East African Running Yannis Pitsiladis, John Bale, Craig Sharp, Tim Noakes, 2007-01-24 What makes East African middle and long distance runners the best in the world How should contemporary academia approach this question The success of East African distance runners has generated a plethora of studies but much of the evidence presented to support hypotheses is anecdotal arguments being led by non academics who use popular media as their medium rather than relying on scientific publications This has resulted in many stereotypical arguments being advocated Within the academic community research has also been restricted by its isolation within either the natural science or social science communities East African Running Towards a Cross Disciplinary Perspective presents a rare collaboration between researchers from the sports sciences and social sciences to explore the questions raised by the phenomena of East African success on the track The text includes psycho social and economic explanations physiological and genetic explanations attempts to provide unified theories bringing together ideas from natural and social sciences Includes contributions from John Bale Jim Denison Timothy D Noakes and Craig Sharp

Running Times, 2007-07 Running Times magazine explores training from the perspective of top athletes coaches and scientists rates and profiles elite runners and provides stories and commentary reflecting the dedicated runner's worldview

Kenya's Running Women Michelle M Sikes, 2023-12-01 Since Pauline Konga's breakthrough performance at the 1996 summer Olympics in Atlanta the world has become accustomed to seeing Kenyan women medal at major championships sweep marathons and set world records Yet little is known about the pioneer generation of women who paved the way for Kenya's reputation as an international powerhouse in women's track and field. In Kenya's Running Women: A History, historian and former professional runner Michelle M. Sikes details the triumphs and many challenges these women faced from the advent of Kenya's athletics program in the colonial era through the professionalization of running in the 1980s and 1990s. Sikes reveals how over time running became a vehicle for Kenyan women to expand the boundaries of acceptable female behavior. Kenya's Running Women demonstrates the necessity of including women in histories of African sport and of incorporating sport into studies of African gender and nation building.

Lore of Running Timothy Noakes, 2003 Dr. Noakes explores the physiology of running, all aspects of training and recognizing, avoiding and treating injuries. 133 illustrations.

Kenyan Running John Bale, Joe Sang, 2013-09-13 1997 British Society of Sports History Lord Aberdare Literary Prize for Sports History The record-breaking achievements of Kenyan athletes have caught the imagination of the world of sport. How significant really is Kenya in the world of sports? This book, the first to look in detail at the evolution and significance of a single sport in an African country, seeks to answer these and many other questions. Kenyan Running blends history, geography, sociology and anthropology in its quest to describe the emergence of Kenyan athletics from its pre-colonial traditions to its position in the modern world of globalized sport. The authors show the qualities of stamina and long distance running were recognized by early twentieth-century travellers in East Africa and how modern running was imposed by colonial administrators and school teachers as a means of social control to replace the indigenous folk traditions.

The Anthropology of Sport and Human Movement Robert R. Sands, Linda R. Sands, 2012-01-01 The Anthropology of Sport and Human Movement represents a collection of work that reveals and explores the often-times dramatic relationship of our biology and culture that is inextricably woven into a tapestry of movement patterns. It explores the underpinning of human movement reflected in play, sport, games and human culture from an evolutionary perspective and contemporary expression of sport and human movement.

Catch Me If You Can Filbert Bayi, Myles Schrag, 2022-06-01 Half a century ago Filbert Bayi revolutionized how the middle distance races were run. During that heyday of athletics competition before pacers were hired to take the lead, the unheralded Tanzanian served as his own rabbit. The innovative Bayi set a blistering pace that dared formidable challengers from around the globe to catch him if you can. After a singular career that included two world records and Olympic and Commonwealth Games medals, Bayi took the same assertive approach into post-racing life as an educator and sports administrator. He still embodies excellence in a school and foundation that bear his name as he strives to improve his country and community. In telling his long-awaited story, Bayi recounts hardships as well as enduring friendships with great rivals like John Walker. Over nearly 70 years, his experiences consistently reflect the three values he treasures most: sacrifice, commitment and confidence, setting an unforgettable example for anyone anywhere to follow.
