Introduction by Robert E Buswell Jr Eastern Philosophy: Key Readings Oliver Leaman, 2002-01-04 Through key readings from primary and secondary sources this book communicates at first hand the principal features of a remarkable range of Eastern thought from Buddhism Confucianism and Hinduism to Islam Shinto and Zoroastrianism Passages from key texts guide the reader through over ninety major terms from abhidharma to Zen Material is drawn not only from such cornerstone texts as the Bhagavad gita and the Lao tzu but also from modern writings on Eastern philosophy and religion The Middle Kingdom and the Dharma Wheel, 2016-06-15 The matter of sa gha state relations is of central importance to both the political and the religious history of China The volume The Middle Kingdom and the Dharma Wheel brings together for the first time articles relating to this field covering a time span from the early Tang until the Qing dynasty In order to portray also the remarkable thematic diversity of the field each of the articles not only refers to a different time but also discusses a different aspect of the subject Contributors include Chris Atwood Chen Jinhua Max Deeg Barend ter Haar Thomas J lch Albert Welter and Zhang Dewei The Scriptures of Won Buddhism Bongkil Chung, 2003-01-31 Won Buddhism one of the major religions of modern Korea was established in 1916 by Pak Chung bin 1891 1943 later known as Sot aesan In 1943 Sot aesan published a collection of Buddhist writings the Correct Canon of Buddhism Pulgyo chongjon which included the doctrine of his new order Four years later the second patriarch Chongsan 1900 1962 had the order compile a new canon which was published in 1962 This work translated here as The Scriptures of Won Buddhism Wonbulgyo kyojon consists of the Canon a redaction of the first part of the Pulgyo chongjon and the analects and chronicle of the founder known as the Scripture of Sot aesan The present translation incorporates critical tenets from the 1943 Canon that were altered in the redaction process and offers persuasive arguments for their re inclusion Reconstructing the Confucian Dao Joseph A. Adler, 2014-03-27 Zhu Xi the twelfth century architect of the neo Confucian canon declared Zhou Dunyi to be the first true sage since Mencius This was controversial as many of Zhu Xi s contemporaries were critical of Zhou Dunyi s Daoist leanings and other figures had clearly been more significant to the Song dynasty Confucian resurgence Why was Zhou Dunyi accorded such importance Joseph A Adler finds that the earlier thinker provided an underpinning for Zhu Xi s religious practice Zhou Dunyi s theory of the interpenetration of activity and stillness allowed Zhu Xi to proclaim that his own theory of mental and spiritual cultivation mirrored the fundamental principle immanent in the natural world This book revives Zhu Xi as a religious thinker challenging longstanding characterizations of him Readers will appreciate the inclusion of complete translations of Zhou Dunyi s major texts Zhu Xi s published commentaries and other primary source material Like Cats and Dogs Steven Heine, 2014 Steven Heine offers a compelling examination of the Mu Koan widely considered to be the single best known and most widely circulated and transmitted koan record of the Zen school of Buddhism The Substance of Fiction Sophie Volpp, 2022-06-28 Do the portrayals of objects in literary texts represent historical evidence about the material culture of the past Or are things in books more than things in the world Sophie Volpp considers fictional objects of the late Ming and Qing that defy being read as illustrative of historical things Instead she argues fictional objects are often signs of fictionality themselves calling attention to the nature of the relationship between literature and materiality Volpp examines a series of objects a robe a box and a shell a telescope a plate glass mirror and a painting drawn from the canonical works frequently mined for information about late imperial material culture including the novels The Plum in the Golden Vase and The Story of the Stone as well as the short fiction of Feng Menglong Ling Mengchu and Li Yu She argues that although fictional objects invite readers to think of them as illustrative in fact inconsistent and discontinuous representation disconnects the literary object from potential historical analogues The historical resonances of literary objects illuminate the rhetorical strategies of individual works of fiction and more broadly conceptions of fictionality in the Ming and Qing Rather than offering a transparent lens on the past fictional objects train the reader to be aware of the fallibility of perception A deeply insightful analysis of late Ming and Qing texts and reading practices The Substance of Fiction has important implications for Chinese literary studies history and art history as well as the material turn in the humanities

A Brief History of Chinese Buddhism and Buddhist Thought Xiuping Hong, 2024-06-17 This book provides a comprehensive but concise introduction to Chinese Buddhism and the study of Buddhism in China their Indic roots their Sinicization the development and philosophies of the three central lineages the natural exchange between Buddhist cultures and schools of thought the foundations of Buddhist studies in China and the chief schools and sects in Chinese Buddhism as well as their characteristics and ethos

