Humanities Oxford 1997 and author of Masochism The art of power Praeger 1997      Doing Visual Research with Children and Young People Pat Thomson, 2009-05-07 This book explores the methodological ethical representational and theoretical issues surrounding image based research with children and young people      Developing Minds Elise Klein, 2016-10-04 Development policy makers and practitioners are becoming increasingly sophisticated in their ability to target development interventions and the psychological domain is now a specific frontier of their interventional focus This landmark study considers the problematic relationship between development and psychology tracing the deployment of psychological knowledge in the production reproduction of power relations within the context of neoliberal development policy and intervention It examines knowledge production and implementation by actors of development policy such as the World Bank and the neo colonial state and ends by examining the proposition of a critical psychology for more emancipatory forms of development The role of psychology in development studies remains a relatively unexplored area with limited scholarship available This important book aims to fill that gap by using critical psychology perspectives to explore the focus of the psychological domain of agency in development interventions It will be essential reading for students researchers and policy makers from fields including critical psychology social psychology development studies and anthropology      A

Comparative Guide to Sartrean and Deleuzian Selves in Modernist and Post-Modernist Fiction Onur Ekler, 2021-07-12 This book provides insights into the maze of know thyself through a carefully detailed comparative study of the Sartrean no self and the Deleuzian rhizomic self It is informative argumentative and rich in literary context and mainly focuses on the shift in the notion of self from Sartre's elegiac suicidal and nihilistic tone seen pervasively in modernist fiction to the celebratory Deleuzian self in postmodernist fiction To trace this shift the book presents a comparative analysis of selected novels showing that authors like Bellow and Atwood have adopted a more positive attitude toward the self similar to the Deleuzian rhizomic self while authors like Hedayat and Beckett have more reductionist decadent nihilistic views on the self like the Sartrean no self Moreover as argued in the cases of the protagonists in the selected novels this book further asserts that the Deleuzian rhizomic self might be seen as a possible alternative to help one survive in times of crisis in contrast to the nihilistic Sartrean no self      Radicalizing Democracy for the Twenty-first century Jane Mummery, 2016-11-18 While the subject of democracy has been explored by philosophers since ancient times in the last few decades democracy has been taken for granted in the West as the political norm The recognition of democracy as an empty concept in Western political discourse and the emergence of theories of radical democracy have renewed engagement in democratic theory and politics Radicalizing Democracy for the Twenty first Century explores the radicalizing movement in democratic thought and Introduces readers to the key debates in contemporary philosophical theories about democracy Confronts popular assumptions about democracy Provides a philosophical underpinning for the rise of radical democratic theories movements and politics Examines how radical democracy can respond to the challenges of the contemporary world Radicalizing

Democracy for the Twenty first Century is an important resource for students scholars and university teachers in the field of political philosophy political theory and international relations

Identity Economics Meral Uzunöz Altan,Meltem İnce Yenilmez,Oğuzhan Altınkoz,Sinem Bağçe,2024-07-08 Critics contend that identity economics overemphasizes social identities as drivers of economic activity potentially obscuring other elements including personal preferences incentives and market pressures Identity related notions are challenging to measure and quantify meaningfully and rigorously which is one of the most common criticisms Identity economics has long been debated by economic scientists and practitioners but it is still considered to be in its infancy which also draws attention to the absence of a clear consensus and solid empirical support This book fills that gap by providing an in depth analysis of the main claims made in favour of identity economics It explores the reliability of identity based explanations the difficulties with measurement and quantification concerns about overgeneralization and essentialism the function of economic institutions policy implications a lack of agreement and empirical evidence and considerations of intersectionality and multidimensionality The book considers three interrelated aims Firstly it familiarizes readers with the concept of Identity Economics Secondly and essentially it persuades a larger audience of the relevance and creativity of this sector and thirdly it advocates for the applicability of the approach to the field of knowledge The focus of the examination centres around these three objectives Few would argue that identity impacts our decisions but given that solid theory is predicated on good abstraction the real question is whether we lose anything by excluding identity from the theory The book skilfully weaves together the literature from several disciplines including regional gender labour social areas of studies thus academics students and researchers in these fields will find the individual contributions useful for their respective areas of study

