Mirror, Mirror Kara Powell, Kendall Payne, 2010-06-01 How teenage girls can combat the world's definition of self image through a biblical understanding of who they are If there is a teenage girl who feels comfortable with her body and appearance the authors have yet to meet her This book helps explain where that dissatisfaction comes from from media like MTV magazines and advertisements It then gives girls a healthy biblical perspective on physical appearance concluding that the only real way for girls to experience lasting acceptance of their bodies is to look at how God has created them and how he intends for them to love others and themselves Through their own vulnerability and personal stories the authors help girls realize they are not the only ones who feel so poorly about themselves This revolutionary book is written more like a conversation than a lecture
