Unlawful Attacks in Combat Situations Héctor Olásolo,2007-11-30 Death and destruction are unavoidable effects of war and combat situations The fact that people have been killed or injured or property has been destroyed should not encourage anyone to rush to the conclusion that war crimes have been committed On the contrary before reaching such a conclusion it is necessary to carefully analyze the conduct of the person causing death injury or damage in order to ascertain whether such conduct is consistent with international humanitarian law Technology law and public opinion on what is acceptable has greatly evolved since World War II The issue of civilian damage caused in combat operations has become an important topic in public opinion since Operation Desert Storm in 1991 Public pressure to limit incidental civilian damage has notably increased following the NATO aerial campaign in Kosovo in 1999 and the subsequent conflicts in Afghanistan in 2001 Iraq in 2003 and Lebanon 2006