MultiMedia Anne Cranny-Francis,2005-06-07 This book provides an accessible introduction to the meaning making practices of multimedia It will help students by providing them with a framework with which to analyse texts and provides some useful suggestions for further investigation of the topic Learning Media and Technology This book provides an accessible and much needed introduction to the diversity of multimedia appearing and proliferating in our society The phenomenal growth of multimedia has given rise to debates on the role of technology the skills required for their production and use and the ethics and politics involved in these new embodied interactions Anne Cranny Francis develops a clear framework for those seeking to understand the complex world of multimedia and its impact on everyday life

Gender The Key Concepts unweaves the relationships between different aspects of the field defined as gender studies and is essential for all those studying gender in interdisciplinary contexts as undergraduates postgraduates and beyond Doing Action Research In Early Childhood Studies: A Step-By-Step Guide Mac Naughton, Glenda, Hughes, Patrick, 2008-09-01 Using varied illustrations and case studies of contemporary projects in diverse early childhood contexts the book addresses specific issues and challenges that you might face when conducting action research in such settings Young Chinese in Urban

China Alex Cockain, 2012-08-21 This book examines the condition of being a young person in China and the way in which changes in various dimensions of urban life have affected Chinese youths quests to understand themselves The author examines social factors such as changes in the physical construction of urban neighbourhoods changes in family life including reduced family size increasing rates of divorce and increased physical mobility of the family unit school life and mounting pressure to perform well in examinations and be a good student access to foreign and domestic media as well as access to the internet Drawing on the fields of social and cultural anthropology Alex Cockain shows that the process of self understanding in a changing spatial social and cultural world involves ongoing disjointed efforts to achieve a sense of security and belonging on the one hand and a degree of increased autonomy in their relationships with for example parents and teachers on the other This book will appeal to anyone interested in Chinese Society Social and Cultural Anthropology Asian Anthropology and Youth Studies Chinese Cities as Pedagogy Jiawen Han, Xianwen Kuang, Guanghui Ding, 2025-03-17 The book introduces innovative teaching practices and methods with a critical focus on understanding and interpreting Chinese cities as a rich context It highlights the advantages of interdisciplinary teaching in creating new learning experiences for students Additionally the book provides thorough mapping of the applied methods across disciplines and offers deeper reflections on the emerging pedagogy Friendship, Love, and Hip Hop Katie Rose

Hejtmanek, 2015-10-14 Friendship Love and Hip Hop investigates how young Black men live and change inside a mental institution in contemporary America While the youth in Hejtmanek's study face the rigidity of institutionalized life they also productively maneuver through what the author analyzes as the give friendship love and hip hop in the system

Posthuman Spiritualities in Contemporary Performance Silvia Battista, 2018-06-19 This book provides an interpretative analysis of the notion of spirituality through the lens of contemporary performance and posthuman theories The book examines five performance artworks The Artist is Present 2010 by Marina Abramovi The Deer Shelter Skyscape 2007 by James Turrell CAT 1998 by Ansuman Biswas Journey to the Lower World by Marcus Coates 2004 and the work with pollen by Wolfgang Laib Through the analysis of these works the notion of spirituality is grounded in materiality and embodiment allowing the conceptual juxtaposition of spirit and matter to introduce the paradoxical as the guiding thread of the narrative of the book Here the human is interrogated and negotiated with within a plurality of other living organisms intangible existences and micro and macrocosmic ecologies Silence meditation shamanic journeys reciprocal gazing restraint and contemplation are analyzed as technologies used to manipulate perception and adventure into the multilayered condition of matter     The ^AOxford Handbook of Ethics at the End of Life Stuart J. Youngner, Robert M. Arnold, 2016-09-13 This handbook explores the topic of death and dying from the late twentieth to the early twenty first centuries with particular emphasis on the United States The chapters examine a range of ethical topics related to death dying palliative care and decision making at the end of life     Progressive Psychoanalysis as a Social Justice Movement Scott

