The Counterfeit Coin Christopher Goetz, 2023-05-12 The Counterfeit Coin argues that games and related entertainment media have become almost inseparable from fantasy In turn these media are making fantasy itself visible in new ways Though apparently asocial and egocentric an internal mental image expressing the fulfillment of some wish fantasy has become a key term in social contestations of the emerging medium At issue is whose fantasies are catered to who feels powerful and gets their way and who is left out This book seeks to undo the monolith of commercial gaming by locating multiplicity and difference within fantasy itself It introduces and tracks three broad fantasy traditions that dynamically connect apparently distinct strata of a game story and play that join games to other media and that encircle players in pleasurable loops as they follow these connections

Sister Style Nadia E. Brown, Danielle Casarez Lemi, 2021-01-19 They don t think I m viable because I m a Black woman with natural hair and no husband This comment was made by Stacey Abrams shortly before the 2018 Democratic primary after she became the first Black woman to win a majority party s nomination for governor Abrams sentiment reflects the wider environment for Black women in politics in which racist and sexist cultural ideas have long led Black women to be demeaned and fetishized for their physical appearance In Sister Style Nadia E Brown and Danielle Casarez Lemi argue that Black women s political experience and the way that voters evaluate them is shaped overtly by their skin tone and hair texture with hair being a particular point of scrutiny They ask what the politics of appearance for Black women mean for Black women politicians and Black voters and how expectations about self presentation differ for Black women versus Black men White men and White women Black women running for office face pressure often from campaign consultants and even close colleagues to change their style in order to look more like White women However as this book shows Black women candidates and elected officials react differently to these pressures depending on factors like age and incumbency Moreover Brown and Lemi delve into the ways in which Black voters react to Black female candidates based on appearance They base their argument in part on focus groups with Black women candidates and elected officials and show that there are generational differences that determine what sorts of styles Black women choose to adopt and to what extent they change their physical appearance based on external expectations
