Nationalbewusstsein und gegenwärtige Migrationserfahrungen zusammengehen. Haben die Kirchen in ökumenischer Perspektive dazu etwas Spezifisches zu sagen? Mit diesen Fragen beschäftigt sich dieser Tagungsband der Societas Oecumenica. Mit Beiträgen von Elzbieta Adamiak, Niko Huttunen, Petre Maican, Ivana Noble, Friederike Nessel, Peter Phan, Hector Scerri, Peter Ben Smit, Andrea Ströbind, Ulrike Link-Wieczorek, Kaholi Zhimomi. Churches in Europe have specific historical experiences regarding their relationship with the nation. Although in principle it is agreed that the Christian faith is in its basic tendency shaped by a supranational even universalistic character since the 19th century at the latest it has been repeatedly asked whether nation and national identity do not belong to God's creation. At present this is controversially discussed in the churches of Europe closely connected with experiences of migration. Can national consciousness and current migration experiences go together? Do churches have anything specific to say about this in an ecumenical perspective? These are the questions addressed in this conference volume of the Societas Oecumenica.

Magical Manuscripts in Early Modern Europe Daniel Bellingradt, Bernd-Christian Otto, 2017-08-31 This book presents the story of a unique collection of 140 manuscripts of learned magic that was sold for a fantastic sum within the clandestine channels of the German book trade in the early eighteenth century. The book will interpret this collection from two angles as an artefact of the early modern book market as well as the long tradition of Western learned magic thus taking a new stance towards scribal texts that are often regarded as eccentric, peripheral or marginal. The study is structured by the apparent exceptionality, scarcity and illegality of the collection and provides chapters on clandestine activities in European book markets, questions of censorship regimes and efficiency, the use of manuscripts in an age of print and the history of learned magic in early modern Europe. As the collection has survived till this day in Leipzig University Library the book provides a critical edition of the 1710 selling catalogue which includes a brief content analysis of all extant manuscripts. The study will be of interest to scholars and students from a variety of fields such as early modern book history, the history of magic, cultural history, the sociology of religion or the study of Western esotericism.
