Forty-one Years in India from Subaltern to Commander-in-Chief by Field-Marshal Frederick Sleight Roberts [Roberts] Frederick Sleight Roberts, 1897

Cyberculture and the Subaltern Radhika Gajjala, 2012-11-24 Cyberculture and the Subaltern Weavings of the Virtual and Real edited by Radhika Gajjala maps how voice and silence shape online space in relation to offline actualities Thus it weaves the virtual and real in relation to so called old and new technologies using globalization and technology as the frame for examination Implicit in this investigation is the question of how offline actualities and online cultures are in turn shaped by online hierarchies as well as different kinds of local access to global contexts This book reveals the logic of particular global local directions that emerge within digital transnational capital and labor flows To this end the contributors to this volume examine various sites and intersections through critical lenses enabled by conversations and writings in subaltern studies affect theory postcolonial feminist theory critical cultural studies communication studies critical development studies and science and technology studies Contexts explored in this collection include microfinance online handloom contexts from India and Africa in relation to development discourse new technologies and virtual world marketing Through actual auto ethnographic engagement Cyberculture and the Subaltern reveals the interdependence of the economic political cultural and social in the production of the subaltern online The Latin American Subaltern Studies Reader Ileana Rodríguez,2001-09-24 Argues for the saliency of the category of the subaltern over that of class Mapping Subaltern Studies and the Postcolonial Vinayak Chaturvedi,2012-11-13 Inspired by Antonio Gramsci s writings on the history of subaltern classes the authors in Mapping Subaltern Studies and the Postcolonial sought to contest the elite histories of Indian nationalists by adopting the paradigm of history from below Later on the project shifted from its social history origins by drawing upon an eclectic group of thinkers that included Edward Said Roland Barthes Michel Foucault and Jacques Derrida This book provides a comprehensive balance sheet of the project and its developments including Ranajit Guha s original subaltern studies manifesto Partha Chatterjee Dipesh Chakrabarty and Gayatri Spivak Neoliberal Globalisation and Resistance from Below Jasper Abembia Ayelazuno,2018-08-15 As bearers of their own emancipation the political agency of the subaltern classes is a vexed question a time honoured one at that Why do the subalterns endure injustices without revolting most of the time but revolt sometimes against some injustices The euphoria of globalisation from below this book argues skirts responsibility of addressing this question by presuming a groundswell of resistance across the world against neoliberal globalisation In contrast to this oeuvre Neoliberal Globalisation and Resistance from Below engages this question squarely by using the socio historical approach to explain why the subalterns resist neoliberal globalisation in Bolivia and not in Ghana The author urges scholars of critical political economy to pay greater attention to why the subalterns resist rather than how they resist or what the ideal end of their resistance should be Such refocusing of the research and political lens will yield a more realistic picture of what is politically possible in the social context of peripheral capitalism regarding an anti capitalist revolution The author further argues that this refocusing will cure many of the romantic anti capitalist claims and banal wishful thinking of a socialist revolution in peripheral capitalist regions such as Latin American The Middle East and North Africa MENA and Sub Saharan Africa Neoliberal Globalisation and Resistance from Below will be of interest to students and scholars of African politics neoliberalism globalisation political economy and subaltern politics Subaltern Women's Narratives Samraghni Bonnerjee,2020-12-29 Subaltern Women s Narratives brings together intersectional feminist scholarship from the Humanities and Social Sciences and explores subaltern women s

narratives of resistance and subversion Interdisciplinary in nature the collection focuses on fictional texts archival records and ethnographic research to explore the lived experiences of subaltern women in different marginalised communities across a wide geographical landscape as they negotiate their way through modes of labour and activism Thematically grouped the focus of this book is two fold to look at the lived experiences of subaltern women as they negotiate their lives in a world of political flux and conflicts and to examine subaltern women s dissenting practices as recorded in texts and archives This collection will push the boundaries of scholarship on decolonial and postcolonial feminism and subaltern studies reading women s subversive practices especially in the themes of epistemology and embodiment This book is aimed primarily at scholars postgraduates and undergraduates working in the fields of colonial and postcolonial studies It will appeal to both historians and scholars of nineteenth century and contemporary literature Specifically scholars working on subaltern theory feminist theory indigenous cultures anticolonial resistance and the Global South will find this book particularly relevant
