Ferdig, Timothy V. Rasinski, 2014-07-08 Sharpen your students communication skills while integrating digital tools into writing instruction. Loaded with techniques for helping students brainstorm, plan and organize their writing, this handbook troubleshoots issues students face when writing in a printed versus digital context and teaches them how to read in multiple mediums. You'll find tips for sharing writing, getting interactive feedback, incorporating grammar instruction and more. Congressional Record United States. Congress, 1997 Resources in Education, 2001-04

Engaging Young Readers Linda Baker, Mariam Jean Dreher, John T. Guthrie, 2000-03-07 This volume demonstrates how promoting children's engagement with reading can greatly enhance reading achievement. From leading literacy researchers and educators, the book illuminates what a child needs to become an engaged reader and presents a set of instructional principles designed to facilitate this goal. Helping teachers offer a coordinated emphasis on competence and motivation in reading instruction, chapters blend research evidence with practical recommendations. Topics covered include ways to provide children with a good foundation at the word level, help if they are in trouble, ample time and materials for reading opportunities to share in a community of learners, instruction that is coherent, motivating and responsive to each child's strengths and weaknesses, school-wide coordination of instruction and continuities between home and school. The Reading Crisis Jeanne Sternlicht Chall, Vicki A. Jacobs, Luke E. Baldwin, 1990 Children from low income backgrounds often experience fourth year slump despite the fact that their cognitive abilities may be consistent with the norm. This book examines the causes of this disparity and outlines an active role for the schools in remedying weaknesses in literacy development. Subject Catalog Library of Congress, 1980-07 Sharing Our Success George Taylor Fulford, 2007

Reducing the persistent achievement gap between Aboriginal students and their peers is recognized as a national priority. This report springs from a study of schools that despite extraordinary challenges are producing tangible progress for Aboriginal learners. The research conducted in 2006 was designed to identify practices that appear to contribute to their success. The Administration and Supervision of Reading Programs Shelley B. Wepner, Joan T. Feeley, Dorothy S. Strickland, 2002. Now in its Third Edition this popular textbook offers valuable information about administering effective reading programs from the pre elementary through the college level. All chapters have been revised to include the most current information trends and research and a new chapter has been added on college university reading programs.

Library of Congress Catalog Library of Congress, 1980-07 Success for All Yanyu Zhou, 2008-11-01. This book provides a detailed account of an educational experiment in a middle school in Shanghai, China. The school called Zhabei No. 8 Middle School hereafter No. 8 School is located in a run-down lower working class district. Since the mid 1980s the school has experimented on an educational reform program called success education aiming to help those at-risk students to be successful in school. This book illustrates how this educational experiment has been carried out and to identify experiences that could be learned by the international educational community. The book analyzes the critical role played by Principal Liu Jinghai and particular attention is paid to the strategies adopted by the school to help enhance students' self-esteem through integrating love and care throughout the school's curriculum and activities. The pivotal roles played by teachers called class directors are meticulously studied and efforts the school has made to collaborate with parents and the local community are examined. An ethnographic approach was used to gather data in this study. A combination of interviews, participant observation and document analysis was applied to arrive at a systematic and complex understanding of this educational endeavor in China.

Handbook of Research on Teaching the English Language Arts Diane Lapp, Douglas Fisher, 2011-01-18. Now in its third edition the Handbook of Research on Teaching the English Language Arts sponsored by the International Reading Association and the National Council of Teachers of English offers an integrated perspective on the teaching of the English language arts and a comprehensive overview of research in the field. Prominent scholars, researchers and professional leaders provide historical and theoretical perspectives about teaching the language arts, focus on bodies of research that influence decision making within the teaching of the language arts, explore the environments for language arts teaching, reflect on methods and materials for instruction. Reflecting important recent developments in the field, the Third Edition is restructured, updated and includes many new contributors. More emphasis is given in this edition to the learner, multiple texts, learning and sharing one's knowledge. A Companion Website new for this edition provides PowerPoint slides highlighting the main points of each chapter. Cases of Successful Literacy Teachers Jan Lacina, Cecilia Silva, 2010-02-09. Cases of Successful Literacy Teachers is a supplemental text that can be used in a variety of literacy courses. The case studies focus on teachers and schools from a multitude of communities including Blue Ribbon Schools and Reading First Schools and on National Board Certified teachers The vignettes and cases include students from diverse racial linguistic and socioeconomic backgrounds located in urban rural and suburban settings
