The Other Side Of Mahathir:

Malaysia Boon Kheng Cheah, 2002 Focuses on Malaysia's four Prime Ministers as nation builders observing that each one of them when he became Prime Minister was transformed from being the head of the Malay party UMNO to that of the leader of a multi ethnic nation Each began his political career as an exclusivist Malay nationalist but became an inclusivist

The Influence of the Type of Dominant Party on Democracy Malte Kaßner, 2013-11-29 Dominant parties and democracies are they really strange bedfellows Malte Kaßner sheds light on the relation between one party dominance and democracy from a comparative perspective The study examines the key question how different types of dominant parties influence democracy in multicultural societies with the help of two case studies South Africa and Malaysia Both countries are characterized by an ethnically linguistically and religiously plural society The author analyses the two dominant parties African National Congress ANC and United Malays National Organization UMNO and their implications on democracy in the two countries The outcome suggests that one party dominance per se cannot be assessed as beneficial or harmful for democratic development Rather dominant parties deserve a stronger analytical differentiation Causal patterns contribute to such a differentiation

The Nationalist Dilemma Marvin Suesse, 2023-05-11 Analyses economic nationalism as a set of ideas and policies that have shaped the modern world economy over the past 250 years Illusions of Democracy Sophie Lemièrè, 2025-10-01 Illusions of Democracy Malaysian Politics and People offers an up to date and broad analysis of the contemporary state of Malaysian politics and society Transcending disciplinary boundaries it offers a look at Malaysian politics not only through the lens of political science but also anthropology cultural studies international relations political economy and legal studies touching on both overlooked topics in Malaysian political life as well as the emerging trends which will shape Malaysia's future Covering silat martial arts Malaysia's constitutional identity emergency legislation the South China Sea dilemma ISIS discourse zakat payment the fallout from the 1MDB scandal and Malaysia's green movement Illusions of Democracy charts the complex and multi faceted nature of political life in a semi authoritarian state breaking down the illusions which keep it functioning to uncover the mechanisms which really underlie the paradoxical longevity of Malaysia's political economic and social system Shattering the Myth Bruce B. Lawrence, 2018-06-05 Islam is often portrayed especially in Western media as an alien violent hostile and monolithic religion whose adherents are intent upon battling nonbelievers throughout the world Shattering the Myth demonstrates that these conceptions more accurately reflect the bias of Western reporters than they do the realities of contemporary Islam Westerners are barraged by images of violence that usually originate from armed confrontations in one small corner of the world Islam Bruce Lawrence argues is a complex international religious system that cannot be reduced to stereotypes As Lawrence demonstrates Islam is a religion shaped as much by its own postulates and ethical demands as by the specific circumstances of Muslim people in the modern world The last two hundred years have brought many challenges for Muslims from colonial subjugation through sporadic revivalism to elitist reform movements and most recently pervasive struggles with fundamentalism During each period Muslims have had to address internal tensions as well as external threats Today Muslims in the post colonial era only some of whom are Arab and living in the Middle East are playing ever greater roles in economic changes both regional and international As the impact of these changes has become evident in societies around the globe new leaders have come into public view The most remarkable emerging presence is that of Muslim women Lawrence argues that it is the experience of Muslim women in particular that calls for a more nuanced understanding of Islam today It is time Lawrence believes to replace inaccurate images of Islam with a recognition of the multifaceted character of this global religion and of its widely diverse adherents Here he describes changes that are taking place throughout the world particularly in Southeast Asia enacted by governments and nongovernmental organizations alike In a time of rapid international change Lawrence suggests that it is time for our images of Islam to reflect more clearly the realities of Islam as it is lived Shattering the Myth provides significant insights into the history of Islam and a greater understanding of the varied experiences of Muslims today An informed interpretation of the contemporary Muslim experience Lawrence's explanations for the particular states of affairs in Egypt Iran Pakistan and Malaysia among other cases are compelling A distinguished contribution From the foreword by James Piscatori and Dale F Eickelman

Constitutionalism in Islamic Countries: Between Upheaval and Continuity Rainer Grote, Tilmann J.

Röder, 2012-02-16 Constitutionalism in Islamic Countries Between Upheaval and Continuity offers a comprehensive analysis of the issues associated with the theory and practice of constitutionalism in Islamic countries. This collection of essays is written by leading constitutional and comparative law scholars and constitutional practitioners and essays provide readers with an overview of the constitutional developments in countries in the Islamic world, an understanding of the potential and actual impact of Islam and Sharia on the notion of modern constitutionalism and insight into the ways in which Western ideals may be reconciled with Islamic tradition.