Historical Dictionary of Chan Buddhism Youru Wang, 2017-06-27 The popular name for Chan Buddhism in the West is Zen Buddhism as it was Japanese scholars who first introduced Chan Buddhism to the West with this translation Indeed chan is a shortened form of the Chinese word channa rendered from the Sanskrit word dhyana which denotes practices of the concentration of the mind through meditation or contemplation Although rooted in the Indian tradition of yoga which aims at the unification of the individual with the divine meditative concentration became integrated into the Buddhist path to enlightenment as one of the three learnings sanxue of Buddhism Early Buddhist or the so called Hinayana Buddhist scriptures include the teachings on four stages of meditation four divine abodes four formless meditations the tranquility samatha and insight vipassana meditations and so on Early Buddhist communities commonly practiced these meditations along with the moral disciplines and the study of the scriptures and doctrines Mahayana Buddhism in India and East Asia continued the practice of meditation as one of the six perfections or virtues of the bodhisattva path In this general context some eminent monks might have composed scriptures treatises for the training of meditation or have become more famed with meditation However the school of Chan is more than just a group of meditation practitioners As one of the Chinese Buddhist schools it involves its own ideology its own community and its own genealogical history serving to establish its own identity The Historical Dictionary of Chan Buddhism contains a chronology an introduction and an extensive bibliography The dictionary section has over 400 cross referenced entries on important personalities schools texts vocabularies doctrines rituals temples events and other practices This book is an excellent resource for students researchers and anyone wanting to know more about Chan Buddhism Chinese and Tibetan Esoteric Buddhism ,2017-03-27 Bringing together leading authorities in the fields of Chinese and Tibetan Studies alike Chinese and Tibetan Esoteric Buddhism engages cutting edge research on the fertile tradition of Esoteric Buddhism also known as Tantric Buddhism This state of the art volume unfolds the sweeping impact of esoteric Buddhism on Tibetan and Chinese cultures and the movement's role in forging distinct political ethnical and religious identities across Asia at large Deciphering the oftentimes bewildering richness of esoteric Buddhism this broadly conceived work exposes the common ground it shares with other Buddhist schools as well as its intersection with non Buddhist faiths As such the book is a major contribution to the study of Asian religions and cultures Contributors are Yael Bentor Ester Bianchi Megan Bryson Jacob P Dalton Hou Chong Hou Haoran Eran Laish Li Ling

 Yang Fuxue and Zhang Haijuan Monastic Education in Korea Uri Kaplan,2020-06-30 What do Buddhist monks learn about Buddhism Which part of their enormous canonical and non canonical literature do they choose to focus on as the required curriculum in their training and what do they elect to leave out The cultural depository of Buddhism includes some four thousand canonical texts hundreds of other historical works modern textbooks oral traditions and more recently an increasingly growing body of online material The sheer diversity of this mass of information makes the pedagogical choices of monastics worthy of close study Monastic Education in Korea is essentially a biography of the Korean Buddhist monastic curriculum over the past five centuries Based on extensive ethnographic work and archival research in Korean monasteries it illustrates how a particular premodern syllabus was reimaged in the twentieth century to become the sole national Korean monastic pedagogical program only to be criticized and completely restructured in recent years Through a detailed analysis of these modifications the work demonstrates how Korean Buddhist reformers today tend to imitate the educational practices and canonize the textual totems of the contemporary international discipline of Buddhist studies and how by doing so they ultimately transform the local Korean tradition from a particular brand of Chinese centered scholastic Chan into the inclusive pluralistic Indian focused Buddhism common in English language introductions to the religion The book further examines the proliferation of diverse graduate schools for the sangha as well as the creation of a novel examination system for all monastics It reveals some of the realities of operating large monastic organizations in contemporary Asia and portrays a living vibrant Buddhist community that is constantly negotiating with modern values and reformulating its core orthodoxies Gendering Chinese Religion Jinhua Jia,Xiaofei Kang,Ping Yao,2014-07-30 Gendering Chinese Religion marks the emergence of a subfield on women gender and religion in China studies Ranging from the medieval period to the present day this volume departs from the conventional and often male centered categorization of Chinese religions into Confucianism