Graybow, 2017-01-06 This edited volume challenges our negative and incorrect definitions of psychoanalysis by focusing on the notion that psychoanalysis once was and can once again be a movement for social justice Taking the work of Erich Fromm as a guide the chapters in this volume highlight psychoanalysis social justice origins while illustrating how psychoanalysis in both an interpretive role and as a clinical tool can improve our understanding of contemporary social problems and address the effects of those problems within the clinical setting     The Ethics of Nonfiction George H.

Jensen, 2023-10-23 This book explores issues of identity ethics and epistemology that arise around the writing and reception of creative nonfiction It examines a range of different nonfiction forms including the personal essay and memoir and ethical questions that arise in relation to them such as truth claims the confessional mode counter narratives Drawing on the ideas of Bakhtin Nietzsche and Foucault examples from creative non fiction writers such as Strayed and Knausgaard and the founding principles of the originators of the genre Seneca Augustine and Montaigne George Jensen argues that a limited conception of nonfiction leads to a limited view of its ethics Writing about the truth in an authentic way is more important than ever before and essential to this is the creation of the ethical subject     Dickens and the Bible Jennifer

Gribble, 2020-12-10 At a time when biblical authority was under challenge from the Higher Criticism and evolutionary science what providence meant was the most keenly contested of questions This book takes up the controversial subject of Dickens and religion and offers a significant contribution to the interdisciplinary area of religion and literature In a close study of major novels it argues that networks of biblical allusion reveal the Judeo Christian grand narrative as key to his development as a writer and as the ontological ground on which he stands to appeal to the conscience of a Christian people Engaging the biblical narrative in dialogue with other contemporary narratives that concern themselves with origins destinations and hermeneutic decipherments the inimitable Dickens affirms the Bible s still active role in popular culture The providential thinking of two twentieth century theorists Bakhtin and Ricoeur sheds light on an exploration of Dickens s narrative theology

Writing as Poaching Robert A. Folger, 2011-09-20 Colonial Spanish bureaucracy produced masses of autobiographical texts relaciones de m ritos and servicios which forced invited individuals to present themselves as perfect subjects of the King in order to be rewarded Bureaucracy produced the officials of the colonial regime and at the same time it provided individuals with the possibility of exploring the literary potential of writing one s curriculum vitae This book helps contextualize a body of often used yet understudied historic sources it indicates that the fabric of early modern society was held together by a pervasive economy of mercedes rewards and it shows that the tension between state induced production of autobiographical documents and the individual s endeavor to outsmart this system is at the origin of modern forms of literature

The Moral Status of Technical Artefacts Peter Kroes, Peter-Paul Verbeek, 2014-01-08 This book considers the question to what extent does it make sense to qualify technical artefacts as moral entities The authors contributions trace recent proposals and topics including instrumental and non instrumental values of artefacts agency and artefactual agency values in and around technologies and the moral significance of technology The editors introduction explains that as agents rather than simply passive instruments technical artefacts may actively influence their users changing the way they perceive the world the way they act in the world and the way they interact with each other This volume features the work of various experts from around the world representing a variety of positions on the topic Contributions explore the contested discourse on agency in humans and artefacts defend the Value Neutrality Thesis by arguing that technological artefacts do not contain have or exhibit values or argue that moral agency involves both human and non human elements The book also investigates technological fields that are subject to negative moral valuations due to the harmful effects of some of their products It includes an analysis of some difficulties arising in Artificial Intelligence and an exploration of values in Chemistry and in Engineering The Moral Status of Technical Artefacts is an advanced exploration of the various dimensions of the relations between technology and morality
