THE PARABLE OF THE UNFORGIVING SERVANT

²¹ Then Peter approached him and asked, "Lord, how many times must I forgive my brother or sister who sins against me? As many as seven times?"

²² "I tell you, not as many as seven," Jesus replied, "but seventy times seven."

²³ For this reason, the kingdom of heaven can be compared to a king who wanted to settle accounts with his servants.²⁴ When he began to settle accounts, one who owed him thousands of talents was brought before him.²⁵ Since he did not have the money to pay it back, his master commanded that he, his family, his children, and everything he had be sold to pay the debt.

²⁶ At this, the servant fell face-down before him and said, "Be patient with me, and I will pay you everything."²⁷ Then the master of that servant had compassion, released him, and forgave him the loan.

²⁸ That servant went out and found one of his fellow servants who owed him a hundred denarii. He grabbed him, started choking him, and said, "Pay what you owe!"

had mercy on you?"³⁴ And because he was angry, his master handed him to the jailers to be tortured until he had paid everything that was owed.³⁵ So my heavenly Father will do to you any one of you who forgives his brother without loving your heart.³⁶

THE QUESTION OF DIVORCE

19 When Jesus had finished saying these things, he departed from Judea and went to the region of Galilee. The Pharisees and Sadducees followed him and he taught them there.² Since the Pharisees approached him to test him, he asked, "Is it lawful for a man to divorce his wife on any grounds?"

³ "Haven't you read," he replied, "that the one who created them in the beginning made them male and female,⁴ and he said, 'For this reason a man will leave his father and mother and be united to his wife, and the two will become one flesh.'⁵ So they are no longer two, but one flesh. Therefore, what God has joined together, let no one separate."

⁶ "Why then," they asked him, "did Moses command us to give divorce papers and to send her away?"

⁷ He told them, "Moses permitted you to divorce your wives because of the hardness of your hearts, but it was not so from the beginning.⁸ I tell you, anyone who divorces his wife, except for sexual immorality, and marries another person commits adultery."

⁹ His disciples said to him, "If the requirement of a man with his wife is like this, it's better not to marry."

BLESSING THE CHILDREN

¹³ Then little children were brought to Jesus for him to place his hands on them and pray, but the disciples refused them.¹⁴ Jesus said, "Let the little children alone, and don't try to keep them from coming to me, because the kingdom of heaven belongs to such as these."¹⁵ After placing his hands on them, he went to Bethsaida.

THE RICH YOUNG RULER

When then someone came up and asked him, "Teacher, what good must I do to have eternal life?"

² "Why do you ask me about what is good?" he said to him. "There is only one who is good. If you want to enter into life, obey the commandments."

³ "Which ones?" he asked him. Jesus answered: "Do not murder; do not commit adultery; do not steal; do not bear false witness.⁴ Honor your father and your mother," and love your neighbor as yourself."

⁵ "I have kept all these," the young man said. "What do I still lack?"

⁶ Jesus said to him, "If you want to be perfect, go, sell what you own, bring it here, and give it to the poor, and you will have treasure in heaven. Then follow me."

⁷ At this, the young man bowed that he wanted to follow him, but he had many possessions and went away.

POSSIBILITIES FOR THE KINGDOM

¹² Jesus said to his disciples, "Truly I tell you, it will be hard for a rich person to enter the kingdom of heaven. Again I tell you, it is easier for a camel to go through the eye of a needle than for a rich person to enter the kingdom of heaven."

¹³ When the disciples heard this, they were utterly astonished and asked, "Who then can be saved?"

¹⁴ Jesus looked at them and said, "Humans are impossible, but for God, all things are possible."

¹⁵ Then Peter responded to him, "We have left everything and followed you. What will there be for us?"

¹⁶ Jesus said to them, "Truly I tell you, there is no one who has left all and followed me, who will not receive many times as much in this age and in the age to come, and will inherit eternal life.¹⁷ But many who are first will be last, and the last first."

THE PARABLE OF THE VINEYARD WORKERS

20 "For the kingdom of heaven is like a landowner who went out early in the morning to hire workers for his vineyard.² After agreeing with the workers to pay them a denarius, he sent them into his vineyard for the day.³ When he went out about nine in the morning, he saw others standing in the marketplace doing nothing.⁴ He said to them, 'You also go into my vineyard, and I'll give you whatever is right.' So off they went.⁵ About noon and about three, he went out again and did the same thing.⁶ Then about five he went and found others standing around and said to them, 'Why have you been standing here all day doing nothing?'⁷

⁸ "Because no one hired us," they said to him.

⁹ "Go also go into my vineyard," he said to them.¹⁰ When evening came, the owner of the vineyard told his foreman, "Call the workers and give them their pay, starting with the last and ending with the first."

¹¹ When those who were hired about five came, they each received one denarius.¹² So when the first ones came, they expected they would get more, but they also received a denarius each.¹³ When they received it, they began to complain to the landowner.¹⁴ "These last men put in one hour, and you made them equal to us who bore the burden of the day's work and the scorching heat!"

¹⁵ He replied to one of them, Friend, I'm doing you no wrong. Didn't you agree with me for a denarius?¹⁶ Take what is yours and go. I want to give this last man the same as I gave you.¹⁷ Don't I have the right to do what I want with what is mine? Are you jealous because I'm generous?"

¹⁸ So the last will be first, and the first last."

THE THIRD PREDICTION OF HIS DEATH

While Jesus was going up to Jerusalem, he sent two of his disciples aside privately and said to them on the way, "See, we are going up to Jerusalem. The Son of Man will be handed over to the chief priests and they will condemn him to death. They will hand him over to the Romans. He will be mocked, flogged, and then he will be killed. The third day he will be raised to life."

SUFFERING AND SERVICE

²¹ Then the son of Zebedee's wife approached him with her sons. She knelt down to ask him for something.²² "What do you want?" he asked her.

²³ "Provide," she said to him, "that these two sons of mine may sit, one on your right and the other on your left, in your kingdom."
