The Aesthetics Of Architecture Princeton Essays On The Arts Vol 8:

The Ethical Architect Tom Spector, 2012-04-17 Many believe that the moral mission of architecture has been in serious decline for the last 25 years In this important new book Tom Spector points out the dilemmas of architectural practice and offers a theoretical and practical basis for an examination and transformation of the quandaries the profession now faces What makes a good building or a good architect Are there limits to an architect's ethical or legal responsibilities in a building process where architecture plays an increasingly smaller role Is preservation a moral imperative What happens when building codes and ethical responsibilities are in conflict In The Ethical Architect Spector investigates the moral underpinnings and implications of leading architectural theories subjecting them to the analytical techniques of moral philosophy His conclusions provide a road map to help architects make the right decision in the difficult tradeoffs that confront designers on a daily basis Spector estimates that more than 100 000 decisions go into the design of an average sized building The Ethical Architect is a work of theory but refers to real buildings and real world problems It is Spector's call to arms for his profession and a must read for practicing architects and students alike Muqarnas, Volume 25 Gülru Necipoglu, 2009-03-31 Muqarnas is sponsored by The Aga Khan Program for Islamic Architecture at Harvard University and the Massachusetts Institute of Technology Cambridge Massachusetts In Muqarnas articles are being published on all aspects of Islamic visual culture historical and contemporary as well as articles dealing with unpublished textual primary sources

The Aesthetics of Food Kevin W. Sweeney, 2017-12-29 The Aesthetics of Food sets out the continuing philosophical debate about the aesthetic nature of food The debate begins with Plato's claim that only objects of sight and hearing could be beautiful consequently food as something we smell and taste could not be beautiful Plato's sceptical position has been both supported and opposed in one form or another throughout the ages This book demonstrates how the current debate has evolved and critically assesses that debate showing how it has been influenced by the changing nature of critical theory and changes in art historical paradigms Expressionism Modernism and Post modernism as well as by recent advances in neuroscience It also traces changes in our understanding of the sensory experience of food and drink from viewing taste as a simple single sense to current views on its complex multi sensory nature Particular attention is paid to recent philosophical discussion about wine whether an interest in a wine reflects only a subjective or personal preference or whether one can make objective judgments about the quality and merit of a wine Finally the book explores how the debate has been informed by changes in the cooking presenting and consuming of food for example by the appearance of the restaurant in the early nineteenth century as well as the rise of celebrity chefs Aesthetics in Performance Angela Hobart, Bruce

Kapferer, 2006-12-01 In various ways the essays presented in this volume explore the structures and aesthetic possibilities of music dance and dramatic representation in ritual and theatrical situations in a diversity of ethnographic contexts in Europe the Americas Africa and Asia Each essay enters into a discussion of the logic of aesthetic processes exploring their social and political and symbolic import The aim is above all to explore the way artistic and aesthetic practices in performance produce and structure experience Goethe in English Derek Glass, Martin H. Jones, 2005 This bibliography was commissioned by the English Goethe Society as a contribution to the celebration in 1999 of the 250th anniversary of Goethe's birth It sets out to record translations of his works into English that have been published in the twentieth century up to and including material published in that anniversary year It aims to serve as wide a constituency as possible be it as a simple reference tool for tracing a translation of a given work or as a documentary source for specialized studies of Goethe reception in the English speaking world The work records publications during the century not merely translations that originated during this period It includes numerous reprintings of older material as well as some belated first publications of translations from the nineteenth century It shows how frequent and how long enduring was the recourse of publishers and anthologists to a Goethe Victorian in diction a signal factor in perceptions and misperceptions Derek Glass was putting the finishing touches to the bibliography at the time of his sudden death in March 2004 Colleagues at Kings College London have edited the final manuscript which is now published jointly by the English Goethe Society and the Modern Humanities Research Association both as a worthy commemoration of Goethe's anniversary and as a tribute to Derek himself Values in Landscape Architecture and Environmental Design M. Elen Deming, 2015-11-09 The successful realization of diversity resilience usefulness profitability or beauty in landscape design requires a firm understanding of the stakeholders values This collection which incorporates a wide variety of geographic locations and cultural perspectives reinforces the necessity for clear and articulate comprehension of the many factors that guide the design process As the contributors to this collection reveal dominant and emerging social political philosophical and economic concerns perpetually assert themselves in designed landscapes from manifestations of class consciousness in Napa Valley vineyards to recurring themes and conflicts in American commemorative culture as seen in designs for national memorials One essay demonstrates the lasting impact of the doctrine of Manifest Destiny on the culture and spaces of the Midwest while another considers the shifting historical narratives that led to the de domestication and subsequent re wilding of the Oostvaardersplassen in the Netherlands These eleven essays help foster the ability to conduct a balanced analysis of various value systems and produce a lucid visualization of the necessary tradeoffs Offering an array of case studies and theoretical arguments Values in Landscape Architecture and Environmental Design encourages professionals and educators to bring self awareness precision and accountability to their consideration of landscape designs Books in Series , 1985 Vols for 1980 issued in three parts Series Authors and Titles

