Styles of Creation George Edgar Slusser, Eric S. Rabkin, 1992 The impetus behind this collection of original essays is the tension between the aesthetic emphasis on stylistics in science fiction and fantasy writing and the critical limitations imposed by prevailing literary theory From a variety of perspectives the contributors show how a new or expanded set of methods and models can enrich critical exchange within the genre and between it and other types of fiction The focus of the book is not entirely on critical restraints but also on the genre's robustly subversive creative drive its unwillingness or inability to pause for critical validation The essays examine the proliferation of stylistic acts and experiments in science fiction and fantasy writing as assess the genre's revolutionary qualities its reordering of narrative priorities inversion of consecrated categories and elevation of minor devices

Narrative of Chinese and Western Popular Fiction Yonglin Huang, 2018-09-26 This book presents a comprehensive and systematic study of the narrative history and narrative methods of Chinese and Western popular fiction from the perspectives of narratology comparative literature and art and literature studies by adopting the methodology of parallel comparison The book is a pioneering work that systematically investigates the similarities and differences between Chinese and Western popular fiction and traces the root causes leading to the differences By means of narrative comparison it explores the conceptual and spiritual correlations and differences between Chinese and Western popular fiction and by relating them to the root causes of cultural spirit allows us to gain an insight into the cultural heritage of different nations The book is structured in line with a cause and effect logical sequence and moves from the macroscopic to the microscopic from history to reality and from theory to practice The integration of macro level theoretical studies and micro level case studies is both novel and effective This book was awarded Second Prize at the Sixth Outstanding Achievement Awards in Scientific Research for Chinese Institutions of Higher Learning Humanities Social Sciences 2013

Fiction in Shanghai, 1914-1925 Peijie Mao, 2021-12-02 This book explores the rise of Shanghai based popular magazines produced by the Mandarin Ducks and Butterflies School in early twentieth century China. It examines the national gender family and social imaginaries constructed and negotiated through a complex network of relationships between popular writers, magazine editors and their intended readers which were represented in various forms of popular narratives including patriotic stories, war military stories, family narratives, domestic fiction, utopian writings and industrial business stories. The author argues that the national imagination, social ideals and the notions of ideal womanhood and the new family were intrinsically linked and integral to the search for cultural identity of the emerging Chinese middle society and an expression of their collective sensibilities, experiences and aspirations. This book suggests that the cultural imaginaries configured in these magazine stories articulated a shared quest for modernity, one that emphasized sentiment, quotidian experience, the pursuit of the modern family and individual success, strengthening of the nation and the reinvention of cultural tradition. Popular magazines and fiction therefore became uniquely instrumental in catalyzing the process of Chinese modernity which emerged and developed along the symbiotic interrelations between the private and the public, the traditional and the modern and the real and the imaginary.

A History of Contemporary Chinese Literature Zicheng Hong, 2007 A thorough overview and analysis of the literary scene in China during the 1949-1999 period, focusing primarily on fiction, poetry, drama and prose writing. Provided by publisher.

Reading China Against the Grain Carlos Rojas, Mei-hwa Sung, 2020-10-28 Through an analysis of a wide array of contemporary Chinese literature from inside and outside of China, this volume considers some of the ways in which China and Chineseness are understood and imagined. Using the central theme of the way in which literature has the potential to both reinforce and to undermine a national imaginary, the volume contains chapters offering new perspectives on well-known authors from Jin Yucheng to Nobel Prize-winning Mo Yan, as well as chapters focusing on authors rarely included in discussions of contemporary Chinese literature, such as the expatriate authors Larissa Lai and Xiaolu Guo. The volume is complemented by chapters covering more marginalized literary figures throughout history, such as Macau-born poet Yiling, the Malaysian-born novelist Zhang Guixing and the ethnically Korean author Kim Hak-chul. Invested in issues ranging from identity and representation to translation and grammar, it is one of the few publications of its kind, devoting comparable attention to authors from Mainland China, authors from Manchuria, Macau and Taiwan, and throughout the global Chinese diaspora.

Reading China Against the Grain: Imagining Communities is a rich resource of literary criticism for students and scholars of Chinese studies, sinophone studies and comparative literature.

A Companion to Modern Spanish American Fiction Donald Leslie Shaw, 2002 With such figures as Jorge Luis Borges, Miguel Angel Asturias and Gabriel Garcia Marquez, both the latter Nobel Prize winners, Spanish American fiction is now unquestionably an integral part of the mainstream of Western literature. This book draws on the most recent research in describing the origins and development of narrative in Spanish America during the nineteenth and twentieth centuries, tracing the pattern from Romanticism and Realism through Modernismo Naturalism and Regionalism to the Boom and beyond It shows how while seldom moving completely away from satire social criticism and protest Spanish American fiction has evolved through successive phases in which both the conceptions of the writer s task and presumptions about narrative and reality have undergone radical alterations DONALD SHAW holds the Brown Forman Chair of Spanish American literature in the University of Virginia

100 American Crime Writers S. Powell,2012-08-07 100 American Crime Writers features discussion and analysis of the lives of crime writers and their key works examining the developments in American crime writing from the Golden Age to hardboiled detective fiction This study is essential to scholars and an ideal introduction to crime fiction for anyone who enjoys this fascinating genre

Reading by Numbers Katherine Bode,2012-07-01 Reading by Numbers Recalibrating the Literary Field is the first book to use digital humanities strategies to integrate the scope and methods of book and publishing history with issues and debates in literary studies By mining visualising and modelling data from AustLit an online bibliography of Australian literature that leads the world in its comprehensiveness and scope this study revises established conceptions of Australian literary history presenting new ways of writing about literature and publishing and a new direction for digital humanities research The case studies in this book offer insight into a wide range of features of the literary field including trends and cycles in the gender of novelists the formation of fictional genres and literary canons and the relationship of Australian literature to other national literatures

Blogging from Egypt Pepe Teresa Pepe,2019-01-22 Six years before the Egyptian revolution of January 2011 many young Egyptians had resorted to blogging as a means of self expression and literary creativity This resulted in the emergence of a new literary genre the autofictional blog Such blogs are explored here as forms of digital literature combining literary analysis and interviews with the authors The blogs analysed give readers a glimpse into the daily lives feelings and aspirations of the Egyptian youth who have pushed the country towards a cultural and political revolution The narratives are also indicative of significant aesthetic and political developments taking place in Arabic literature and culture

Profiles of Canada Kenneth G. Pryke,Walter C. Soderlund,2003 This third edition of Profiles of Canada combines depth breadth sophistication and readability to offer the student a comprehensive introduction to Canadian society The editors have brought together contributions from a wide range of disciplines to create a fascinating overview of the various facets of Canadian life and culture The text includes aspects of the Canadian experience not usually found in introductory texts The inclusion of a short story by Alistair MacLeod for example is an innovative departure from the academic writing of the other chapters and provides the student of Canadian society with a sample of the finest in contemporary Canadian writing Editors Dr Kenneth Pryke and Dr Walter Soderlund have carried out a successful update of the earlier editions of this well respected text Aspects of Canada explored in this new edition include regionalism the North demography ethnicity culture and sport
