Subversive Pleasures Bakhtin Cultural Criticism And Film Parallax Re:

Subversive Pleasures Robert Stam, 1989 Creatively extends Bakhtin's ideas into such hitherto neglected spheres as the mass media and film theory An imaginative and productive addition to the burgeoning literature on Mikhail Bakhtin Theory Culture and Society House Full Lakshmi Srinivas, 2016-08-31 Film studies have traditionally focused on texts meanings techniques and appreciation criticism Now we have in House Full an ethnography of movie going and movie goers in India of all places Bangalore where the focus has been shifted away from the movie as product to the study of patterns of social behavior in production marketing and consumption of film India is a place of surprises and that goes for movie theatres and film patronage House Full presents a raucous multi ethnic multi class tableau You would guess the audience is Srinivas's focus and that is accurate because in India they have a role in choosing buying tickets for and sitting through and reacting to movies participating loudly and interactively that differs from what North Americans are used to Srinivas's interviews with audience members across ethnic and class lines distributors movie theater managers and also the actors directors writers and other production crew make for fascinating comparisons to what we in the west are used to The interactional character of her study places it firmly in the tradition of the Chicago School of sociology Lest we forget meanwhile India is the largest producer of feature films worldwide with the largest market in terms of films produced and audiences reached selling 4 billion tickets annually Bombay Hustle Debashree Mukherjee, 2020-09-22 From starry eyed fans with dreams of fame to cotton entrepreneurs turned movie moguls the Bombay film industry has historically energized a range of practices and practitioners playing a crucial and compelling role in the life of modern India Bombay Hustle presents an ambitious history of Indian cinema as a history of material practice bringing new insights to studies of media modernity and the late colonial city Drawing on original archival research and an innovative transdisciplinary approach Debashree Mukherjee offers a panoramic portrait of the consolidation of the Bombay film industry during the talkie transition of the 1920s 1940s In the decades leading up to independence in 1947 Bombay became synonymous with marketplace thrills industrial strikes and modernist experimentation Its burgeoning film industry embodied Bombay's spirit of hustle gathering together and spewing out the many different energies and emotions that characterized the city Bombay Hustle examines diverse sites of film production finance pre production paperwork casting screenwriting acting stunts to show how speculative excitement jostled against desires for scientific management in an industry premised on the struggle between contingency and control Mukherjee develops the concept of a cine ecology in order to examine the bodies technologies and environments that collectively shaped the production and circulation of cinematic meaning in this time The book thus brings into view a range of marginalized film workers their labor and experiences forgotten film studios their technical practices and aesthetic visions and overlooked connections among media practices geographical particularities and historical exigencies Queer Art Camp Superstar Ricardo E. Zulueta, 2018-03-01 Hailed as the most consequential artist to have emerged since the nineteen eighties American artist and filmmaker Ryan Trecartin has received numerous accolades for his kaleidoscopic multilayered movies and multimedia installations. However, there exists to date no comprehensive study of this prolific artist's work. Queer Art Camp Superstar compensates for this absence of sustained critical analysis of Trecartin's work by looking closely at a selection of his most significant movies in order to discern the artist's artistic genealogy, evolving aesthetics, radical approach to digital and Internet culture, and impact on contemporary art film and media. Examining Trecartin's substantial body of work spanning from his early pre-YouTube era series Early Baggage (2001–2003) to Temple Time (2016), Ricardo E. Zulueta adheres to a faithful chronological order, thus inviting readers to witness the ways thematic and formal concerns have evolved from Trecartin's earliest movies to his more recent multimedia cinematic installations. Through precisely chosen screen captures extracted directly from the movies, Zulueta demonstrates the serious attention paid to camera angles, mise en scène, and shot transitions, thus revealing and reflecting on the concepts that underwrite and are underwritten in these narratives. Giving careful attention to Trecartin's network of layered references to the grotesque and abject, carnivalesque and ludic, and camp imagery, Zulueta illustrates and explains how the artist takes on reality television, technology, fashion, consumption, and cyberspace.

This book explores how Bakhtin's ideas can illuminate the compelling but uneasy fusion of Shakespeare and cinema. With a wide variety of tones, languages, cultural orientations, and thematic concerns, film directors have updated, translated, transposed, fragmented, parodied, and geographically re-situated Shakespeare. Keith Harrison illustrates how Bakhtin's interlinked writings in various fields can fruitfully be applied to an understanding of how the ongoing responsiveness of filmmakers to Shakespeare's historically remote words can shape self-expressive acts of co-authoring in another medium. Through the use of such Bakhtinian concepts as the chronotope, heteroglossia, the carnivalesque, and polyphony, Harrison details how filmmakers faithful to their specific cultures genders geographies and historical moments dialogically locate their particularity through Shakespeare s presence
