located across the lands of the Western Scandinavian diaspora and their counterparts in the urban trading centres of Kaupang Norway and Hedeby formerly Denmark is synthesised into a single study firmly situating the multiple burial rite within the wider suite of normative burial practices observed across the Viking World The book meaningfully engages with a developing discourse in the Scandinavian tradition increasingly revealing the fluidity of being across human animal and thing bodies in Iron Age mentalities and material culture Ultimately it poses the question are humans animals and things similar forms of bodies and beings in the Viking World This book will appeal to students and researchers of death and burial in the Viking World
