Subjective Vision The Six Victorian Women Poets:

The Subjective Vision Evelyn Alice Hanley, 1978 Masculinity in Four Victorian Epics Clinton Machann, 2016-05-06

Offering provocative readings of Tennyson's Idylls of the King Barrett Browning's Aurora Leigh Clough's Amours de Voyage and Browning's The Ring and the Book Clinton Machann brings to bear the ideas and methods of literary Darwinism to shed light on the central issue of masculinity in the Victorian epic This critical approach enables Machann to take advantage of important research in evolutionary psychology cognitive science anthropology among other scientific fields and to bring the concept of human nature into his discussions of the poems The importance of the Victorian long poem as a literary genre is reviewed in the introduction followed by transformative close readings of the poems that engage with questions of gender particularly representations of masculinity and the prevalence of male violence Machann contextualizes his reading within the poets' views on social philosophical and religious issues arguing that the impulses drives and tendencies of human nature as well as the historical and cultural context influenced the writing and thus must inform the interpretation of the Victorian epic

The Subjective Vision Evelyn Alice Hanley, 1978 Women Poets in the Victorian Era Fabienne Moine, 2016-03-09

Examining the place of nature in Victorian women's poetry Fabienne Moine explores the work of canonical and long neglected women poets to show the myriad connections between women and nature during the period At the same time she challenges essentialist discourses that assume innate affinities between women and the natural world Rather Moine shows Victorian women poets mobilised these alliances to defend common interests and express their engagement with social issues While well known poets such as Elizabeth Barrett Browning and Christina Rossetti are well represented in Moine's study she pays particular attention to lesser known writers such as Mary Howitt or Eliza Cook who were popular during their lifetimes or Edith Nesbit whose verse has received scant critical attention so far She also brings to the fore the poetry of many non professional poets Looking to their immediate cultural environments for inspiration these women reconstructed the natural world in poems that raise questions about the validity and the scope of representations of nature ultimately questioning or undermining social practices that mould and often fossilise cultural identities much debated word Books Out-of-print ,1986 Virginal Sexuality and Textuality in Victorian Literature Lloyd Davis,1993-01-01 This book examines the figure of the virgin a symbol central to many aspects of society and sexuality in nineteenth century England and its effects on the Victorian literary imagination Studying the virgin as a social sexual and literary phenomenon the volume contributes to current critical accounts of the relations among the body and language gender and discourse These essays explore the ways in which virginity is not a natural ideal but a complex cultural and literary sign The authors rethink the virginal as a textual counter example to the idealization of natural sexuality Books in Print ,1979 Gerard Manley Hopkins and the Victorian Visual World Catherine Phillips,2007-12-06 In her fascinating and beautifully illustrated book Catherine Phillips uses letters new archival material and contemporary publications to reconstruct the visual world Gerard Manley Hopkins knew between 1862 and 1889 with its illustrated journals art exhibitions Gothic architecture photographic shows and changing art criticism and to show how it was connected to the startling originality of his writing Victorian Perspectives John Clubbe,Jerome Meckier,1988-12-13 These essays focus on major figures works or themes and movements of the Victorian era They strive for fresh perspectives and aim to fill the gap in critical literature while reflecting the book s recurring concern with contexts and stratagems of presentation

Browning, Victorian Poetics and the Romantic Legacy Dr Britta Martens,2013-05-28 Taking an original approach to Robert Browning s poetics Britta Martens focuses on a corpus of relatively neglected poems in Browning s own voice in which he reflects on his poetry his self conceptualization and his place in the poetic tradition She analyzes his work in relation to Romanticism Victorian reactions to the Romantic legacy and wider nineteenth century changes in poetic taste to argue that in these poems as in his more frequently studied dramatic monologues Browning deploys varied dramatic methods of self representation often critically and ironically exposing the biases and limitations of the seemingly authoritative speaker Browning The poems thus become devices for Browning s detached evaluation of his own and of others poetics an evaluation never fully explicit but presented with elusive economy for the astute reader to interpret The confrontation between the personal authorial voice and the dramatic voice in these poems provides revealing insights into the poet s highly self conscious conflicted and sustained engagement with the Romantic tradition and the diversely challenging reader expectations that he faces in a post Romantic age As the Victorian most rigorous in his rejection of Romantic self expression Browning is a key transitional figure between the sharply antagonistic periods of Romanticism and Modernism He is also as Martens persuasively demonstrates a poet of complex contradictions and an illuminating case study for addressing the perennial issues of voice authorial authority and self reference Aestheticism and the Marriage Market in Victorian Popular Fiction Kirby-Jane Hallum,2015-10-06 Based on close readings of five Victorian novels Hallum presents an original study of the interaction between popular fiction the marriage market and the aesthetic movement She uses the texts to trace the development of aestheticism examining the differences between the authors including their approach style and gender