Malaysian Maverick B. Wain, 2009-11-30 Mahathir Mohamad turned Malaysia into one of the developing world's most successful economies. He adopted pragmatic economic policies alongside repressive political measures and showed that Islam was compatible with representative government and modernization. He emerged as a Third World champion and Islamic spokesman by standing up to the West. Debates on Islam and Knowledge in Malaysia and Egypt

Mona Abaza, 2013-01-11 This book is a comparative study of the sociological field in two different Muslim societies: Malaysia and Egypt. It analyses the process of the production of knowledge through the example of the modern Islamization of knowledge, debate and local empirical variations.

Guests of God Robert Bianchi, 2008-03-25 Each year about two million pilgrims from over 100 countries converge on the Islamic holy city of Mecca for the hajj. While the hajj is first and foremost a religious festival, it is also very much a political event. No government can resist the temptation to manipulate the hajj for political and economic gain. Every large Muslim state has developed a comprehensive hajj policy and a powerful bureaucracy to enforce it. The Muslim world's leading multinational organization, the Organization of the Islamic Conference, has established the first international regime explicitly devoted to pilgrimage. Yet Robert Bianchi argues no secular or religious authority, national or international, can really control the hajj. State-sponsored pilgrimage management consistently backfires, giving government opponents valuable ammunition and allowing them to manipulate the symbols and controversies of the hajj to their own ends. Bianchi has been researching the hajj for over ten years and draws on interviews with and data from hajj directors in five Muslim countries: Pakistan, Malaysia, Turkey, Indonesia, and Nigeria; statistics from Saudi Arabian hajj authorities; as well as his personal experience as a pilgrim. The result is the most complete picture of the hajj available anywhere and a wide-ranging work on Islam, politics, and power.

Guests of God : Pilgrimage and Politics in the Islamic World Robert R. Bianchi Formerly Associate Professor of Political Science, University of Chicago, 2004-09-09

Each year more than two million pilgrims from over 100 countries converge on the holy city of Mecca to reenact the ritual dramas that Muslims have been performing for centuries. Making the hajj is one of the most important duties in the life of a Muslim. The pilgrimage and its impact on international politics is enormous and growing every year, yet Westerners know virtually nothing about it. What is the hajj and what does it mean? Who are the hajjis? What do they do and say in Mecca and how do they interpret their experiences? Who runs the hajj and what are their political objectives? How does the hajj encourage international cooperation among Muslims and can it also promote harmony between Islam and the West In Guests of God Robert R Bianchi seeks to answer these and many other questions While it is first and foremost a religious festival he shows the hajj is also very much a political event The Muslim world s leading multinational organization the Organization of the Islamic Conference has established the first international regime explicitly devoted to pilgrimage Every large Muslim nation has developed a comprehensive hajj policy and a powerful bureaucracy to enforce it Yet Bianchi argues no authority secular or religious national or international can really control the hajj Pilgrims believe that they are entitled to travel freely to Mecca as Guests of God not as guests of any nation or organization that might wish to restrict or profit from their efforts to fulfill a fundamental religious obligation Drawing on his personal experience as a pilgrim and a wealth of data gathered over the course of ten years of research Bianchi has produced a fascinating look at the hajj filled with personal candid stories from political and religious leaders and hajjis from all walks of life A wide ranging study of Islam politics and power Guests of God is the most complete picture of the hajj available anywhere

The European Union and Interregionalism Mr Mathew Doidge, 2013-03-28 The European Union and Interregionalism is the most comprehensive study of interregionalism to date providing a vigorous analysis of its role and functions in the architecture of global governance and of the place of qualitative differences between regional actors in shaping interregional relationships Regionalism itself is an established phenomenon with regional politics becoming increasingly institutionalised As a result with the EU as forerunner regions have begun to exert themselves in the external policy space developing networks of relations including prominently interregional relations We have thus seen the emergence of a new governance space at the interregional level banded on one side by sites of global governance and on the other by governance at the regional level Important questions challenging the current literature of these interregional structures include do interregional relationships conform to theoretical expectations and what patterns of engagement and interaction are emerging within the EU s core interregional partnerships and are these replicated elsewhere Exploring interregionalism beyond the core Europe Asia partnerships including the network of relations centred on ASEAN this book should be read by all those engaged in consideration of interregional structures to understand how patterns of EU centred interregional engagement rather than being sui generis are increasingly evident in the broader network of interregional relationships
