace and contemporary society in both predictable and surprising ways

The Routledge Research Companion to Electronic Music:

Reaching out with Technology Simon Emmerson, 2018-05-16 The theme of this Research Companion is connectivity and the global reach of electroacoustic music and sonic arts made with technology The possible scope of such a companion in the field of electronic music has changed radically over the last 30 years The definitions of the field itself are now broader there is no clear boundary between electronic music and sound art Also what was previously an apparently simple divide between art and popular practices is now not easy or helpful to make and there is a rich cluster of streams of practice with many histories including world music traditions This leads in turn to a steady undermining of a primarily Euro American enterprise in the second half of the twentieth century Telecommunications technology most importantly the development of the internet in the final years of the century has made materials practices and experiences ubiquitous and apparently universally available though some contributions to this volume reassert the influence and importance of local cultural practice Research in this field is now increasingly multi disciplinary Technological developments are embedded in practices which may be musical social individual and collective The contributors to this companion embrace technological scientific aesthetic historical and social approaches and a host of hybrids but most importantly they try to show how these join up Thus the intention has been to allow a wide variety of new practices to have voice unified through ideas of reaching out and connecting together and in effect showing that there is emerging a different kind of global music Calling for Change Sheila McIntyre, Elizabeth Sheehy, 2006-06-28 Unique in both scope and perspective Calling for Change investigates the status of women within the Canadian legal profession ten years after the first national report on the subject was published by the Canadian Bar Association Elizabeth Sheehy and Sheila McIntyre bring together essays that investigate a wide range of topics from the status of women in law schools the practicing bar and on the bench to women's grassroots engagement with law and with female lawyers from the frontlines Contributors not only reflect critically on the gains losses and barriers to change of the past decade but also provide blueprints for political action Academics community activists practitioners law students women litigants and law society benchers and staff explore how egalitarian change is occurring and or being impeded in their particular contexts Each of these unique voices offers lessons from their individual collective and institutional efforts to confront and counter the interrelated forms of systemic inequality that compromise women's access to education and employment equity within legal institutions and ultimately to equal justice in Canada Published in English

Hidden in White Sight Calvin Lawrence, 2023-04-14 Artificial Intelligence was meant to be the great social equalizer that helps promote fairness by removing human bias from the equation but is this true Given that the policing and judicial systems can display human bias this book explores how the technology they use can also reflect these prejudices From healthcare services to social scoring in exams to applying for and getting loans AI outcomes often restrict those most in need of these services Through personal stories from an esteemed Black Data Scientist and AI expert this book attempts to demystify the algorithmic black box AI pervades all aspects of modern society and affects everyone within it yet its internal biases are rarely confronted This book advises readers on what they can do to fight against it including the introduction of a proposed AI Bill of Rights whilst also providing specific recommendations for AI developers and technologists <https://hiddeninwhitesight.com>