Buddhism Daoism and popular religion It makes two compelling arguments First Chinese women have deployed specific religious ideas and rituals to empower themselves in various social contexts Second gendered perceptions and representations of Chinese religions have been indispensable to the historical and contemporary construction of social and political power The contributors use innovative ways of discovering and applying a rich variety of sources many previously ignored by scholars While each of the chapters in this interdisciplinary work represents a distinct perspective together they form a coherent dialogue about the historical importance intellectual possibilities and methodological protocols of this new subfield

The Aesthetics of Qiyun and Genius Xiaoyan Hu, 2021-08-10 In The Aesthetics of Qiyun and Genius Spirit Consonance in Chinese Landscape Painting and Some Kantian Echoes Xiaoyan Hu provides an interpretation of the notion of qiyun or spirit consonance in Chinese painting and considers why creating a painting especially a landscape painting replete with qiyun is regarded as an art of genius where genius is an innate mental talent Through a comparison of the role of this innate mental disposition in the aesthetics of qiyun and Kant's account of artistic genius the book addresses an important feature of the Chinese aesthetic tradition one that evades the aesthetic universality assumed by a Kantian lens Drawing on the views of influential sixth to fourteenth century theorists and art historians and connoisseurs the first part explains and discusses qiyun and its conceptual development from a notion mainly applied to figure painting to one that also plays an enduring role in the aesthetics of landscape painting In the light of Kant's account of genius the second part examines a range of issues regarding the role of the mind in creating a painting replete with qiyun and the impossibility of teaching qiyun Through this comparison with Kant Hu demystifies the uniqueness of qiyun aesthetics and also illuminates some limitations in Kant's aesthetics The publication of this work was supported by the Fundamental Research Funds for the Central Universities project no 3213042202A1

Early Chinese Mysticism Livia Kohn, 2020-10-06 Did Chinese mysticism vanish after its first appearance in ancient Taoist philosophy to surface only after a thousand years had passed when the Chinese had adapted Buddhism to their own culture This first integrated survey of the mystical dimension of Taoism disputes the commonly accepted idea of such a hiatus Covering the period from the Daode jing to the end of the Tang Livia Kohn reveals an often misunderstood Chinese mystical tradition that continued through the ages Influenced by but ultimately independent of Buddhism it took forms more various than the quietistic withdrawal of Laozi or the sudden enlightenment of the Chan Buddhists On the basis of a new theoretical evaluation of mysticism this study analyzes the relationship between philosophical and religious Taoism and between Buddhism and the native Chinese tradition Kohn shows how the quietistic and socially oriented Daode jing was combined with the ecstatic and individualistic mysticism of the Zhuangzi with immortality beliefs and practices and with Buddhist insight meditation mind analysis and doctrines of karma and retribution She goes on to demonstrate that Chinese mysticism a complex synthesis by the late Six Dynasties reached its zenith in the Tang laying the foundations for later developments in the Song traditions of Inner Alchemy Chan Buddhism and Neo

Confucianism Buddhist Hermeneutics Donald S. Lopez, 1993 Given its vast literature and its practice of teaching what is appropriate for a particular disciple the Buddhist tradition has long had to wrestle with the question of which of his many scriptures represented the Buddha's highest view In response to that problem Buddhist commentators developed sophisticated systems of interpretation Buddhist hermeneutics The present volume of essays by leading Western Buddhologists surveys the rich variety of strategies employed by Buddhist thinkers of India Tibet China and Japan to interpret their sacred texts Chinese Language, Thought, and Culture P. J. Ivanhoe, 1996 This collection of essays by leading sinologists historians and philosophers both challenges and extends the work of David Nivison whose contributions range across moral philosophy religious thought intellectual history and Chinese language Nivison himself replies to each essay Performing the Visual Sarah Elizabeth Fraser, 2004 This book provides an insightful new study drawn from the largely unpublished Buddhist paintings at Dunhuang of medieval Chinese wall painting workshop production and artistic performance in theory and practice Dōgen and the Kōan Tradition Steven Heine, 1994-01-01 This book has three major goals in critically examining the historical and philosophical relation between the writings of Dōgen and the Zen koan tradition First it introduces and evaluates recent Japanese scholarship concerning Dōgen's two Shōbōgenzō texts the Japanese Kana collection of ninety-two fascicles on Buddhist topics and the Chinese Mana collection of three hundred koan cases also known as the Shōbōgenzō Sanbyakusoku Second it develops a new methodology for clarifying the development of the koan tradition and the relation between intellectual history and multifarious interpretations of koan cases based on postmodern literary criticism Third the book's emphasis on a literary critical methodology challenges the conventional reading of koans stressing the role of psychological impasse culminating in silence
