Stupid Tiger:

The Stupid Tiger and Other Tales Upendra Kishore Ray Choudhury, 1981 Twenty Bengali animal tales in which the wily defeat the strong and the bully gets his comeuppance Colonial India in Children's Literature Supriya Goswami, 2012-07-26 Colonial India in Children's Literature is the first book length study to explore the intersections of children's literature and defining historical moments in colonial India Engaging with important theoretical and critical literature that deals with colonialism hegemony and marginalization in children's literature Goswami proposes that British Anglo Indian and Bengali children's literature respond to five key historical events the missionary debates preceding the Charter Act of 1813 the defeat of Tipu Sultan the Mutiny of 1857 the birth of Indian nationalism and the Swadeshi movement resulting from the Partition of Bengal in 1905 Through a study of works by Mary Sherwood 1775 1851 Barbara Hofland 1770 1844 Sara Jeanette Duncan 1861 1922 Rudyard Kipling 1865 1936 Upendrakishore Ray 1863 1915 and Sukumar Ray 1887 1923 Goswami examines how children's literature negotiates and represents these momentous historical forces that unsettled Britain's imperial ambitions in India Goswami argues that nineteenth century British and Anglo Indian children's texts reflect two distinct moods in Britain's colonial enterprise in India Sherwood and Hofland writing before 1857 use the tropes of conversion and captivity as a means of awakening children to the dangers of India whereas Duncan and Kipling shift the emphasis to martial prowess adaptability and empirical knowledge as defining qualities in British and Anglo Indian children Furthermore Goswami's analysis of early nineteenth century children's texts written by women authors redresses the preoccupation with male authors and boys adventure stories that have largely informed discussions of juvenility in the context of colonial India This groundbreaking book also seeks to open up the canon by examining early twentieth century Bengali children's texts that not only draw literary inspiration from nineteenth century British children's literature but whose themes are equally shaped by empire Urban Carefree Sovereign Quan Zhang Tian Xia, 2020-02-18 After falling into an isolated cave he learned a lot of skills and returned to the city to start a brilliant new life He had never felt more frustrated than when his girlfriend publicly refused to marry him As the most high profile rich kid in the world when has he ever been rejected like that In a moment of shock he was drunk and fell off a cliff He accidentally fell into a cave isolated from the world Inside there was an old man who had practiced martial arts for thousands of years In addition to shocking he was determined to wash away the shame of being abandoned and determined to make himself better So he worshiped the old man as a teacher and learned skills Then he returned to the city After returning this time he is no longer the naive and fragile boy but has grown into a mature and responsible man in charge of the family business attracting many girls what else can he do About the Author Quan Zhang Tian Xia a well known online novelist his novels have twists and turns distinctive characters humorous language and strong readability Dragon King's Runaway Bride BLUE AnQiEr, 2020-01-02 p p the dragon king to earth through a thousand years of thunder into a small snake in the day of thunder was picked up by a human
