Success Prone Christians:

Successful Christianity Dr. Roger Price, 2008-05-23 The world is full of religions espousing man's ideas of how to get to their particular gods or goddesses and to gain their favor. These people seem to be in a continuous state of failure. Successful Christianity explores the Christian faith in which there are those also who struggle to be on top of things in life. This book gives multiple avenues of overcoming what is seen by some as a person's fate in life. From failures in finances to poor health, I point out that there has to be a change in our thinking if we are to ever be successful in our walk with the Lord. Proposing that God wants us to be successful in life, Scripture is called upon to point out the various avenues in which we please God by our faith and actions that back up that faith which will bring success. Our focus is on a growing relationship with our Lord and His Word. I am convinced this is the avenue of success for the Christian. That is my experience and I pray you find it true also.

Keys For Living a Solid Successful Christian Life Robbie L. Rogers, 2024-06-30 A straight forward simple life changing easy to read common sense look at the complexity of today's difficulties according to and surrounding God's Word the Bible and Christianity. Did God simply hit the start button on creation and walk away like it sometimes feels? He is almost always active with us daily hourly minute by minute. Life is beautiful if we allow it to be and we are blessed beyond measure. Your success depends on what you truly believe what drives your existence. If you work hard enough at what your heart's desire is about it will happen especially if you are working at something in God's name and in His timing. Remember God's plans for you existed before you were born. So what do you spend your time on? Ask God for help in changing the part of you that He dislikes those things that are negative in nature learn to love yourself. Beware of distractions piddling deviations from your purposes mostly they are wrong for you to do at that time. However sometimes fires do occur and must be put out. The distractions I am alluding to come from fragmented thoughts that lead you to deviate from your plan you end up in a room and don't even remember why you are there. If something pops up that requires your attention write it down on your to do list. Everyone should have such a list but often they also are simply a distraction list that keeps you from what you ought to be doing. People within a congregation those on the edge or outside of Christianity and those trying to make some sense out of their career and life experiences in these difficult times while hanging on to Christian principles they believe in need this book. Millions of Christians and non Christians alike need more information and guidance for clarity in a confusing world that often conflicts with one's normal Christian values. This book helps define how we can keep a firm grasp on what we believe and apply those principles with a new sense of realization in our life and career. It is in that mode that it was developed.

Creating a Successful Christian Marriage Cleveland McDonald, Philip McDonald, 2008-04-01 This classic text written by a father and son team looks at the nuclear family as a social institution and provides guidance for interaction and adjustment during dating engagement and early marriage. The authors treat such practical matters as communicating working through interpersonal differences and growing in relationships within the family. They also discuss the impact of cultural expectations.

on family patterns and define ideal family roles developed in Scripture Other topics covered include parenting extended family relationships finances and nontraditional families Now available in paperback Michigan Christian Advocate ,1923 The British and Foreign Evangelical Review and Quarterly Record of Christian Literature ,1856 The Christian treasury (and missionary review). ,1853 The Christian Observer ,1831 The Silent Killers of the Faith Stephen Crosby,2005 Like poor driving legalism is the other guy s problem the idiot is always in the other car Crosby delivers a powerful punch in this expose on legalism as he shows that is a problem for all of us It is a silent killer and the author seeks to expose all of its treacherous tentacles Legal and performance based religion is the most prevalent unrecognized and deleterious malady affecting the individual believer and the Church universal The Christian Library, Second Series ,1851

