Excerpt from The Age of the Condottieri A Short History of Medieval Italy From 1409 1530 In the first section of this history entitled Guelphs and Ghibellines the fortunes of the peninsula were traced from the death of the Emperor Frederick II in 1250 down to the Council of Pisa in 1409 In the present section it is proposed to carry on the narrative down to the fall of Florence in 1530 Having arrived at the middle point of our long journey it will be convenient to cast an eye both forwards and backwards and to consider briefly the fortunes of the five principal states of Italy Milan Florence Venice Rome and Naples during these three momentous centuries We will shortly recapitulate the steps by which they gradually attained the rank of states and follow their destinies to the point where they are just about to merge into a common Italy Milan was the first of the Italian towns to undergo the transformation from a commune to a country In the previous book we witnessed the rise of the power of the Visconti and have seen how that power was eventually concentrated in the hands of one of its members Gian Galeazzo About the Publisher Forgotten Books publishes hundreds of thousands of rare and classic books Find more at www.forgottenbooks.com This book is a reproduction of an important historical work Forgotten Books uses state of the art technology to digitally reconstruct the work preserving the original format whilst repairing imperfections present in the aged copy In rare cases an imperfection in the original such as a blemish or missing page may be replicated in our edition We do however repair the vast majority of imperfections successfully any imperfections that remain are intentionally left to preserve the state of such historical works

The Age of the Condottieri; a Short History of Mediaeval Italy from 1409-1530, By Oscar Browning Oscar Browning, The Age of Wars of Religion, 1000-1650 Cathal J. Nolan, 2006-04-30

The Age of Wars of Religion saw navies armies armed merchant companies and mercenaries battle one another and local potentates in many lands and along numerous shores Wars of religion were fought in and between all the major religions and civilizations from Europe to China in Africa and in the isolated Americas mixing motives of knightly idealism mercenary greed and competing claims of divine sanction This unparalleled work traces the extraordinary upheavals of the period in military technology competing theologies and civilizational change that were brought about by or impinged upon military conflict It offers nearly 2 000 discrete but cross referenced entries on cultural military religious and political history as well as geography biography and military literature Close to 2 000 entries offer detailed information on the major events places battles figures technologies and ideas one must know to begin to make sense of the past six centuries of global conflicts Though especially ferocious and intense the Wars of Reformation and Counter Reformation fought by Europeans from the 15th through 17th centuries were hardly unique in world or military history The Byzantine Empire bastion of Christian Orthodoxy staggered to the tortuous end of its long conflict with the Ottoman Empire the Great Power of the Sunni Muslim world The Ottomans in turn were still engaged in an equally ancient intra Muslim war between Sunnis and Shi ites In India the Hindu Rajputs and Marathas and also the Sikhs organized armies around religious communities to throw off the Muslim Yoke Mughul Empire and also fought against Christian invaders from Europe As for the isolated Americas ideas of divine kingship sustained by powerful priesthoods and religious warfare also prevailed as exemplified by the Inca and Aztec empires AGE OF THE CONDOTTIERI OSCAR.