Rethinking Art History Donald Preziosi, 1989-01-01 A general overview of the theoretical and institutional history of the discipline of art history Refuting the image of art history as a discipline in crisis Preziosi asserts that many of the dilemmas and contradictions of art history today are not new but can be traced back to problems surrounding the founding of the discipline its institutionalization and its academic expansion since the 1870s Donald Preziosi has written a timely and incisive study of the methods and assumptions of art history in the modern period As the book unfolds one realizes that art history was never as unitary and monolithic as the phrase the discipline of art history suggests but is in fact a complicated and highly contradictory range of practices whose disciplinary coherence may be more mythical than real This is a deliberately discomfiting book however for its clear sightedness rigor and wit it is a book to be welcomed by everyone concerned with the present condition and future direction of visual studies Norman Bryson Harvard University An important and courageous book Rethinking Art History is a rigorous and original contribution to the current post structuralist and postmodernist debates in cultural studies here and abroad Steven Z Levine Bryn Mawr College Through this kind of reading of the discourse of art history Preziosi provides some acute analysis of the metaphors and stratagems which continue to discipline the discipline of art history

Art and Architecture of the Synagogue in Byzantine Palaestina Asaf Friedman, 2019-05-24 The Byzantine era was a time of the formation of the Abrahamic religions and a battleground for people's hearts and minds This book shows that during the time of the Byzantine Empire the synagogues in Palaestina developed a visual language adhering to traditional literary sources Until now scholars believed that Judaism was oblivious to all art forms regarding them as mere decoration This book shows that contrary to those beliefs Jewish art was in fact flourishing in this period The visual language that emerged is a trope that utilizes literal and figurative readings to arrive at an inquisitive mixture a probing language that facilitates learning It is a visual language of becoming of inward introspection and outward scrutiny This new analysis goes beyond the limits of compositional rules and requires an analytical as well as emotive thought process to form a cultural interpretation that reveals the hidden language This means that some parts of Judaism and some parts of Christianity were in agreement despite the commandment of Thou shalt not make unto thee any graven image and operated under the assumption that paintings were not necessarily the creation of idols Thus we see that the modern movements of art and architecture were not the first to deal with images through themes such as abstraction and denotation The language developed during the Byzantine period could rival the best of such visual languages

Living Ruins, Value Conflicts Argyro Loukaki, 2016-12-05 Using monuments and ruins by way of illustration this fascinating book examines the symbolic ideological geographical and aesthetic importance of Greek classical iconography for the Western world It examines how classical Greek monuments are simultaneously perceived as sublime national symbols and as a mythological and archetypal reference against which Western modernism is measured The book investigates the dialogue this double identity leads to as well as frequent clashes between ancient but also later monuments and their modern urban or regional environment Living Ruins Value Conflicts examines the complex historical process of monument restoration and enhancement and analyses the nexus of changing perceptions aesthetic visions and formal principles over the past two centuries The book shows the ways in which archaeology and monumentality affect modern life the modern aesthetic our notions of nationhood of place of self and the limits to and possibilities for national development imposed by the need to ensure ruins are kept alive
