TOURIST'S LANGUAGE HANDBOOK

— Practical Ways to Help You Communicate —

HOW TO USE THIS HANDBOOK

Welcome to Japan!
This handbook is designed to help you communicate better with Japanese. To use it, look over the Table of Contents first. You will find that each section has useful information for you.
When you need help, just show this page to someone so she/he can understand how to use this handbook too. Then point to your question written both in English and in Japanese. Or, you can read aloud the questions written in Romanized characters. The Japanese person you are talking to should then be able to answer your question.
Please remember that when you want to ask someone for help, you should begin your question by saying "Su-mi-ma-sei" as a polite way to get the person's attention. And it is considered polite to say "Arigato" (Thank you) after your question has been answered. We sincerely hope that you will enjoy your stay in Japan, "where the past greets the future," and that you will gain a better understanding of Japan and its people.
We look forward to welcoming you back!

The Official J.A.P. This finding aid will help researchers interested in Japanese war crimes war criminals and war crimes trials to navigate the vast holdings of the U S National Archives and Records Administration at College Park NARA It will also be useful to anyone interested in military intelligence political diplomatic economic financial social and cultural activities in the Far East during 1931 1951 as well as to those searching for information regarding Allied prisoners of war the organization functions and activities of American and Allied agencies and the Japanese occupation of countries and the American occupation of Japan While not aimed at researchers interested in the strategic and tactical military and naval history of the war in the Far East this finding aid may nevertheless be useful to those with such interests if only to identify record groups and series of records that may bear on those topics This finding aid covers records from over twenty record groups and includes materials declassified under the Japanese Imperial Government Disclosure Act of 2000 P L 106 567 as well as records that were never classified and those declassified before the passage of the Disclosure Act Because the process of identifying declassifying accessioning and processing of records under the Act is taking place as this finding is being compiled late arriving records may not be identified in this finding aid Researchers should consult the IWG Web site <http://www.archives.gov/iwg> for a complete and up to date list of records declassified under the Japanese Imperial Government Disclosure Act Federal agencies involved in the identification and declassification of relevant classified records ascertained that there were relatively few pertinent records that were still classified Most relevant records were either never classified or were declassified decades before the Act and were already in NARA s custody While this finding aid s coverage is broad it is not comprehensive Researchers may find other relevant series of records within the record groups mentioned or not mentioned Researchers are encouraged to use other finding aids and consult with NARA staff to locate records of interest In addition the National Archives at College Park holds nontextual records such as still photographs and motion pictures that researchers may want to examine Other NARA facilities hold many records and donated material related to World War II including records related to the subjects covered in this finding aid This is particularly true of the Franklin D Roosevelt the Harry S Truman and the Dwight D Eisenhower archives Think of archives as vast mountain ranges of records with the archivists guiding the expeditions Explorations on familiar well trodden paths produce new perspectives when examined with fresh eyes and imagination Midstream ,1986 The Mirth of Nations Christie Davies,2017-07-28 The Mirth of Nations is a social and historical study of jokes told in the principal English speaking countries It is based on use of archives and other primary sources including old and rare joke books Davies makes detailed comparisons between the humor of specific pairs of nations and ethnic and regional groups In this way he achieves an appreciation of the unique characteristics of the humor of each nation or group A tightly argued book The Mirth of Nations uses the comparative method to undermine existing theories of humor which are rooted in notions of hostility conflict and superiority and derive ultimately from Hobbes and Freud Instead Davies argues that humor merely plays with aggression and with rule breaking and that the form this play takes is determined by social structures and intellectual traditions It is not related to actual conflicts between groups In particular Davies convincingly argues that Jewish humor and jokes are neither uniquely nor overwhelmingly self mocking as many writers since Freud have suggested Rather Jewish jokes like Scottish humor and jokes are the product of a strong cultural tradition of analytical thinking and intelligent self awareness The volume shows that the forty year popularity of the Polish joke cycle in America was not a product of any special negative feeling towards Poles Jokes are not serious and are not a form of determined aggression against others or against one s own group The Mirth of Nations is readable as well as revisionist It is written with great clarity and puts forward difficult and complex arguments without jargon in an accessible manner Its rich use of examples of all kinds of humor entertains the reader who will enjoy a great variety of jokes while being enlightened by the author s careful explanations of why particular sets of jokes exist and are immensely popular The book will appeal to general readers as well as those in cultural stu The Wealthy, the Brilliant, the Few Sophie
