Reference and Information Services Richard E. Bopp, Linda C. Smith, 2011-05-23 Reflecting the dramatic changes shaped by rapidly developing technologies over the past six years this new fourth edition of Reference and Information Services takes the introduction to reference sources and services significantly beyond the content of the first three editions In Part I Concepts and Processes chapters have been revised and updated to reflect new ideas and methods in the provision of reference service in an era when many users have access to the Web In Part II Information Sources and Their Use discussion of each source type has been updated to encompass key resources in print and on the Web where an increasing number of freely available sources join those purchased or licensed by libraries A number of new authors are contributors to this new edition bringing to their chapters their experience as teachers of reference and as practitioners in different types of libraries Discussions of services in Part I integrate digital reference as appropriate to each topic such as how to conduct a reference interview online using instant messaging Boxes interspersed in the text are used to present scenarios for discussion to highlight key concepts or to present excerpts from important documents Discussions of sources in Part II place more emphasis on designing effective search strategies using both print and digital resources The chapter on selection and evaluation of sources addresses the changing nature of reference collections and how to evaluate new types of sources Each chapter concludes with an updated list of additional readings to guide further study A new companion website will provide links to Web accessible readings and resources as well as additional scenarios for discussion and example search strategies to supplement those presented in the text

Cataloging Library Resources Marie Keen Shaw, 2017-01-26 While there are many cataloging texts very few are written specifically for library support staff This is the one and only book purposefully aligned with the new American Library Association Library Support Staff Certification LSSC competency standards for Cataloging and Classification Written in clear language by someone who teaches cataloging in a library support staff program and featuring practical examples Cataloging Library Resources An Introduction will help library support staff become effective catalogers Other books on this topic are written for professional librarians rather than support staff And although 85% of library support staff do not hold professional degrees many are expected to do the complex and technical work of catalogers This book provides many examples that support staff can use to learn how to catalog all types of library print media and digital materials using the most up to date Library of Congress standards Using this handbook as a guide readers will be able to perform the ALA LSSC cataloging and classification competencies and the new RDA FRBR and BIBFRAME standards listed below Apply and manage the appropriate processes computer technology and equipment for cataloging and classification Apply principles of Resource Description and Access RDA and the Functional Requirements for Bibliographic Records FRBR when creating cataloging records Apply principles of the Bibliographic Framework Initiative BIBFRAME and utilize the BIBFRAME model to create cataloging records Use the basic cataloging and classification tools both print and online including bibliographic utilities and format standards Understand the value of authority control and its basic principles and can identify and apply appropriate access points for personal names corporate bodies series and subjects Explain the value and advantages of cooperative or collaborative cataloging practices to enhance services Know the basics of standard metadata formats and cataloging rules to select review and edit catalog records and to generate metadata in various formats And more Guide to Technical

1979-1990 Henryk Sawoniak, 2012-02-14 No detailed description available for 1979 1990 Reference and Information Services Melissa A. Wong, Laura Saunders, 2020-05-04 This revised and updated sixth edition of Reference and Information

Services continues the book's rich tradition covering all phases of reference and information services with less emphasis on print and more emphasis on strategies and scenarios. Reference and Information Services is the go-to textbook for MSLIS and i School courses on reference services and related topics. It is also a helpful handbook for practitioners. Authors include LIS faculty and professionals who have relevant degrees in their areas and who have published extensively on their topics. The first half of the book provides an overview of reference services and techniques for service provision including the reference interview, ethics instruction, reader's advisory, and services to diverse populations including children. This part of the book establishes a foundation of knowledge on reference service and frames each topic with ethical and social justice perspectives. The second part of the book offers an overview of the information life cycle and dissemination of information followed by an in-depth examination of information sources by type including dictionaries, encyclopedias, indexes, and abstracts, as well as by broad subject areas including government statistics and data, health, and legal information. This second section introduces the tools and resources that reference professionals use to provide the services described in the first half of the text.

The Thesaurus Sandra K. Roe, Alan R. Thomas, 2013-04-15 Use this single source to uncover the origin and development of the thesaurus. The Thesaurus Review: Renaissance and Revision examines the historical development of the thesaurus and the standards employed for thesaurus construction. This book provides both the history of thesauri and tutorials on usage to increase your understanding of thesaurus creation, use, and evaluation. This reference tool offers essential information on thesauri in the digital environment including Web sites, databases, and software. For 50 years the thesaurus has been a core reference book. The Thesaurus Review: Renaissance and Revision celebrates this history and speculates on the future of vocabulary switching tools. This book will familiarize you with contemporary and emerging functions of thesauri including international and multilingual developments. The Thesaurus Review: Renaissance and Revision provides information and library professionals including indexers, abstractors, subject catalogers, classifiers, and reference librarians a historical overview of the thesaurus and its past as well as recent developments. This book also gives patrons, readers, and researchers more effective techniques in vocabulary management and offers insight on how thesauri are devised and compiled. This book addresses changing definitions, characteristics, functions, and applications of thesauri, the value of standards, evaluation, use, and review of software, and role and work of consultants during thesauri construction and maintenance. Multicultural issues that affect thesauri creation such as mapping and interoperability, education, and training. The Thesaurus Review: Renaissance and Revision also provides you with extensive bibliographies related to issues and problems in thesaurus construction and design such as developing standards in support of electronic thesauri.
