Subverting Vision Of Bulwer Lytton Bicentenary Reflections:

The Subverting Vision of Bulwer Lytton Allan Conrad Christensen, 2004 On the occasion of the bicentenary of Edward Bulwer Lytton's birth seventeen scholars from five countries have contributed essays devoted to many aspects of his career After the first essay that analyzes the reasons for Bulwer's extraordinary reputation in his own day twelve of the essays focus primarily upon one or more of the novels from Falkland 1827 to Kenelm Chillingly 1873 Other novels examined include Bulwer's The Last Days of Pompeii The Coming Race The Parisians and the Caxton trilogy as well as his Newgate novels In the volume are also considerations of the seminal treatise England and the English 1833 the incomplete history of Athens 1837 and the achievement of Bulwer Lytton as Colonial Secretary 1858-59 Two essays one written by a descendant of Bulwer deal with the overshadowing disaster of his life the marriage to Rosina Wheeler herself a novelist whose novels sought to undermine his Bulwer emerges from this collection of essays as a challengingly complex but coherent figure that merits the respect of contemporary students of the Victorian phenomenon Subverting Vision of Bulwer Lytton Allan Conrad Christensen, 2004

The Collected Letters of Rosina Bulwer Lytton Vol 1 Marie Mulvey-Roberts, 2024-10-28 In 1858 Rosina Bulwer Lytton was incarcerated in a lunatic asylum by her husband the eminent Victorian politician and novelist Edward Bulwer Lytton After the disintegration of their marriage Rosina wrote letters to prominent figures in which she revealed details about Edward's mistresses and illegitimate children Newgate Narratives Vol 4 Gary Kelly, 2017-09-29 Presents a representative body of Romantic and early Victorian crime literature This work contains ephemeral material ranging from gallows broadsides to reports into prison conditions It is suitable for those studying Literature Romantic and Victorian popular culture Dickens Studies and the History of Criminology Handbook of the English Novel, 1830-1900 Martin Middeke, Monika Pietrzak-Franger, 2020-05-05 Part I of this authoritative handbook offers systematic essays which deal with major historical social philosophical political cultural and aesthetic contexts of the English novel between 1830 and 1900 The essays offer a wide scope of aspects such as the Industrial Revolution religion and secularisation science technology medicine evolution or the increasing mediatisation of the lifeworld Part II then leads through the work of more than 25 eminent Victorian novelists Each of these chapters provides both historical and biographical contextualisation overview close reading and analysis They also encourage further research as they look upon the work of the respective authors at issue from the perspectives of cultural and literary theory In Lady Audley's Shadow Saverio

Tomaiuolo, 2010-10-05 This book is devoted to Mary Elizabeth Braddon's complex relationship with the three main Victorian literary genres the Gothic the Detective and the Realist novel Using Braddon's bestselling sensation fiction Lady Audley's Secret as a paradigmatic novel and as a haunting textual presence across her literary career this study provides a fertile critical reading of a wide range of Braddon's novels and short stories Through an analysis of Braddon's negotiations with Victorian narrative ideological and cultural issues this monograph offers readers a refreshing view of gender female identity and subjectivity the treatment of insanity questions related to technology and progress the impact of evolutionism and Darwinism the intersemiotic dialogue between pictorial art and novel writing the role of the female writer in the new literary market and the changing notion of capital in an increasingly fluid social context Braddon's manipulation of Victorian literary codes and conventions proves that she was something more than a mere sensation writer and that her primary role in the nineteenth century literary scene has to be reaffirmed Drawing on a wide range of textual materials and literary sources the book foregrounds Braddon's constant and sometimes ambivalent dialogue with her times and with ours as well

The Warm South Robert Holland, 2018-01-01 An evocative exploration of the impact of the Mediterranean on British culture ranging from the mid eighteenth century to today Ever since the age of the Grand Tour in the eighteenth century the Mediterranean has had a significant pull for Britons including many painters and poets who sought from it the inspiration beauty and fulfillment that evaded them at home Referred to as Magick Land by one traveler dreams about the Mediterranean and responses to it went on to shape the culture of a nation Written by one of the world's leading historians of the Mediterranean this book charts how a new sensibility arose from British engagement with the Mediterranean ancient and modern Ranging from Byron's poetry to Damien Hirst's installations Robert Holland shows that while idealized visions and aspirations often met with disillusionment and frustration the Mediterranean also offered a notably insular society the chance to enrich itself through an imagined world of color carnival and sensual self discovery British Columbia in the Balance

