Raymond Olusesan Aina,2022-07-06 Overcoming Toxic Emotions is a compelling theme to enrich the restorative justice literature on the complex tasks of relational repair in a transitional society With its emphasis on the centrality of rebuilding trust and renewing the mode of being together this book is an innovative addition to the literature on justice in transitional societies It offers an original assessment of the Nigerian experience of restorative justice in peacebuilding This genuinely theological work opens new perspectives for a more adequate understanding of the Christian contribution to peacebuilding and the secular debate on restorative justice Yet the author expresses himself as an African theologian paying attention to the specific context of the problems about transitional justice and integrating spontaneously the wisdom of his dual cultures Yoruba and Christianity With its attentiveness to victim perspectives the book engages the traditional notion of divine omnipotence and vulnerability The book rejects the notion of the fetish omnipotent God It opts instead for an image of God as vulnerable yet powerful in love compelling inspiring and rallying us      Qualitative Research Practice Clive Seale,2007 Aimed at the student reader this book demonstrates the benefits of using particular methods from the viewpoint of real life experience It contains chapters written by leading internationally distinguished qualitative researchers who recount and reflect on their own research experiences as well as others      Medical Books and Serials in Print ,1983      International Books in Print ,1986      American Book Publishing Record Cumulative, 1950-1977: Non-Dewey decimal classified titles R.R.
