A World Art History and Its Objects David Carrier, 2008-11-28 Is writing a world art history possible Does the history of art as such even exist outside the Western tradition Is it possible to consider the history of art in a way that is not fundamentally Eurocentric In this highly readable and provocative book David Carrier a philosopher and art historian does not attempt to write a world art history himself Rather he asks the question of how an art history of all cultures could be written or whether it is even possible to do so He also engages the political and moral issues raised by the idea of a multicultural art history Focusing on a consideration of intersecting artistic traditions Carrier negotiates the way meaning and understanding shift or are altered when a visual object from one culture for example is inserted into the visual tradition of another culture A World Art History and Its Objects proposes the use of temporal narrative as a way to begin to understand a multicultural art history

The Kurds and Kurdistan Lokman I. Meho, 1997-06-25 As the Kurdish question becomes more prominent in Middle Eastern politics it is attracting attention from the media the academic community and governmental and non governmental organizations Swamped with questions from the press and academic departments students of Kurdish topics have needed a comprehensive bibliography on the Kurds This book meets that need An introductory essay provides users with general background information on the Kurds and Kurdistan With over 800 entries the annotated bibliography provides information on the most important works about the Kurds and Kurdistan published from World War II through 1996 Emphasizing recent titles the book focuses on English language scholarly works Arranged in topical chapters the book opens with a section on general works then covers travel works history and archaeology politics minorities and religion in Kurdistan society economy language and education literature and folklore and culture and arts

The Persian Carpet Tradition P.R.J. Ford, 2019-06-30 Between 1400 and 1500 a design revolution in Persia swept away a 2000 year old tradition of carpet design replacing abstract geometric patterns with complex floral scrolls dominated by a central medallion derived from the Chinese cloud collar shape This revolution represents a major event in world art history comparable to that which occurred at the same time in Renaissance Italy It was followed over the next four centuries by a second revolution during which the principal design elements of the first permeated carpet production at every level throughout Persia and continue to dominate it to this day

AUTHOR Jim Ford worked for many years for the world famous international oriental carpet import export company OCM In his career he followed in the illustrious footsteps of A Cecil Edwards author of The Persian Carpet Duckworth 1953 as the company's rug buying agent in Iran before setting up his own business after the Iranian Revolution with his wife Barbara Lindsay Ford designing and producing their own contemporary carpets in Nepal He is the author of one of the best selling oriental rug books of all time Oriental Carpet Design A Guide to Traditional Motifs Patterns and Symbols which has been subsequently reprinted on both sides of the Atlantic and translated into German and other languages

SELLING POINT Miniature paintings unlock the door to a thorough re examination of the ubiquitous classical medallion design in Persian carpets revealing an artistic revolution comparable to that which occurred at the same time in Renaissance Italy 380 colour and 20 b w photographs