The Congregationalist and Christian World ,1907 Successful Keys to the Marriage Journey Deborah Roses Isaac M.Div. D.Min.,2024-06-12 Successful Keys to the Marriage Journey is meant for real people in real marriages trying to navigate real struggles Deborah Roses Isaac who has enjoyed and endured more than fifty seven years of marriage with the very same person explores how to be a better spouse and how to grow better instead of growing bitter She draws on wisdom from the Bible to answer questions such as How can you resist the temptations Satan brings to you How can ambition become a stumbling block to you and your family Why is it so important to avoid flirting with others What are the key characteristics of a successful marriage The author also observes that couples who are determined to stay together without settling for mediocrity work through dissatisfaction This means figuring out how to get acquainted with each other on a deeper level as well as being honest and transparent about who you really are With lots of work and by coming together with Him you ll enjoy a marriage that stands the test of time The Christian observer [afterw.] The Christian observer and advocate ,1806 Indigenous Responses to Western Christianity Steven Kaplan,1995 For over five hundred years since the great age of exploration Western Christians have visited traded with conquered and colonized large parts of the non Western world In virtually every case this contact has been accompanied by an attempt to spread Christianity This volume explores the manner in which Western missionary Christianity has been shaped and transformed through contact with the peoples of Peru Mexico Africa India Sri Lanka Thailand China and Japan Indigenous Responses to Western Christianity demonstrates how local populations who initially encountered Christianity as a mixture of religion culture politics ethics and technology selected those elements they felt suited their needs The conversion of the local population the volume shows was usually accompanied by a significant indigenization of Christianity Through the detailed examination and comparison of events in a range of countries and cultures this book points provides a deeper understanding of mission history and the dynamics of Christianity s expansion The encounter with Western Christianity is vital to the history of contact between Western and non Western civilizations Western Christians have visited traded with conquered and colonized large parts of the non Western world for over five hundred years and their migration has almost always been accompanied by an attempt to create new Christians in new lands Just as indigenous people have been converted however so too has Christianity become variously indigenized Local populations initially encounter a Christian package of religion culture politics ethics and technology This volume illustrates the ways in which peoples have selected elements of this package to suit their specific needs and so explores the myriad transformations missionary Christianity has undergone through contact with the peoples of Peru Mexico Africa India Sri Lanka Thailand China and Japan Contributing are Erik Cohen University of Jerusalem Yochanan Bar Yafe Szeminski John F Howes D Dennis Hudson Daniel H Bays University of Kansas and Eric Van Young University of California San Diego The chapters are linked by their attempt to overcome conventional regional and disciplinary barriers in order to achieve a deeper understanding of mission history and the dynamics of the expansion of Christianity A remarkable work this volume will pave the way for entirely new approaches to a particularly complex and demanding subject

Theology explained and defended, sermons; with a memoir [by S. E. Dwight] of the life of the author Timothy Dwight, 1831 The Church Monthly , 1862 Christian Union Herald , 1903 The beautiful life of Christ and other studies George B. Johnson, 1891 Christ Setting His Face Towards Jerusalem. Being Lectures, Expository and Practical, on the Gospel Narrative [according to St. Luke] Immediately Subsequent to the Close of His Galilean Ministry William Wilson (Minister of St. Paul's Free Church, Dundee.), 1878 Authentic Chinese Christianity Koen De Ridder, 2001 This volume intends to tackle two problems The first is the historical framework of imperialism until now widely applied by Western and Chinese scholars as an approach to the Christian evangelization movement in China The theological aspect of the missionary action is seldom taken into account nor is religion treated as an authentic human experience In this volume two authors try to place the position of the Christian mission in its broader context Scott Somers reflects on the changing image of the Japanese occupation in Taiwan based on protestant missionary sources Koen De Ridder discusses the early diplomatic contacts between China and Belgium and the position of the Belgian missionaries A second problem dealt with is that of the native Christians While Jessie Lutz attempts to sketch a profile of the Chinese Protestant evangelizers Jean Paul Wiest focuses his attention on the Roman Catholics among the Chinese Hakka minority Gary Tiedemann explains the material spiritual and political incentives for conversion among the inhabitants of North China paying special attention to the socio political profile of the converts In the contribution of Ann Heylen we return to Taiwan where we are offered a better understanding of the Protestant contribution to the study of the Min language Finally Karel Steenbrink describes the changing religious affiliation of assimilated Chinese in Indonesia during the period 1900 1942 Christian Advocate , 1909