Jean Barman, 2023-04-04 Esteemed historian Jean Barman brings new insights on the seemingly disparate events that converged to lay the foundation of the present day province By examining newly accessible private correspondence exchanged with the Colonial Office in London Barman pieces together the chain of events that caused the distant colony of British Columbia to join the Canadian Confederation as opposed to the very real possibility of becoming one or more American states Following the division of the Pacific Northwest between Britain and the United States in 1846 it took British Columbia just a quarter of a century to be transformed from a largely Indigenous territory in 1871 into a province of the recently formed Canada Confederation In this detailed exploration of colonial politics including fur trader and politician James Douglas's governance and the critical role played by the many unions between white settlers and Indigenous women Barman expertly weaves together seemingly disparate events that converged to lay the foundations of today's Canadian province The Palgrave Handbook of Steam Age Gothic Clive Bloom, 2021-02-03 By the early 1830s the old school of Gothic literature was exhausted Late Romanticism emphasising as it did the uncertainties of personality and imagination gave it a new lease of life Gothic the literature of disturbance and uncertainty now produced works that reflected domestic fears sexual crimes drug filled hallucinations the terrible secrets of middle class marriage imperial horror at alien invasion occult demonism and the insanity of psychopaths It was from the 1830s onwards that the old gothic castle gave way to the country house drawing room the dungeon was displaced by the sewers of the city and the villains of early novels became the familiar figures of Dr Jekyll and Mr Hyde Dracula Dorian Grey and Jack the Ripper After the death of Prince Albert 1861 the Gothic became darker more morbid obsessed with demonic lovers blood sucking ghouls blood stained murderers and deranged doctors Whilst the gothic architecture of the Houses of Parliament and the new Puginesque churches upheld a Victorian ideal of sobriety Christianity and imperial destiny Gothic literature filled these new spaces with a dread that spread like a plague to America France Germany and even Russia From 1830 to 1914 the period covered by this volume we saw the emergence of the greats of Gothic literature and the supernatural from Edgar Allan Poe to Emily Bronte from Sheridan Le Fanu to Bram Stoker and Robert Louis Stevenson Contributors also examine the fin de siècle dreamers of decadence such as Arthur Machen M P Shiel and Vernon Lee and their obsession with the occult folklore spiritualism revenants ghostly apparitions and cosmic annihilation This volume explores the period through the prism of architectural history urban studies feminism hauntology and much more Horror as Poe teaches us is the soul of the plot novels in this collection present a vivid picture of late Regency society clinging to modes of behaviour which soon became obsolete and mark an important point of transition to Victorian cultural values Silver Fork Novels, 1826-1841 Vol 5 Harriet Devine Jump,Gary Kelly,2024-10-28 The novels in this collection present a vivid picture of late Regency society clinging to modes of behaviour which soon became obsolete and mark an important point of transition to Victorian cultural values Nineteenth-Century Fiction and the Production of Bloomsbury Matthew Ingleby,2018-11-05 This study explores the role of fiction in the social production of the West Central district of London in the nineteenth century It tells a new history of the novel from a local geographical perspective tracing developments in the form as it engaged with Bloomsbury in the period it emerged as the city s dominant literary zone A neighbourhood that was subject simultaneously to socioeconomic decline and cultural ascent fiction set in Bloomsbury is shown to have reconceived the area s marginality as potential autonomy Drawing on sociological theory this book critically historicizes Bloomsbury s trajectory to show that its association with the intellectual fraction known as the Bloomsbury Group at the beginning of the twentieth century was symptomatic rather than exceptional From the 1820s onwards writers positioned themselves socially within the metropolitan geography they projected through their fiction As Bloomsbury became increasingly identified with the cultural capital of writers rather than the economic capital of established wealth writers subtly affiliated themselves with the area and the figure of the writer and Bloomsbury became symbolically conflated Broken Mirrors Joe Trotta,Zlatan Filipovic,Houman Sadri,2019-11-07 Dystopian stories and visions of the Apocalypse are nothing new however in recent years there has been a noticeable surge in the output of this type of theme in literature art comic books graphic novels video games TV shows etc The reasons for this are not exactly clear it may partly be as a result of post 9 11 anxieties the increasing incidence of extreme weather and or environmental anomalies chaotic fluctuations in the economy and the uncertain and shifting political landscape in the west in general Investigating this highly topical and pervasive theme from interdisciplinary perspectives this volume presents various angles on the main topic through critical analyses of selected works of fiction film TV shows video games and more The Demographic Imagination and the Nineteenth-Century City Nicholas Daly,2015-03-30 In this provocative book Nicholas Daly tracks the cultural effects of the population explosion of the nineteenth century the demographic transition to the modern world As the crowded cities of Paris London and New York went through similar transformations a set of shared narratives and images of urban life circulated among them including fantasies of urban catastrophe crime dramas and tales of haunted public transport refracting the hell that is other people In the visual arts sentimental genre pictures appeared that condensed the urban masses into a handful of vulnerable figures newsboys and flower girls At the end of the century proto ecological stories emerge about the sprawling city as itself a destroyer This lively study excavates some of the origins of our own international popular culture from noir visions of the city as a locus of crime to utopian images of energy and community
